

death bed, is clearly against the right of Trinity Church. After a reflection of fifty years standing, he believes that Trinity Church, with the exception of a small portion, has no more right to hold their present immense property, than the man in the moon. They have indeed possession, and they hold upon it with as firm a grasp as the Church of England does upon their immense incomes, against the march of reform.

In consequence of recent movements in other quarters, it is suspected that a secret understanding—we do not say corrupt, because the surplus and the emine never deal in corruption—is maturing between the Corporation of Trinity Church and the person who holds the highest political and legal power of this State. A magnificent coalition, of which the elements are politics, religion, property, possession, law, constitutes a species of power that would befoul any thing that England can show.

We mean to look into this question in a day or two. Can any honest man give us further information—N. Y. Her.

TWENTY-FOURTH CONGRESS. FIRST SESSION.

SENATE.
MONDAY, December 7, 1835.

The first session of the 24th Congress commenced this day at the Capitol. At 12 o'clock the Senate was called to order by the Vice President, when it appeared that the following Senators were in attendance:

MAINE. Benjamin Ruggles.
NEW HAMPSHIRE. Henry Hubbard.
MASSACHUSETTS. John Davis.
RHODE ISLAND. Nehemiah R. Knight, Asher Robbins.
CONNECTICUT. Gideon Tomlinson.
VERMONT. Samuel Prentiss, Benjamin Swift.
NEW YORK. N. P. Talmadge, Silas Wright, Jr.
NEW JERSEY. Samuel L. Southard, Garrett D. Wall.
PENNSYLVANIA. James Buchanan, Samuel McKean.
DELAWARE. John M. Clayton, Arnold Naudain.
MARYLAND. Joseph Kent.
VIRGINIA. John Tyler.
NORTH CAROLINA. Willie P. Mangum.
GEORGIA. John P. King.
TENNESSEE. Hugh L. White, Felix Grundy.

LOUISIANA. Alexander Porter.

The Chair communicated the credentials of the Hon. John C. Calhoun, elected by the Legislature of the State of South Carolina, a Senator from that State, to serve for six years from the 4th of March last.

Also the credentials of the Hon. Nehemiah R. Knight, elected by the Legislature of the State of Rhode Island, a Senator from that State to serve for six years, from the 4th of March last.

Mr. Southard presented the credentials of Hon. Garret P. Wall, elected by the Legislature of New Jersey a Senator from that State to serve for six years from the 4th of March last; and

Mr. Ewing presented the credentials of Hon. John Davis, elected by the Legislature of Massachusetts a Senator from that State, to serve for six years from the 4th of March last, all of which were read.

Mr. White said, that at the last session of the Legislature of the State of Tennessee, he had been re-elected to the Senate of the United States for six years, from the 4th of March last, but that the official information of his election was not in his possession. It had heretofore been the practice in the State of Tennessee to transmit to the presiding officer of the Senate the credentials of its Senators. But as this had not been done, he submitted to the Senate whether he should take his seat. During attendance in the Senate, he had frequently known such cases to occur, and that men known to be elected were suffered to take their seats before the arrival of their credentials, any additional testimony was necessary in corroboration of his statement, there were several of his colleagues in the other house, who were present when his election took place, and who could give the fact.

The Chair said that if no objection was made, the gentleman could take his oath with the other Senators to be qualified.

The usual oath was then administered by the Vice President to Messrs. White, Hubbard, King, Clayton, Robinson, and Ruggles, and the credentials were presented at the last session to Messrs. Wall, Knight, and Davis, and their credentials were just read.

Mr. Porter, from the committee appointed to report on the subject, reported the following resolution, which was considered and adopted:

Messrs. White and Knight were appointed the committee on the part of the Senate.

Mr. Ewing gave notice, that he would at an early day of this session, ask leave to bring in a bill to settle and define the northern boundary line of the State of Ohio.

A message was received from the House of Representatives, by Mr. Franklin their clerk, that the House had formed a quorum, and had elected James K. Polk, of Tennessee, to be speaker; and that the House was ready to proceed to business; also that the House had appointed a committee of three members to join the committee appointed on the part of the Senate, to wait on the President of the U. OBITUARY.

Died, on Saturday the 5th inst. Mrs. MARY ANN MACCUBBIN, late Consort of Samuel MacCubbin, Esquire, of West River, in the 65th year of her age; Had she lived seventeen days longer, she would have been sixty six. Her illness was long and afflicting, which she bore with exemplary patience, fortitude and resignation. She was one of the earliest and oldest members of the M. E. Church, to which she was strongly attached. Her funeral took place on the seventh, and her funeral sermon was preached at her late residence previous to the departure of her mortal remains to its last place of earthly destination, by the Rev. Mr. Poisal, from a text selected by herself—Psalms 116. V. 15—"Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of his saints."

She also requested that two hymns only should be sung at her burial, one at the house, beginning: "Why do we mourn for dying friends?" The other at the grave— "Happy soul, thy days are ended." Those who knew her will know how to appreciate her memory and her loss, and a long paenegyric could not raise her in their esteem. She was charitable, kind, and philanthropic, and died universally regretted by her numerous acquaintances and relatives.

Death's but a path, that must be trod, If man would ever pass to God.

AS we are always offering chances for persons to embark for the Capitals, we will relate two recent occurrences, which will strengthen the hope that we will shortly land some of our adventurers at that most desirable haven. On Saturday last drew the State of Virginia Lottery, Class No. 24, in which we sold a Ticket Nos. 4,34,51, and also in our own State Lottery, which drew on the ensuing Monday, Ticket Nos. 20,37,53, each of which were within the vicinity of the respective Capitals. Notwithstanding we did not reach there, yet we landed on a right snug modicum.

PROSPECTUS
Of the Congressional Globe.

THE success of the experiment we have made to furnish a succinct history of the proceedings of Congress, from day to day, with sketches of the Debates, induces the undersigned to persevere in their plan to extend and perfect it. They have resolved that the Congressional Globe shall not only embody the parliamentary annals of the country, but shall also furnish an Appendix, which will contain the finished speeches of the prominent speakers, on the most important subjects, written out by the members themselves, from the notes and printed sketches of the reporters.

The Congressional Globe, with an Index, will be published weekly, upon double royal paper, in octavo form, as heretofore, at 50c DOLLAR for the session. It may be subscribed for separately. The Appendix of finished speeches will, also, be published for ONE DOLLAR.

It is probable that the next session of Congress will continue nearly seven months; if so, the work will contain between four and five hundred pages, and will be the cheapest publication perhaps in the world.

The next session of Congress will probably be the most eventful one which has occurred for many years, and will certainly be replete with interest, and its course will have great influence in fixing the destiny of the Republic for years to come. Immediately preceding, as it does, the next Presidential election, and containing the leading minds of all the contending parties in the country, deep and abiding interest will attend the debates. The whole drama will be faithfully exhibited in the Congressional Globe and the Appendix.

We have already provided for our reporting corps, eminent ability and skill in one branch of Congress, and we expect to obtain an adequate reinforcement of capable persons in the other, by the time it meets, to fulfil our own wishes and the expectations of the Members. No pains or cost on our part will be spared to accomplish it. As the work will be continued regularly, and be made permanent, authentic, and therefore highly useful, all who take an interest in the political affairs of the country will do well to begin their subscription with the next session.

TERMS: CONGRESSIONAL GLOBE—1 copy during the Session, do 11 copies during the Session, Same price.

The Congressional Globe will be sent to those papers that copy this Prospectus, if our attention shall be directed to it by a mark with a pen. Our Exchange List is so large that we would not observe it, probably, unless this be done.

Payment may be made by mail, postage paid, at our risk. The notes of any specie-paying Bank will be received.

No attention will be paid to any order, unless the money accompany it, or unless some responsible person, known to us to be so, shall agree to pay it before the Session expires.
