> VERY IMPORTANT FROM TEXAS. We have received to day from a gentleman in Texas a letter dated the 6th of September, giving the important intelligence that a Convention was to be held on ings, obtained at the sacrifice of exile from our beloved country (the United States,) to the Mexicans, or to expel them by force of arms from Texas our adopted country.—This we will do or die in the attempt. We occupy a country which but for our presence would ever have sensed and a sense of the country which but for our presence would ever have remained a wilderness, because the Mexicans were afraid to occupy a country inhabited by so many Inafraid to occupy a country inhanited by so many in-dians, and those numerous tribes which are settled about us in every direction, they are by spics and emisuries trying to raise to strike the first blow on the American settlers of Texas, and embrue their murderous tomahawks in the blood of our defenceless women and chillis is in that case dren. Our particular location is more exposed than any den. Our particular location is more exposed than any other, the neighborhood laving settlements of N. Sixty horses were counted the other day in the town. These Indians always have seen friendly with us, and would remain so, was it not for the infimous overtures made to them by the Commandant of the Mexican ar. my, who has taken possession of San Antoine, distant from us 340 miles, situated in the direction in which our neighboring Indians go to hunt.

"This desperate state of affairs will oblige me to change my plans. I have it in contemplation to take my family for immediate safety, to Fort Jessup, and leaving them there for a short time, as we have several friends in the garrison, till a more healthy season to descend Red River and ascend the Mississiphi, where in case our troubles continue they can remain. I shall not be able to accompany them, as all my future prospects

DEATH OF MR. BARRY.

The following letter from F. B. Ogden, Esq. U. S. Consul for Liverpool, contains the paintal intelligence of the death of Major Barry, our Minister to Spain. "No man, (says the Globe, in announcing his death) ever exhibited more mighle that of printing about them Mr. amiable traits of private character than Mr. Barry. His manners were of the softest, bland-Barry. His manners were of the softest, blandest, kindest cast. Benevolonce, generally and the nicest sensibility, were striking traits of his lift and indeed, his very faults and insfortunes grew out of an over confiding and conceding nature."
