COMPANION TO WALDIE'S LI-BRARY.

The cheapest reprint from English Periodicals ever offered to the public.

BEFORE the Select Circulating Libradiscovered that there was still something wanting-that many occurrences in the literary world must pass unknown, as regarded our agency, without an extension of the plan. To establish a fuller medium of communication and supply the desideratum, the Jour-nul of Belles Lettres was added; which we have reason to believe has afforded general satisfaction. The very liberal patrogage extended to the Library induced the proprietor to give that gratuitously as an evidence of his acknowledgments.

ther desiderata which the "Companion" is papers, Title Lines, &c. from two lines Great intended to supply. While read ng for the 'Library' a large mass of material accu-"Library a large mass of matter and contents, that its list drons continues constantly and rapidly to increase of the Union, and the most estisfactory is portion of the Union, and the most estisfactory is portion of the Union, and the most estisfactory is not peoplif of the union rose excellent in not peoplif of the American press. To concentrate, therefore, the publication of Books entire, Reciews, lists of new works, the choicest contributions to Magazines. Sec. &c. &c. the "Companion to Waldie". Library" will be offered to the patronage of the present subscribers and the public at large. It is believed that with the "Library," he "Journal," and the "Companion," such an acquaintance with the literature of the age may be cultivated as to leave little further to be desired. Being all published from the same office, more facility offers for suiscribing, and having fewer people to dest more readily corrected when they do. The short interval of two weeks between the pubication of each number, it is thought too. will be an advantage over monthlies and quarterlies. The following plan is respectfully submit-

1. The "Companion" will contain the carliest possible reprints of the best matter in the British periodicals.

2. It will be issued every fortnight, and the form will be the same as that of the Library-cach number containing sixteen pages-thus, every six months, giving thirteen numbers, which can be bound with the Library of little or no more expense, and veral Pianos and a Harp; the instruments making a better sized volume; and to those they could precure who do not take the Library itself, a volume every year, of 416 quarto pages of the size of the present.

subscriber-five dollars for two-and clubs access five and upwards will be supplied at two dolars cach.

4. As the work will not be commenced, unless a sufficient patronage be obtained, no pals payment is required at present, only the name, sent free of postage. Those wishing to support the publication will be pleased therefore to announce their intention as early as possible, as it is intended to commence the work on the first of January next. On he issuing of the second number payment will be expected, as its appearance will e-

The proprietor of the "Select Circulating Library," fully aware from experience of the advantages to the public of the rapid diffusion of cheap and select literature, has been induced to add the important feature to the work, and of course leaves it optional with the present subscribers and others to
