The regular session of the Circuit Court of the United States for the District of Maryland...
[Balt. Amer.]

FOREIGN.

FIVE DAYS LATER FROM ENGLAND.
By the packet ship North America, Capt. Barry, from Liverpool, the editors of the Journal of Commerce have received English papers of October 23.
Money was for the moment scarce in London. The general state of trade was declining. The general state of trade was declining. The general state of trade was declining.

LONDON, Oct. 1.
Despatches of the 23d ult. were received at the Foreign-office in Paris, on Sunday from Madrid, the French Ambassador in Madrid, which a most alarming account is given of the state of things in that capital. The execution of M. Mendizabal had injured his health, and he had not been able to apply himself with his accustomed energy and perseverance to the great object he had undertaken. General Alava had accepted the Foreign Department of Madrid, but it was believed that the cabinet would not remain in the Ministry. The difficulty which M. Mendizabal had encountered in constructing his Cabinet arose, according to the French Ambassador's account, from the jealousy of English ascendancy. His ministry further states that the corps of 3,000 men, despatched a few weeks ago by the late Emperor at War towards the confines of Andalusia under General Latre, for the purpose of opposing the armed bodies in the southern provinces who threaten to march on Madrid, had in place of offering the Andalusians, any resistance, adopted their standard, and were on their return towards the capital. This force, which had been increased to about 15,000 men, was under the command of Senor Pizarro, and was known to the Cortes as the Comite de la Nueva, and one of the most violent of the extreme party.

At the time this occurrence took place, although the date is not given, it is inferred that the fall of Taraco, whose measures had provoked the government, could not possibly have been known. The fermentation in Madrid is described as having nevertheless been extremely bad on the Paris Bourse on Tuesday, where the news were but imperfectly known, and where it was falsely asserted that the French Ambassador and the Queen had both left the capital, there had been something like a panic among the dealers in Spanish securities. A new junta had been formed at Valencia, of which Lopez, the deputy, was a member, and over which the Conde de Almodovar still presided; but although these names would seem to be a guarantee for some sort of respectability and moderation, M. de Rayneral describes their associates as so many assassins. Gen. Valdez had been obliged to take refuge in the house of the French Consul at Carthagena, and throughout the kingdom of Murcia the greatest effervescence prevailed.

By a telegraphic despatch, published in Monday's Moniteur, which with the rest of the Paris papers we have received by express, it appears that General Mina has been appointed Captain General of Catalonia, and that on the 22d inst. when the news reached Barcelona, the city had been illuminated, and Riego's hymn had been sung at the theatre. The despatch is dated on the 23th, from Narbonne, and intimates that new disturbances were feared at Barcelona. A letter of the 19th, from Valencia, is also quoted in the Moniteur, stating that after a commotion in that city, Senor Conde de Almodovar had been compelled to seek refuge on shipboard. Armed peasants, to the number of 1,500, had entered the town on the 15th, and pillage was apprehended.

Bilbao Sept. 22.—Private Correspondence. The Carlists continue in this neighbourhood. Don Carlos was, at noon on Saturday, at Ochacina, with one battalion of Guides.
The Carlists are stated here to have lost much courage, since the arrival of the British troops, and the defeat of the column on the frontier of Catalonia. The change of Ministry at Madrid is also considered favorable to the cause of the Queen, for much confidence appears to be put in the integrity of General Alava, and in the abilities of Senor Mendizabal.
There are daily desertions from the Carlists to this town. Yesterday morning 8 came over, and in the evening more. I saw two this morning, who assured me that the greater part of the Carlists, who have been forced to enter the ranks, are only anxious for an opportunity to return with safety to their homes; an opportunity which the presence of the British troops insures to many of them. There are also several corps of volunteers who have offered their services to fight under the command of the British Generals.

Rome, Sept. 14.—Don Miguel quitted this city yesterday, accompanied by the Marquis de Lavradio and a part of his suite. It is said that he has decided upon proceeding to Bohemia for the purpose, if not of visiting Toplitz, at least of keeping in its vicinity, so as to forward his interests during the Congress. It is not supposed that he will be admitted to take part in the conferences; or even allowed to enter the town, as none of the sovereigns has sent him an invitation or recognized him as king of Portugal.

Leghorn, Sept. 18.—The cholera has greatly diminished here, particularly in the central parts. The disease has spread toward the north-west, and subsequently to the south-east. In the latter direction it has ravaged Montevino and Rosignano, 18 miles from the city. The communications with the rest of Tuscany are free, although the disease has not extended so far as Pisa. It spared no class nor sex in this place, however; its ravages were principally among the poorer portions of the population, singling out comparatively few victims on the large and freely ventilated parts of the town. The states adjoining Tuscany have adopted a most rigorous system of exclusion with regard to us. It is now almost impossible to travel in Italy. The steam-boats no longer touch here. The navigation at Civita Vecchia is consequently more active, but the most abundant objects of importation consists of monks and religious persons from Spain.

PROSPECTUS OF THE WASHINGTON MIRROR.
Second Volume.

THE subscriber having purchased the Washington Mirror from its former proprietor, will in future be its conductor. The general plan of the Mirror, we believe, satisfactory to all our subscribers, is to afford a comprehensive view of the city affairs in a manner unattainable by any other paper. Our leading object being to give to these local subjects and occurrences, which have not been noticed in the daily papers, including Police Reports, and all such matters as is of general interest, we have engaged the valuable services of Mr. William Thompson as assistant editor, whose spirit and untiring exertions to establish this paper have been so eminently successful.

We propose to furnish brief abstracts of all judicial decisions which shall more particularly interest the citizens of this District. Also, a brief but comprehensive summary of Congressional proceedings.
We propose further, during the session of Congress, to publish an Evening Edition, by which a rearrangement of our distant subscribers will receive the latest Congressional Intelligence one day and a half sooner than through any other Washington paper.

We intend, if possible, to furnish a weekly list of all New Patents of a Bank note, Table, and Prices Current of Washington, Alexandria, and Georgetown, containing the greatest accuracy; also, Stage, Steamboat, and Rail Road Registers.
We shall exert our best endeavors to elevate the literary character of the Mirror. This can only be done by the cooperation of those minds which are able and willing to aid in the advancement of letters. We cannot, however, be so unjust to our subscribers as to make the Mirror an arena for the unskillful, since far more desirable, it may be allowed, would be judicious selections than mediocre originality.

We believe that the prospectus of Washington demand such a paper as we intend to publish. She is already closely allied, by her rail road, to a great and flourishing city, and is destined to be her competitor, rather than rival, in exchanging the products of the country; by means of her stupendous canal, she is about to be thrown, as it were, into the centre of an immense territory, where the resources of industry defy the reach of imagination, and where an amount of capital must soon be created, which will astonish the most sanguine economist. Washington and Baltimore, as one mighty heart, must receive and return the current which will give vitality to the commerce of twenty millions of men. Such, in fact, are our advantages, that prosperity must come in spite of causes which conspire to oppress us; but a sense of duty, carried out into action, will relieve our embarrassments, and produce results of incalculable magnitude.

We propose, then, to supply a paper in some degree adapted to the wants of an important community; a literary and miscellaneous family paper; a journal of current literature; a repository of commercial intelligence. And we appeal to an enlightened and liberal community to sustain us in our undertaking. Terms of the paper—two dollars, payable in all cases semi annually in advance.
Washington, D. C. Nov. 5.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN.
That the subscribers have obtained from the Orphans Court of Anne Arundel county, letters testamentary on the personal estate of Philip Darnall, late of said county, deceased. IN CHANCERY.
26th October, 1835.
James Morton, William Morton and Gustavus Weems, vs.
William H. Long, and others.

THE object of the bill in this case is to obtain a decree for the sale of the real estate of Tubman K. Long, late of Calvert county, deceased, for the payment of his debts.
The original Bill states that the deceased Tubman K. Long, was in his lifetime indebted to the complainants in several large sums of money, which are still due and unpaid. By his last will and testament he devised his real estate to the defendant, William Henry Long, subject to certain trusts, declared in a deed executed by the said Tubman K. Long in his lifetime, to the defendant Joseph W. Reynolds, and to certain conditions expressed in said will and by said will signed by Joseph W. Reynolds executor thereof. The bill further states, that the personal estate left by the said Tubman K. Long will not be sufficient to pay his debts.
The complainants, by an amended bill, allege that the defendant William Henry Long, was named by the original bill as an infant, under the age of twenty-one years, and a resident of this state, hath since the filing of the original bill obtained the full age of twenty-one years, and hath removed beyond the limits of this state.

It is therefore, this twenty-sixth day of October, 1835, ordered that the complainants, by causing a copy of this order to be published in some newspaper at least once in each of three successive weeks before the 26th day of November next, give notice to the non-resident defendant of the substance and object of these bills, and that he be warned to appear in this court in person, or by a solicitor, on or before the 27th day of February next, to show cause, if any he hath, why a decree should not pass as prayed.

PROSPECTUS OF THE CONGRESSIONAL GLOBE.
THE success of the experiment we have made to furnish a succinct history of the proceedings of Congress, from day to day, with sketches of the Debates, induces the undersigned to persevere in their plan to expand and perfect it. They have resolved that the Congressional Globe shall not only embody the parliamentary annals of the country, but shall also furnish an Appendix, which will contain the finished speeches of the prominent speakers, on the most important subjects, written out by the members themselves, from the notes and printed sketches of the reporters.
The Congressional Globe, with an Index, will be published weekly, upon double royal paper, in octavo form, as heretofore, at One Dollar for the session. It may be subscribed for separately. The appendix of finished speeches will also be published for One Dollar.

It is probable that the next session of Congress will continue nearly seven months; if so, the work will contain between four and five hundred pages, and will be the cheapest publication perhaps in the world.
The next session of Congress will probably be the most eventful one which has occurred for many years, and will certainly be replete with interest, and its course will have great influence in fixing the destiny of the Republic for years to come. Immediately preceding, as it does, the next Presidential election, and containing the leading minds of all the contending parties will attend the debates. The whole drama will be faithfully exhibited in the Congressional Globe and the Appendix.

We have already provided for our reporting corps, eminent ability and skill in one branch of Congress, and we expect to obtain an adequate reinforcement of capable persons in the other, by the time it meets, to fulfil our own wishes and the expectations of the Members. No pains or cost on our part will be spared to accomplish it. As the work will be continued regularly, and be made permanent, authentic, and therefore highly useful, all who take an interest in the political affairs of the country will do well to begin their subscription with the next session.

TERMS:
CONGRESSIONAL GLOBE.—1 copy during the Session, $1 00
do do 11 copies during the Session, 10 00
APPENDIX.—Same price.
The Congressional Globe will be sent to those papers that copy this Prospectus, if our attention shall be directed to it by a mark with a pen. Our Exchange List is so large that we would not observe it, probably, unless this be done.
Payment may be made by mail, postage paid, at our risk. The notes of any specialising Bank will be received.
No attention will be paid to any order, unless the money accompany it, or unless some responsible person, known to us to be so, shall agree to pay it before the Session expires.
BLAIR & RIVES. Oct. 22.

PROSPECTUS OF A NEW PUBLICATION TO BE CALLED

The Catholic Periodical Library.
Which is designed to be a reprint of all the best Catholic Works in the English Language, in weekly numbers, of 8 cents each.
THE dearth and scarcity of the best Catholic works must long have been a source of regret to every intelligent and observing Catholic in America. So limited has been the sale, and so great the expense of printing these books, that but few individuals in the country have been sufficiently enterprising to undertake their publication; and their price, in consequence, has been more than proportionably high. In fact, so dear have Catholic books in general been, that it has been entirely impossible for the poorer members of the Catholic community, who stand most in need of instruction, and for whom the books have in general been compiled, to obtain copies, even of those works which are nearly essential to the practice of their religion.

The subscriber has long since observed this fact with the utmost regret, and may certainly say, that up to this time, he has at least done something to reduce the price of the most necessary Catholic works. Our religious books are still, however, extremely dear, and the Subscriber, depending on the support of a liberal and enlightened Catholic community, has determined to issue a Periodical publication, which, by its cheapness, will place all the best Catholic works within the reach of the poorest individual; and from the neatness and elegance of its execution will be found worthy of a place in the libraries of the rich. Such a publication as that which the subscriber proposes to issue, has long been called for by the exigencies of the Catholic community; and the rapidly increasing number of the members of our Holy Church seems fully to justify him in the expectation that it will meet with sufficient encouragement to enable him to conduct it successfully. He, therefore, notwithstanding the expense and risk attending it, and confiding entirely in the liberality and generosity of his fellow Catholics of the United States and the Canadas has resolved to put it to press forthwith; and he therefore throws himself on his Catholic brethren, and calls on them for their support and patronage.

In this undertaking he is principally encouraged by the hope that it will meet with the cordial approbation of the clergy in general, and that he will be aided by the powerful assistance of that learned and devoted body of men. The undertaking is one which is eminently calculated to disseminate the principles of our holy religion widely throughout the community, and to assist the clergy in the discharge of their parochial duties by affording, at an uncommonly low rate, all the necessary knowledge and instruction. The subscriber, therefore earnestly requests that the Bishops and Clergy in general will exert their powerful influence in order to increase the popularity of the work and to obtain a sufficient number of subscribers to enable him to carry it on with success. By these means they will augment the spiritual comforts of their charges, and contribute, in a great measure, to dispel the prejudices by which our brethren of the other denominations are unfortunately blinded.

TERMS:
The Catholic Periodical Library will be published in Weekly numbers, of fifty pages each, duodecimo size, on fine royal paper and beautiful new type, stitched in handsome wrappers, and will embrace the whole of the most celebrated Controversial and Devotional works, together with a large fund of ecclesiastical history. The first number will be issued on Saturday, November 7th.—Terms of subscription $4 Per Annum, or Eight Cents per Number, payable in advance.
Liberal commissions will be allowed to Agents. Any six persons, who may live at a distance, remitting a twenty-dollar note, may have six copies of the work sent them for one Year.

N. B. Postmasters throughout the country are requested to act as agents.
The following is a list of a few of the works which will be issued in this publication, and which will follow each other in rapid succession.

Moore's Travels of an Irish Gentleman in search of a religion; Bossuet's History of the Variations of the Protestant Churches; The Faith of Catholics, by Kiril and Berrington; Hayward's True Church of Christ shown; Hayward's Charity and Truth; Mores Catholic, or Ages of Faith; Munford's Questions of Questions; Mumford's Catholic Scripture; Lingard's History of the Anglo-Saxon Church; Perpetuity of the Faith; Dr. M. Hale's Evidences of the Catholic Church; Fleury's Manners of the Israelites; Fleury's Manners of Christians; Lannegan's Ecclesiastical History of Ireland; Bishop Hay's Works; Prince Gallitzin's Controversial Writings; Manning's Works; O'Leary's Tracts; St. Bonaventure's Life of Christ; Challoner's Meditations; Butler's Book of the Catholic Church; Butler's Festivals and Fasts; Butler's Lives of Saints; Dr. Lingard's edition of Ward's Errata.

The above is a collection of Standard Catholic Works, which could not be purchased for less than seventy dollars; and it would be almost impossible to obtain many of the works included in it at any price whatever. The collection can now be obtained in this cheap and elegant Periodical for the uncommonly low price of about Twenty Dollars. All new Catholic Works will be published in the Periodical Library as soon as received; and able translators will be provided for all the European publications of peculiar excellence.

JOHN DOYLE, Bookseller, N. Y.
Editors of Papers in the country by giving the above a few insertions, and sending the papers containing it to the publisher, will entitle themselves to a copy of the work for one year.
