Fourth Year of Waldle's Library. BOOKS BY MAIL

PROSPECTUS OF TWO NEW VOL-UMES FOR 1836.

THREE years have now clapsed since the proprietor of Waldie's Select Circulating Library land before the public his original prospectus for a valuable library, the great fectures of which were chapness, and the facility of a rapid transportation by mail-The most ample success has attended the enterprise, and the effects upon the reading community, it is believed, have been whole-

The fourth year will commence on the first Tuesday of January, 1836, at which period it will be necessary to determine the additional amount of copies to be printed, sub-scriptions being taken only from January of each year. The entire success of the Library is the best guarantee that can be given of its by mail at a mere per centage of their former ment. costs it has outlived more than thirty paerile attempts at imitation; and has now an extensive list of patients who are of the most solid and valuable class of citizens in every part of the Union, as well as in foreign countries. The object of Waldie's Library, its use and purpose, is enjoyment interal and intelwithout being compelled to depend on place public resort, this publication furnishes most valuable desideratum, supplying police literature of a character to enlarge and im prove the mina. The time and attention of the editor, bimself a reader from inclination as well as duty, are devoted to the procure ment of works of an elevated standard of to tellect which may be admitted into every family without hesitation by the most fastidous, and become a rallying point for all its members, or anothing social bellia lettres raning and convertation. The variety thus collected from the whole mass of published wicks, mostly new, embraces Biography, Works, mostry new, emigness monadays, Scoles, Scoles, TriesCand Select listory, personal memors of extraordinary indicatoals, and curicus adverture, &c. Sc. An amount equal to fifty sundecimo vom nes is thus annually reture, and the work has now become so universally diffused in every part of the Caton to form no inconsiderable portion if the erature of the country, and with which an justing time has been no really necessary for

BEFORE the Select Circulating Libradiscovered that there was still something wanting-that many occurrences in the lite rary world must pass unknown, as regarded our agency, without an extension of the plan. To establish a fuller medium of communication and supply the desideratum, the Jour-nul of Belles Lettres was added; which we have reason to believe has afforded general satisfaction. The very liberal patronage extended to the Library induced the proprie tor to give that gra-uitously as an evidence

More extended experience has shown other desiderata which the "Companion" is ntended to supply. While reading for the Library" a large mass of material accunulates on the hands of the editor, of an interesting, entertaining, and restructive description, such as would properly come un-der the designation of Magazinjana, interspersed with the Reviews from the English dear, and the Subscriber, depending on the Quarterlies. To pub ish every thing of this nature which we deem desirable would enereach too much on the columns of the "Li-"rary" designed for books, and yet to pass nem by is constantly a subject of regret. dearth and scarcity of the best THE dearth and scarcity of the best Catholic works must long have been a source of regret to every intelligent and observing Catholic in America. So limited has been the sale, and so great the expense of printing these books, that but few individuals n the country have been sufficiently enterprising to undertake their publication; and their price, in consequence, has been more than proportionably high. In fact, so dear have Catholic books in general been, that it has been entirely impossible for the pourer members of the Catholic community, who stand most in need of instruction, and for fact with the utmost regret, and may certainione something to reduce the prices of the gious books are still, however, extremely support of a liberal and enlightened Catholic community, has determined to assue a Periodical publication, which, by its cheapness, will place all the best Catholic works within the reach of the poorest individual; and from the neatness and elegance of its execution will be found worthy of a place in the libra ries of the rich. Such a publication as that which the subscriber proposes to issue, has long been called for by the exigencies of the Catholic community; and the rapidly increase ing number of the members of our Holy Church seems fully to justify him in the ex pectation that it will meet with sufficient encouragement to enable him to concuct it successfully. He, therefore, notwithstanding the expense and risk attending it, and confidand the Canadas has resolved to put it to press forthwith: and he therefore throws himself on his Catholic brothren, and calls on them for their support and patronage.

In this undertaking he is principally encouraged by the hope that it will meet with the cordial approbation of the clergy in general, and that he will be aided by the pov assistance of that learned and devoted body of men. The undertaking is one which is eminently calculated to disseminate the brinciples of our holy religion widely throughout the community, and to assist the clergy in the discharge of their parochial duties ! tording, at an uncommonly low rate, all the necessary Khow onige and supscriber, therefore earnestly requests that the Bishops and Clergy in general will ex-ert their powerful influence in order to in-crease the popularity of the work and to obtain a sofficient number of subscribers to enable out to carry it on with success.
