

We have an overflowing Treasury, and when all the particulars of this measure are known, let them loan to our merchants ten or fifteen millions of dollars. The destruction of property is variously estimated from twenty to fifty millions of dollars. It probably amounts to less than twenty millions, and if the half of that amount should be loaned to the General Government, it would be returned to them fourfold in the commerce which would thereby be protected and preserved to the nation. In a financial point of view, alone, if there are no sympathy for our sufferings, the General Government would find its interest in loaning ten or fifteen millions of dollars to the sufferers, on such terms as they might deem expedient.

At a meeting of the New York Exchange Board, held at Mr. John Warren's—
Resolved, That the Stock and Exchange Board suspend all operations for the present until the 4th of January next, shall be met by an allowance of four days' grace.
Resolved, That a committee of three be appointed to procure rooms for the use of the Board.
Resolved, That the President, Vice President, and Mr. Bernay be a Committee to carry the foregoing resolution into effect.

DESTRUCTIVE FIRES IN NEW YORK.
Our columns are chiefly occupied with details of the late calamitous fires in New York. The destruction of property is unexampled in this country, and has excited universal sympathy for the sufferers.
It will be seen by reference to the following proceedings, that a public meeting in Philadelphia has adopted a resolution requesting Congress to appropriate ten millions of dollars to the relief of the sufferers in New York. We doubt the constitutional power of Congress to make such an appropriation—but hope that whatever can be legally done in the premises, will be done promptly.
Resolved, That a Committee of Fifty be appointed by the presiding officers of this meeting, who, as representatives of the citizens of the city and county of Philadelphia, shall forthwith take measures to communicate to the corporation and people of the city of New York, the deep and abiding sympathy universally felt throughout our community, in the overwhelming calamity which they have been visited, in the destruction by fire of so extensive a portion of their great metropolis, and of so vast an amount of valuable property, and in the unavoidable and wide spread desolation it must scatter among a free, virtuous, and enterprising population.
Resolved, That it be the duty of the committee of Fifty to ascertain as expeditiously and as accurately as possible, and to report to a public meeting of the citizens of this section of Pennsylvania, to be held on the 29th day of December inst, the probable extent, loss or damage sustained by our brethren of New York, by the awful conflagration now raging in their city.
Resolved, That it be also the duty of the said Committee of Fifty to cause to be prepared, and reported at the public meeting above mentioned, a memorial addressed to the Congress of the United States, from the citizens of the City and County of Philadelphia, praying the prompt appropriation of Ten Millions of Dollars, to relieve as far as possible, the sufferings and injuries of our brethren of New York, caused by the still continuing conflagration of their noble city; such appropriations to be regulated, whether as an absolute national contribution or as a temporary loan, in such manner as the wisdom of Congress may devise and direct.
Resolved, That it be also the duty of said Committee of Fifty, to cause to be prepared and submitted to the above mentioned public meeting for general signature, a memorial addressed to the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, calling upon them to adopt such measures as they may deem appropriate and expedient to express the sympathy of the people of this State in the deplorable and destructive visitation which has desolated the patriotic city of New York, and carried ruin, wretchedness and sorrow to the families and hearts of thousands, to make an immediate appropriation of money for their relief, and to devise an efficient scheme by which the entire people of Pennsylvania may speedily and with certainty contribute to the relief of their brethren to an extent commensurate with their common feelings and resources.
Resolved, That it be the duty of the said Committee of Fifty, to cause to be prepared and submitted to the above mentioned public meeting a memorial similar in its object and tenor to the foregoing, addressed to the Select and Common Councils of the City of Philadelphia, and to the adjoining Corporate bodies of the County.
Resolved, That the committee of Fifty be instructed to accept the service of such volunteers as may tender them, to be enrolled, and forthwith proceed, under the auspices of the committee, to aid their fellow citizens of New York, in extinguishing the conflagration now raging there.
Resolved, That the committee of fifty be authorized to appoint suitable agents for the purpose of making immediate collections of money, and, if need be articles of clothing to be applied forthwith to the wants and necessities of the humbled and suffering poor who may have been thus suddenly deprived of their comforts and their homes.

DEATH OF BISHOP EMORY.
The Bishop left his residence one mile this side of Reister's Town on the morning of the 16th inst. about 6 o'clock, and proceeded on his journey towards Baltimore as far as the mill a little north of Weaver's Tavern, where it is supposed the horse ran away with the carriage, and in passing violently down the hill a short distance below Weaver's, at a water break, it is believed the Bishop was thrown from his carriage with great force, the back of his head coming in contact with a large stone, broke the skull and the brain protruded out.

The horse, becoming disengaged from the carriage continuing down the road, was first discovered by Mr. Simpson going up the road, near the bridge at Owings' Mills, on approaching the water break discovered the Bishop, and made an effort to stop the horse, but failed. Mr. E. was lying on the east side of the road, and the carriage nearly opposite on the west side. He was then taken to Mr. Weaver's where every kindness and attention was paid to him, and the professional attendance of Drs. Addison and Larch procured without delay.
He expired at a quarter past 7 o'clock in the evening of the same day. He was found speechless, and continued so until his decease.

THE SALMAGUNDI, OR NEWS OF THE DAY. EMBELLISHED WITH A MULTITUDE OF COMIC ENGRAVINGS.

A NEW PERIODICAL, of a novel character, bearing the above appellation, will be commenced on the beginning of January, 1835. While it will furnish its patrons with the leading features of the news of the day, its principal object will be to serve up a humorous compilation of the numerous lively and pungent sallies which are daily floating along the tide of Literature, and which, for the want of a proper channel for their preservation, are positively lost to the Reading world. Original wits and humorists of our time will here have a medium devoted to the faithful record of the scintillations of their genius. It is not necessary to detail the many attractions which this journal will possess, as the publisher will furnish a specimen number to every person who desires it—(those out of the city, will forward their orders, postage paid)—and he pledges himself that no exertions on his part shall be wanting to make each succeeding number superior in every respect to the preceding ones.
THE SALMAGUNDI will be printed on large imperial paper, equal in size and quality to that which is at present used for the Gentleman's Vase Mecum. It is calculated that MORE THAN 500 ENGRAVINGS will be furnished to the patrons of this Journal in one year—these, in addition to an extensive and choice selection of Satire, Criticism, Humour and Wit, to be circulated through its columns, will form a Literary Banquet of a superior and attractive order, and the publisher relies with perfect confidence on the liberality of the American public, and the spirit and tact with which this expensive undertaking will be prosecuted, to bear him successfully and profitably along with it.
The Terms of THE SALMAGUNDI will be TWO DOLLARS per annum, payable invariably in advance. No paper will be furnished unless this stipulation is strictly adhered to. Clubs of three will be supplied with the paper for one year, by forwarding a five dollar note, postage paid. Clubs of seven will be supplied for the same term, by forwarding a ten dollar note. The papers that are sent out of the city will be carefully packed in strong envelopes, to prevent their rubbing in the mail.
THE SALMAGUNDI will be published on alternate weeks—otherwise it would be impossible to procure the numerous Embellishments which each number will contain—and the general interest it will afford must be enhanced by this arrangement.
All orders must come postage paid.
Address, CHARLES ALEXANDER, Athenian Buildings, Franklin Place, Philadelphia.
