Which is designed to be a reprint of all the best Catholic Works in the English Language, in weekly numbers, at 8 cents each.

THE dearth and scarrity of the best Catholic works must long have been a source of regret to every intelligent and observing Catholic in America. So limited has been the sale, and so great the expecte of printing these books, that but few individuals in the country have been sufficiently enterin the country have been sufficiently enter-prising to undertake their publication; and prising to undertake their publication; and their price, in consequence, has been more than proportionably high. In feet, so dear have Catholic books in general been, that it has been entirely impossible for the poorer members of the Catholic community, who stand most in need of instruction, and for whom the books have in general been compiled, to obtain copies, even of those works which are nearly essential to the practice of their religion. their religion.

The substiber has long since observed this he utmost regret, and may certainly say, that up to this time, ne has at least done s mething to reduce the prices of the most becessary Catholic works.
