del county on the 23d day of Sep-tember, a yellow man, who calls himself ROMULUS WHALIN, and says he belongs to Peter Gough, of St. Mary's county. Said fellow is five feet ele-Mary's county. Said lellow is five feet eleven inches high, long woolly head of hair, and a small scar on his chip; he appears to be about thirty years of a si; his clothing consists of a blue coat and prutaloons and cotton shirt, new shoes and stockings, and furied lat, says his master is guardian to Peter Thompson the same that he was in the application. says his master is and that he was in the employ-ment of Richard Thomas, cen he made his escape. The owner of said Negro is hereby escape. The owner of said Negro is hereby warned to prove property, and pay charges, and release said fellow from confinencin, he will otherwise be discharged according to

R. WELCH, of Ben. Sh'ff. A. A. County.

NOTICE.

The undersigned has removed his Office to the upper end of Corn Hill street, oppo-site the State House, and near the Post Office, where he will on very reasonable terms, pre-pare Deeds, Mortgages, Manumissions, Bills of Sale, Letters of Attorney, and the unfortunate Insolvent Papers. GIDEON WHITE.

ADVERTISEMENT. ADVERTISEMENT.

THE undersigned Commissioners appointed by Saint Mary's County Court, to value and divide the Real Estate of Colonel Enoch J. Millard, deceased, late of St. Mathe acts of assembly in such cases made and the acts of assignity in such cases made and provided, do hereby give notice to all concerned, that we shall meet at John L. Millard's residence on the premises at Helkham, on MONDAY, the 1-th day of December next, at 12 o'clock in the foreneor, to proceed in the business for which we are appointed.

CLEMENT MOWLLIAMS, JAMES A. MORGAN

FOR ANNAPOLIS, EASTON AND CAMBRIDE.

The MARYLAND will go to Annapolis, Cambridge (by Castle Haven) and Easton on every Tuesday and Friday morning, leaving Baltimore at 7 o'clock, from the lower end Dugan's wharf, her usual place of start-N. B.—All baggage at the owner's risk LEM'L. G. TAYLOR.

April SO.

THE CULTIVATOR

S a monthly publication of 16 quarto pages, and comprises about 200 pages in a ve-State Agricultural Society. It is exclusively devoted to Agriculture and the Improve-The publishing committee are J. Buel, J P. Beekman, and J. D. Wasson. The object of the publication is to dis-seminate useful information, among the agricultural community, in the cheaper practi-cable form; and the success of the undertak ing, and the character of the paper, are indi-cated by the fact, that before its 1-t volume was completed its subscribers exceeded cleren thousand, and comprised residents of twenty one of the United States. The second volume was commenced in of the each number contains as much matter as ; The eighteen pages of the first volume. It congton; tains many engravings and cuts, executed by good artists, illustrative of implements, and mals and operations of husbandry. Price-Ques- FIFTY CENTS per annum. The postage will not exceed 18% cents per year to any part

The first volume will continue to be farnurch; ni ned at 50 cents a single copy.

cl'si-Communications to be addressed to J. Buel, Albany, N. Y. versial flay's

iar ex-

giving ng the ill en-

Subscriptions received by A. Cowan, at this office, where a specimen of the cary's at this office, who work can be seen.

Aug. 27.

FUNERALS.

rd Cafriends, and the public in general, that he has discontinued the Cabinet Blaking Bauld be siness, and intends to confine himself for the works

works future altogether to that of an UNDERTAK-The cheap monly at the shortest notice, either in the usual manner, or according to special direction.

He returns his thanks to the public for their cheap during the last twenty years, and patronage during the last twenty years, and hopes that his paumptness and attention will continue to merit their favour.

WASHINGTON G. TUCK.

PRINTING Neatly executed at this OFFICE.

The Marpland Gazette.

Printed and Published by JONAS GREEN, the Brick Building on the Public

Price-Three Dollars per annum.

PROSPECTUS.

HR Subscriber proposes to publish, in Upper Maribro', Prince George's county, Turpland, a weekly journal, to be called THE BULLETIN.

Is undertaking to supply this acknowledged desideratum to the populous and intelligat district in which the subscriber has the fortage to reside, his hope of ultimate sucgrand and its origin in sanguineness of emperament, but proceeds from programment of the procession. Published in the stropolis of a large and wealthy county, sit-atted equi-distant from the State and Napoul capitals, facilities of an early cominucation of whatever may interest its patrons, sication of whatever may interest its patrons, are particularly afforded to the Editor; and though he may not hope to present to his freads much loreign information through the means much lovely a third matter through the sher journals, it is still certain that intellipace of a local nature, interesting to all, and important to many, and otherwise unatmaile, will by this means be communicated. It will also offer to those whose means are in sequate to the expense of the larger jour-side at least a synoptical view of all the imself, at least a symptotical view of all the fin-portant information they contain; and he portant information they contain; and he irists that those of literary taste may sometars find in its columns, articles not unworthy of the employment of their leisure. As up or the employment of their lessare. As the plan of every publication which is to find the plan of every publication which is to find its success in popular support, must first be sposed before public patronage can be expected, the Editor would here mark the out-pected, the distributions with the full knowledge fire of his design, with the full knowledge that it will constitute an ordeal, by which, to determine both its merit and the fidelity, of

The Editor proposes to adapt his paper to the rishes of those by whom he is immediately sur-nanded, and among whom he must natural-lr find a majority of his patrons; he knows nem to be intelligent and inquiring .- The Leterary department, shall, therefore, be asadaptisty regarded, and the most approved forestic and foreign periodicals resorted to for belles lettres notices. He knows them to be patriotic, and that they feel a deep interest is the welfare of our common country. To gratify this sentiment to the extent of his abihty, his columns shall afford whatever intellipace of a political character may be calculated to interest them. No man, with the facelty of thought, is at this crisis neutral in reference to the party distinctions now prevailing in this country, and the Editor does not wish to disguise his political sentiments—they are is opposition to the measures of the present offinknessof argument, not violence or abuse and as it never has been his practice, so shall isvective or party virulence. He will cheer-fully lend the aid of his columns to communiations from all parties-reserving to himself the privilege of rejecting such as are objectionable for personal allusion or indecorous lanpage. In addition to the advantages of appropriate political and literary selectious, he trusts alse to tempt into exercise whatever of native talent may surround him, and with such aids he may not presumptuously hope to render his paper useful and interesting. He asks not the patronage of his Friends longer than his efforts merit and repay it, as he wishes not we owe that favour to personal feeling, which rould be denied to his editorial labors.

The BULLETIN will be published on Thurslay in each week. Terms of subscription 83 per annum. WILLIAM H. HALL, Upper Marlbro', Feb. 14, 1835.

NOTICE.

THE Commissioners for Anne Arundel county will meet at the Court House in the city of Annapolis on TUESDAY the 19th day of January next, for the purpose of setting with the inspectors of Tobacco, hearing appeals, and making tennaling and close ing appeals, and making transfers, and clos-ing their books for the year 1835.

By order, R. J. COWMAN, Clk.

A BARGAIN.

A BARGAIN.

THE undersigned intending to transfer his Publication office to the Eastward, offers to sell the PRESSES, TYPE and MATERIALS used in the Public Work. If there be an Editor printer of the party who dares to become a competitor for the printing, we will farnish an office and the materials to do the work, and take orders on the Clerk of the House of Representatives in payment.

The patronage of the Pepartment is worth from twelve to twenty thousand dollars per unaum, and that of the House as much more. Will editors with whom we exchange give this one or two insertions.

Nev. &:

THE GENTLEMAN'S VADE MECUM,

SPORTING AND DRAMATIC COMPANION,

A WEELLY REPOSITORY OF DRAMATIC LITERATURE, SPORTING, THE TURF, FASHIONS, GRAZING, AGRICUL-TURE, AND VARIOUS SUBJECTS OF INTELEST AND AMUSEMENT: Interspersed with a multitude of Appropriate Engresings, including Portraite of celebrated Winning Horses, Philosophical and Natural Phenomena, Legraturia, de.

Horees, Philosophical and Natural Phenomens, Legratemains, 6c.

THIS popular journal, although but a few months have passed since it was commenced, has already obtained an extensive and profitable subscription list, which is daily increasing, and affords ample encouragement to the publishers to persever in their efforts to render it useful, amusing, and instructive.

LT On the commencement of the approaching year, the VADE MECUM will undergo several important improvements—instead of four pages, it will be increased to Eight of nearly the present size, and consequently will contain almost double the quantity of reading matter which is now given—Making it one of the Lorgest and Neatest Quarto's ever published in the United States. It will be printed on new type, and fine white paper, and the Embedlishments will be considerably multiplied, and of a superior order. Persons desirous of procuring the work at the beginning of the new volume, will please send their orders at ence—as they may fail to be supplied, as but few copies will be published more than are actually subscribed for at the time.

The subjects which are particularly embraced in the

The subjects which are particularly embraced in the Vade Mecum, will be more distinctly understood from the following brief analysis of them:—

THE DRAMA forms a material portion of the Gentleman's Vade Mecuin—every week an entire Play or Farce is given. They are selected with a single eye to their ments alone: a preference, however, will be extended in all cases to native productions, when they can be obtained. Independent criticisms, carefully excluding all invidious comparisons, and recommended by their brevity, area occasionally inserted; as also, Biographical Sketches, Anecdotes, and Bon Mots of prominent Comedians of the present and past ages, of which a rare and inexhaustible compilation is in store. The publisher, by the liberality of the managers of the two Philadelphia Theatres, and several other gentlemen connected with the stage, has obtained a very excellent and numerous selection of Plays and Farces, for the Vade Mecun; many of them have never appeared in print.

THE TURF.—A faithful record is kept of all the Running and Trotting Matches in this country and England. Biographies and correct portraits of celebrated thorough bred Horses are published once a month. Every fact relative to the breeding, management, keeping, and the diseases of this invaluable animal is particularly attended to.

The Specting Intelligence, at home and abroad, oc-THE DRAMA forms a material portion of the Gen.

ng, and the disease: ularly attended to.

Portraits of celebrated Winning Horses which have Portraits of celebrated Winning Horses which have been given, are:

The American Trotting Horse, Edwin Forrest.
The Imported Racing Horse, Messenger.
The American Trotting Mare, Lady Jackson.
The Racing Mare, And, and her foal, by Eclipse.
The trueblooded popular Horse Chateau Margaux.
The American Trotting Horse, Top Gallant.
The well known English Race Horse, Touchstone.
Mundig, the winner of the Derby Stakes in June;
1835.

1835.
The unrivalled American Trotter, Andrew Jackson.
The celebrated English Horse, Glencoe.
A complete Treatise on Riding, with fourteen Illustrations, for the improvement of Ladies in that most healthy of all exercises.

Explanation of the Automaton Chess Player, illus-

Explanation of the Automaton Chess Payer, inde-trated by eleven engravings.

Four Engravings, designed to represent the scene which took place in Paris, in July last, on the attempt-ed destruction of the Royal Family of France—with a view of the Infernal Machine, and a likeness of the Assassin, Gerard.

A correct Picture of a Race Course, occupying the midth of seven columns.

Assassin, veraru.

A correct Picture of a Race Course, occupying the width of seven columns.

SPORTING—Besides other matters belonging to this head, there will be published correct accounts of Shooting Matches, Pedestrian Feats, Gymnastic Exercises, Aquatic Excursions, Fishing, Gaming, &c. with aspeciates of noted Dogs.

anecdotes of noted Dogs.

MILITARY UNIFORMS.—The publisher has employed the assistance of an excellent artist to furnish a regular series of engravings of the different Beautiful Uniforms worn by the principal Volunteer Corps of Philadelphia, New York, Boston, Baltimore, and other cities, which will be published periodically, with a particular description of each, furnished by a competent hand. This subject forms a peculiar attraction to the general interest of the work.

GENTLEMENS FACHLONG

general interest of the work.

GENTLEMEN'S FASHIONS.—A quarterly review is made out by a gentleman connected with a fashionable house in Philadelphia, explanatory of the various improvements and changes which costumes worn in the dress circles constantly undergo: by which it will be rendered an easy task for drapers and tailors, at a distance, to suit their customers with the most approved colours and modern style of apparel at the earliest possible periods

MIGCELLANV.—Although the purposes of our

sible periods

MISCELLANY—Although the purposes of our sheet may appear to be confined to the several leading subjects which may have been stated, we deem it proper to say, that there constantly is, in addition to these, a considerable space allowed for Miscellaneous matter, such as Tales, Poetry, Anocdotes, Legerdemain, an Epitome of News, Places of Amusement, Statistics, Agriculture, Domestic Economy, Valuable Receipts, &c. Also, a republication of the best and most popular of the old English and American Sporting and National Songs, Set is Music; besides many other matters, regarding which an interest is supposed to exist.

ET By the above explanation, it will be seen that the set to Music; besides many other matters, regarding which an interest is supposed to exist.

ET By the above explanation, it will be seen that the Gentlemain's Vade Mecum is particularly designed as a companion for the patrons of the Turf; the Drama; Sporting, the Fashions, &c. It is worthy of notice, that its patrons in the course of one year, will be furnished with from forty-five to fifty-popular Plays or Farces—the price of which, separately, at one of our bookstores, would be at least Thirteen Dellers! Here, then, is an absolute saving of ten dollars in the purchase of a well-stored Dramatic Library—(to be had for an unprecedented small sum!)—without taking into consideration the multiplied variety which is sent along with it, free of additional charge.

The Gentleman's Vade Mecum. or Sporting Companion, is published every Saturday, on fine artra imperial quarto paper, of a superior quality, each number forming eight pages of the largest class, at Three Dellers per annum, in advance. Orders from abroad, postage per annum, in advance. Orders from abroad, postage per annum, in advance. Orders from abroad, postage per annum, in advance. Orders from shroad, postage per annum, in advance, or such other places where a considerable subscription may be obtained, we request those who propose to patronize the work, to transmit by mail at once to the publisher. Small notes of solvent banks of the different patronize the work, to transmit by mail at once to the publisher. Small notes of solvent banks of the different patronize the work, to transmit by mail at once to the publisher. Small notes of solvent banks of the different patronize the work, to transmit by mail at once to the publisher. Small notes of solvent banks of the different patronize the work, to transmit by mail at once to the publisher. Small notes of solvent banks of the different patronize the work, for one year. Specimen numbers will direction ordered, for one year.

THE MODERN

ACTING DRAMA,

HAS hitherto been issued in volumes of about 300 pages each—containing the Plays, Farcos, &c. which appear in the Vade Mecum, neatly printed, and bound in elastic covers, for transportation—and published every six weeks. Eight volumes constitute a set, or one year's subscription, the terms for which is Three Bellers, payable in advance.

Livitars, payable in advance.

E. Subscribers to the Vade Meeum are entitled to a dedaction of one-third, when subscribing for the Modern Acting Drama. An order for four setts will se thankfully received, and the work forwarded to any direction, by enclosing a ten dollar note—postage paud. Gentlemen desirous of securing a set of this work, will please forward their names immediately—the edition, which was a small one, is going off rapidly, and it cannot be re-published at the same price.

This work will undersome material improvements of when was a small one, is going of rapidly, and it cannot be republished at the same price.

This work will undergo a material improvement on the commencement of a new series in January, 1836, It is intended to be published Every Month, or as neas the beginning as possible; each No. to consist of 49 pages of fine letter press printing and 12 numbers to constitute a volume of 576 pages. Every Play or Farce which will be published, its to be accompanied by a beantiful and appropriate Engraving—making in the course of the year nearly Fifty-Two Embellishments—to which will be added as a Frontispiece, a tull axied Steel Engraving, containing the likeness of Six Distinguished Actors and Actresses. No alterations will be made from the present terms. Every p. roon who desires to preserve an invaluable collection of the best Dramatic Authors should forward his name torthwith, as the edition will be limited to the number which is absolutely subscribed for. If The publisher piedes himself to make this work equal in interest and superiority of execution to his prospectus, or he will refund the price of subscribin received unless the terms are complied with. No work of this kind has ever been attempted in the United States, and noue is more likely to prove popular and satisfactory.

If Any person collecting four subscribers to the Contlements Valle Mount or the Modern Action Bra-

Dr-Any person collecting four subscribers to the entlemen's Vade Mecum, or the Modern Acting Dra Gentlemen's Vaile Mocum, or the Modern Acting Dra-ma, and remitting the amount of one year's subscrip-tion ($3) for each—shall be presented with the Novel-ists Magazine, in two volumes, a work of considerable oppularity, and which is now selling for $3—it contains the productions of eight different authors, well known to the public as among the most interesting writers of the day.

TP Persons wishing to subscribe to the above work will address CHARLES ALEXANDER, Athenia Buildings, Frankiin Place, Philadelphia, and they ma rost assured that every attention will be paid to have them carefully transmitted by mail.

MISCELLANEOUS.

[From Irving's Conquest of Florida.] JUAN ORTIZ.

Some Spaniards taken prisoners were con demned to die by the Indians. Juan Ortiz, a lad scarcely eighteen years of age, and of a no-ble family was the fourth victim. As they were leading him forth, his extreme youth touched with compassion the hearts of the wife and daughters of the cacicque, who interceded in his favour. Hirrihigua listened to their importunities, and for the present granted the life of Ortiz: but it proved to be a most wretched boon. From morning until evening he was employed in carrying wood and water, being allowed but little sleep and less food. Not a day passed that he was not beaten. On festivals he was an object of barbarous amusement to the cacique, who would oblige him to run from sunrise to sunset, in the public square of the village, where his companions had been so barbarously sacrificed. Upon those occasions, a number of Indians were stationed at different parts of the quadrangle with bows and arrows, to shoot him should he halt one moment. When the day was spent the unfortunate youth lay stretched upon the hard floor of his hut, more dead than alive. At such times the chiet's wife and daughters would come to him privately with food and clothing, and by their kind treatment his life was preserved.

At length the cacique, being determined to put an end to his victim's existence, ordered that he should be bound upon a wooden frame, in the form of a huge gridiron, placed over a bed of burning coals, and roasted nlive.

The cries and shricks of the miscrable sufferer reached his female protectors, and their entreaties were once successful with the cacique. They unbound Ortiz, dragged him from the fire, and took him to their dwelling, where they bathed his wounds with the juice of herbs, and tended him with assiduous care. After many with many a deep scar.

His employment was now to guard a village cemetery, which was in a lonely field in the bosom of the forest. The bodies of the dead were deposited in wooden boxes, covered with boards, without any fastening except a stone or log of wood laid upon the top, so that the bodies were often carried away by wild beasts. In this cemetery Ortiz was stationed, with a bow and arrow, to watch day and night, and was told that should a single body be carried away he would be buried alive. He returned thanks to God for having freed him from the dreaded presence of Hhirrihigua, hoping to lead a better life with the dead than with the living.

Upon one occasion, while he was watching, towards morning sleep overpowered him. Being awakened by the lid of one of the chests suddenly falling, upon examination be found the body had disappeared. The chest had contained the corpse of an infant recently deceased—the child of an Indian of note.

Ortiz supposing some animal had dragged it away, immediately set out in pursuit. After wandering for a short time, at a short distance wandering for a short time, at a short distance by thing I could wish tor, but our Maker design within the woods, he heard a noise like that of ed it otherwise.

4

sent to any part of the Union, by addressing the publa dog grawing bones. Drawing near to the spot with a stealthy step, be dimly perceived a spot with a stealthy step, he dimly perceived a living object among the bushes, and invoking aid from on high discharged an arrow, at it. The thick and tangled underwood prevented him from seeing the effect of his shot, but as the animal did not stir, he flattered himself that he had killed it. With this hope he waited until the day dawned, when he beheld his victim, a hugo creature of the panther kind, lying dead, the arrow having passed through its entrails and pierced its heart. -Gathering together the mangled remains of the infant, and replacing them in the coffin, Ortiz dragged his prey in triumph to the village, with the arrow still in its body. The exploit gained him credit with the old hunters, and for som: time softened even the ferocity of Hirrihiwrongs he had suffered from the white men, was too bitter to be appeared. Some time after his eldest daughter came to Ortiz, and warned him that her tather had determined to sacrifice She stated that the influence of her mother, her sisters and herself, were no longer of any avail to save him, and therefore wished that he should take refuge with a neighboring escique, named Mucozo, who had sought her in marriage, and would betriend him for her sake. "This very night," said the kind hearted maiden, "at the a trusty friend, who will guide you to a bridge about two miles hence. On arriving there you must send him back, that he may reach home before the morning dawns, to avoid suspicion ing to assist you may bring down destruction on us both. Six lengues further on you will reach the village of Mucozo. Tell him I have sent you, and expect him to befriend you in your extremity. I know he will do it. God protect you?" Ortiz threw himself at the feet of his generous protectress, and poured out his acknowledgment of the kindness she had always shown him. An Indian was at the place appointed to direct hum, and they quitted the illage without alarming the warlike savages. When they came to the bridge, Ortiz sen back the gold , in abedience to the injunction of his mistress, and continuing his flight, found nimself, by the break of day, on the banks of a mall stream near the village of Mucozo.

Looking cautiously round, he saw two natives fishing. As he was unacquainted withtheir language, and could not explain the cause of his appearance in their neighborhood, he was lest they should take him for an enemy and kill him. He therefore ran swiftly to the place where they had deposited their weapons and seized them. The savages fled to the village without attending to his signs of friendly intention. The inhabitants sallied out, armed with bows and arrows, and were about to attach him; but Ortiz, fixing an arrow in his bow, prepared for defence, crying out at the same moment, that he came not as an enemy but as ar Fortunately, one present understood him, and interpreted his words. Upon this the Indians unbent their bows, and returning with him to their village, presented him to Mucozo. The latter, a youthful chieftain, of a graceful form and handsome countenance, received Ortiz kindly for the sake of her who had sent him; but on further acquaintance, became attached to him for his own merits, and treated him with the affection of a brother.

Hirrihigua soon learned where the fugitive had taken refuge, and demanded several times, that he should be delivered up. Mucozo as often declined, considering himself bound by the laws of honor and hospitality to protect him. Hirrihigua then employed as mediator another caci-que, a brother-in-law of Mucozo. The generous Mucozo, however, indignantly refused to deliver up to a cruel enemy the poor fugitive who had come so well recommended to his protection, and treated the request as a stain upon his honor. The two caciques continued their importunities, but the high-minded savage remained faithful to his guest, though in maintaining inviolable the sacred rights of hospitality, he lost ays he recovered, though his body was marked the friendship of his brother-in-law, and forfeited the hand of Hirrihigua's beautiful daughter, whom he tenderly loved.

, RICH AND POOR. Hallo! there goes Bill Watkins with his meal bag! exclaimed proud little Edward; and what have you here Billy?

Rags, Edward, mother picked them up to day for me to sell to get money enough to buy me s

Sell rags to buy a writing book I wouldn't do

But Edward, my mother is poor and unable to buy me one; and if I were not able to sell these rags, I should have no book to write in this afternoon.

'Then I would't write. I should be asham. ed every day or two to lug down a parcel of

I do not go every day er two, Edward, you know Ldo not; but if I did I should not be ashamed of it. Poverty is no crime. I might have been born of wealthy parents, and had eve-

So saying William continued his errand, while Edward run laughing along.

Edward was a dilatory scholar! although he had been privileged with the best of schooling, he had made little or no progress in his studies. On the contrary, William improved his few advantages, and though no older than Edward was much his superior in knowledge. He could read correctly, and write a fair hand. He was beloved tor his sweetness of tempor and pleasant disposition. His mother being poor he was often obliged to leave school to assist her in obtaining a livelihood. At the age of 13 or 14 his mother put him to a trade. William being used to industry took well to his business, and secured the confidence and love of his master. When he became a man he removed to a newly settled but flourishing village where he engaged in his business for himself. He prospered. Not only in his secular concerns did he prosper, but he became a devout and happy christian. He began to exert a good influence upon those with whom he associated, as soon as he entered the village; and his example and inthers to practice a more moral, if not a reli-

In his own family he was a shining light.'— Never did he set before his household any other example than that which the gospel requires of all those who always obey its requirements.

One day as William was contemplating taking a journey, he called at a stable to procure a horse. While the hostler was getting the animal ready, something perplexed him which caused him to utter a dreadful oath. William looked at him with astonishment, for he could never bear to hear Jehovah's name taken upon thoughtless line. His countenance was familiar; his eye caught the hostler's; it was Edward. He who many years ago was possessed of a wealthy father. Can it be possible, thought William; but he could not be mistaken. After the horse was ready. William said to him do you remember the poor little boy with whom ou used sometimes to play; who was often obliged to sell rags, to get some money to buy

I do, said Edward with a sigh: and I wish I had possessed half of his nobleness of mind; it I had I should never have been in this disagreeable situation. I would give all I possess to see him a.

That person is in this village; he is now talk-ing with you; I am the one who used to sell

Edward was amazed: he could scarcely speak. When he recovered from his astonishnent, he expressed his sorrow in tears, and that he had so sadly misimproved his youth, and was now almost pennyless.

TO THE PRINTERS OF THE UNITED STATES.

J. SPIT'TALL,
WOOD LETTER CUTTER AND ENGRAVER, No. 21, Franklin Place, PHILADELPHIA.

RESPECTFULLY announces to the Printers of the United States, that he has commenced the manufacture of WOOD LETTERS.

Wood Letters of every description, from four to thirty-four lines Pica, or upwards, made to order on the shortest notice.

Ornamental Letters of entirely new and most splendid patterns, for Heads of News-papers, Title Lines, &c. from two lines Great Primer to any size larger.

His type will be made of materials of the nest assortment, well seasoned and prepared y machinery, invented for the purpose, which ensures the most exact adjustment.

Specimens will be published as early as Executed with neatness and promptitude. Heads tor Newspapers, Fac-similes, Ornamental and Plain Rules, &c. &c. cut with the greatest accuracy in type metal or wood.

Old cast metal cuts, ornaments, &c. en-graved over, and made equal to new for half their original cost. A liberal discount for cash. Six months redit on the most approved security ders from the country promptly attended to.

All letters must be post paid.

All letters must be post paid.

Editors of papers in the country who will give the above advertisement a few insertions, and forward a paper containing the same to the advertiser, will be paid therefor in any of the above mentioned materials.

NOTICE.

NOTICE.

WAS ammitted to Anne Arundel county Jail in a Runaway, on the 12th October, 1838, a young Negro Man by the name of Wiltiam Elchardsom;

Says he is a free man, and was born in the State of New Jersey. Said fellow is about eighteen years of age; complexion not very black; five feet fire inches high; his clothing consists of a blue bat, light colvered pantaloons of cotton, old those and escekings, and old far hat. The owner of said argue is hereby notified to prove property it, charges, and take him away; he will other and the charged according to law.

R. WEIDH, or