To exist his a fuller medium of communica-To establish a fuller medium of communication and supply the desideratum, the Jour-nul of Belles Lettres was added; which we have reason to believe has afforded general WALDIE'S LIBRARY, PORT FO satisfaction. The very liberal patronage ex-tended to the Library induced the proprietor to give that gratuitously as an evidence of his acknowledgments.

More extended experience has shown o her desiderata which the "Companion" is intended to supply. While reading for the "Library" a large mass of material accu-mulates on the hands of the editor, of an interesting, entertaining, and instructive description, such as would properly come under the designation of Magaziniana, interspersed with the Reviews from the English Quarterlies. To publish every thing of this nature which we deem desirable would en croach too much on the columns of the "Library" designed for books, and yet to pass them by is constantly a subject of regret.

To concentrate, therefore, the publication of Rooks entire, Reviews, lists of new works, the choicest contributions to Magazines.
