

Fourth Year of Waldie's Library.
BOOKS BY MAIL
PROSPECTUS OF TWO NEW VOLUMES FOR 1856.

THREE years have now elapsed since the proprietor of Waldie's Select Circulating Library laid before the public his original prospectus for a valuable library, the great features of which were cheapness, and the facility of a rapid transportation by mail. The most ample success has attended the enterprise, and the effects upon the reading community, it is believed, have been wholesome.

The fourth year will commence on the first Tuesday of January, 1856, at which period it will be necessary to determine the additional amount of copies to be printed, subscriptions being taken only from January of each year. The entire success of the Library is the best guarantee that can be given of its continuance. It was the first to supply books by mail at a mere percentage of their former cost; it has outlived more than thirty parallel attempts at imitation; and has now an extensive list of patrons who are of the most solid and valuable class of citizens in every part of the Union, as well as in foreign countries.

The object of Waldie's Library, its use and purpose, is enjoyment, liberal and intellectual. To all who love a mental banquet, without being confined to depend on places of public resort, this publication furnishes a most valuable desideratum, supply of choice literature of a character to enlighten and improve the mind. The time and attention of the editor himself a remunerable inclination as well as duty, are devoted to the procurement of works of an elevated standard of intellect which may be admitted into every family without hesitation by the most fastidious, and become a rallying point for all its members, promoting social and literary reading and conversation. The variety thus collected from the whole world of published works, mainly in the departments of Biography, Novels, and the History, personal memoirs of extraordinary individuals, and curious adventures. An amount equal to nearly London's circulating libraries, is thus furnished in a compact and portable form, and is equal to one of the circulating libraries. This plan thus embraces the whole range of popular literature, and the works are so arranged as to be universally diffused in every part of the Union as to form an incomparable portion of the literature of the country, and to give every acquaintance with the most necessary and useful information who mix in society.

The Library has now completed disseminating books to all parts of the country in from five to six weeks after their issue in London. Five dollars per annum, exclusive of postage, will supply good reading for a wide circle of family; for a cent and a half a post week, including a duplicate book sent every week, making in the course of the year more than three volumes of Waldie's Cyclopaedia. One volume of the Literary, containing from fifteen to twenty entire works, can be bound at an expense little exceeding that of binding either separately, and a concentrated collection forming a never-failing resource of amusement and instruction, and which must always be worth the price that was paid for it. The most ample testimony is given by the simultaneous demand for this Library, contributed to the Library of thousands, but for the resource it afforded, must have been left with minds unoccupied, or to have been unprofitably and unenjoyably spent. This immense supply of periodical reading has thus been welcomed every where as a means of improvement, and a substitute for the small talk or idle gossip which is apt to employ a large portion of the time of the many.

Waldie's Library is published every Tuesday, accompanied by a cover of four quarto pages, entitled, The Journal of Books, Lectures, containing reviews of new books, literary intelligence of all kinds, tales, lists of new books, &c. thus combining the advantages of a Library, and the amusement of a magazine and newspaper; the whole for 35 Cts per annum, or 1/5 of five individuals obtain five copies for $2.00, a reduction which pays the postage. Originality in a word.

Waldie's Fort Fido and Companion to the Library.
This periodical contains all such matter as the Library, at half its price, or both as desired, to consist of five for $10.00. Its contents consist of a reprint of the best matter from the London Magazine and Reviews, more especially Chambers's Edinburgh Journal. Its object is popular instruction and amusement, combined in such a manner as to excite the feelings of every member of the social circle. It enjoys an extensive circulation; price to single subscribers not taking the Library, 25 Cts postage paid.

A very limited number of complete sets of Library and Port Folio for the original subscription price, may be had for a short period. The Library has been published three years and the Port Folio one; an individual may now form a club by himself, and by paying for the past three years and the volumes for 1830 of the Library, and the Port Folio for 1835 and 1836, the whole can be had for $20.00. For this amount of matter may be procured which public approbation has stamped as truly valuable and unique for its kind. This privilege must, however, be of brief continuance.

Address, post paid,

PROSPECTUS

WASHINGTON MIRROR.
Second Volume.
THE subscriber having purchased the Washington Mirror from its former proprietor, still in the hands of the editor, he has been, in consequence of the late changes, desirous of forming a comprehensive view of the city, and in a manner unobscured by any other paper. This plan will be strictly adhered to. Our leading object being to lay hold of all local subjects and occurrences which are not being noticed in the daily papers, including Police Reports, and all such matters as are of general interest, we have engaged the valuable services of Mr. WILLIAM PROSSER as assistant editor, whose spirited and untiring exertions to establish this paper have been so eminently successful.

We propose to furnish brief abstracts of all judicial decisions which shall more particularly interest the citizens of this District. Also, a brief but comprehensive summary of Congressional proceedings.

We propose to publish, during the session of Congress, a new and improved Edition, by which arrangement our constant subscribers will receive the latest Congressional Intelligence one day and a half sooner than through any other Washington paper.

We intend, if possible, to furnish a weekly list of all New Patents; a Bank Note Table, and Prices Current of Washington, Alexandria, and Georgetown, corrected with the greatest accuracy; also, Stages, Steamboats, and Rail Road Registers.

We shall exert our best endeavours to elevate the literary character of the Mirror. This can only be done by the cooperation of those minds which are able and willing to aid in the advancement of letters. We cannot, however, be so unjust to our subscribers as to make the Mirror an arena for the unskillful, since far more desirable must be allowed, would be judicious selections than mediocre originality.

We believe that the prospectus of Washington demand such a paper as we intend to publish. She is already closely settled, by her soil, roads, to a great and flourishing city, and is destined to be her competitor rather than rival, in exchanging the products of the country, by means of her stupendous canal, she is about to be thrown, as it were, into the centre of an immense territory, where the resources of industry defy the reach of imagination, and where an amount of capital must soon be created which will astonish the most sanguine economist. Washington and Baltimore, as one mighty heart, must receive and return the current which will give vitality to the commerce of twenty millions of men. Such, in fact, are our advantages, that prosperity must come in spite of causes which conspire to oppress us; but a sense of duty, carried out into action, will relieve our embarrassments, and produce results of incalculable magnitude.

We propose, then, to supply a paper in some degree adapted to the wants of an important community; a literary and miscellaneous family paper; a journal of current literature; a repository of commercial and liberal information; and a paper to sustain us in our undertaking. Terms of the paper—two dollars, payable in all cases semi-annually in advance.

Washington, D. C. REFUSAL OF CASH FOR ANY NUMBER OF NEGROES, including both sexes, from 10 to 35 years of age.

PROSPECTUS OF A NEW PUBLICATION TO BE CALLED

The Catholic Periodical Library.
Which is designed to be a reprint of all the best Catholic Works in the English Language, in weekly numbers, at 8 cents each.

THE dearth and scarcity of the best Catholic works must long have been a source of regret to every intelligent and observing Catholic in America. So limited has been the sale, and so great the expense of printing these books, that but few individuals in the country have been sufficiently enterprising to undertake their publication; and their price, in consequence, has been more than proportionably high. In fact, so dear have Catholic books in general been, that it has been entirely impossible for the poorer members of the Catholic community, who stand most in need of instruction, and for whom the books have in general been compiled, to obtain copies, even of those works which are nearly essential to the practice of their religion.

The subscriber has long since observed this fact with the utmost regret, and may certainly say, that up to this time, he has at least done something to reduce the price of the most necessary Catholic works. Our religious books are still, however, extremely dear, and the Subscriber, depending on the support of a liberal and enlightened Catholic community, has determined to issue a Periodical publication, which, by its cheapness, will place all the best Catholic works within the reach of the poorest individual; and from the neatness and elegance of its execution will be found worthy of a place in the libraries of the rich. Such a publication as that which the subscriber proposes to issue, has long been called for by the experience of the Catholic community; and the rapidly increasing number of the members of our Holy Church seems fully to justify him in the expectation that it will meet with sufficient encouragement to enable him to conduct it successfully. He, therefore, notwithstanding the expense and difficulty attending it, and confiding entirely in the liberality and generosity of his fellow Catholics of the United States and the Canadas has resolved to put it to press forthwith; and he therefore throws himself on his Catholic brethren, and calls on them for their support and patronage.

In this undertaking he is principally encouraged by the hope that it will meet with the cordial approbation of the clergy in general, and that he will be aided by the powerful assistance of that learned and devoted body of men. The undertaking is one which is eminently calculated to disseminate the principles of our holy religion widely throughout the community, and to assist the clergy in the discharge of their parochial duties by affording, at an uncommonly low rate, all the necessary knowledge and instruction. The subscriber, therefore earnestly requests that the Bishops and Clergy in general will exert their powerful influence in order to increase the popularity of the work and to obtain a sufficient number of subscribers to enable him to carry it on with success. By these means they will augment the spiritual comforts of their charges, and contribute, in a great measure, to dispel the prejudices by which our brethren of the other denominations are unfortunately blinded.

TERMS:
The Catholic Periodical Library will be published in Weekly numbers, of fifty pages each, duodecimo size, on fine royal paper and beautiful new type, stitched in handsome wrappers, and will embrace the whole of the most celebrated Controversial and Devotional works, together with a large fund of ecclesiastical history. The first number will be issued on Saturday, November 7th—Terms of subscription $4 Per Annum, or Eight Cents per Number, payable in advance.

Liberal commissions will be allowed to Agents. Any six persons, who may live at a distance, remitting a twenty dollar note, may have six copies of the work sent them for one year.
N. B. Postmasters throughout the country are requested to act as agents.
The following is a list of a few of the works which will be issued in this publication, and which will follow each other in rapid succession.
Moore's Travels of an Irish Gentleman in search of a religion; Bossuet's History of the Variations of the Protestant Churches; The Faith of Catholics, by Kirk and Berrington; Hayward's True Church of Christ shown; Hayward's Charity and Truth; Mores Catholic; or Ages of Faith; Mumford's Questions; Mumford's Catholic Scriptures; Lingard's History of the Anglo-Saxon Church; Perpetuity of the Faith; Dr. M. Hale's Evidences of the Catholic Church; Fleury's Manners of the Israelites; Fleury's Manners of Christians; Jannequin's Ecclesiastical History of Ireland; Bishop Hay's Works; Prince Gallitzin's Controversial Writings; Manning's Works; O'Leary's Tracts; St. Bonaventure's Life of Christ; Challoner's Meditations; Butler's Book of the Catholic Church; Butler's Festivals and Fasts; Butler's Lives of Saints; Dr. Lingard's edition of Ward's Errata.

The above is a collection of Standard Catholic Works, which could not be purchased for less than seventy dollars; and it would be almost impossible to obtain many of the works included in it at any price whatever. The collection can now be obtained in this cheap and elegant Periodical for the uncommonly low price of about Twenty Dollars.

All new Catholic Works will be published in the Periodical Library as soon as received; and able translators will be provided for all the European publications of peculiar excellence.

JOHN DOYLE, Bookseller, N. Y.
Editors of Papers in the country by giving the above a few insertions, and sending the papers containing it to the publisher, will entitle themselves to a copy of the work for one year.

Anne Arundel County, Sct.

An application to me the subscriber, Chief Judge of the Orphans Court for the said county, praying the benefit of the Act of Assembly, entitled, "An Act for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors," passed at November session 1835, and the several supplements thereto, a schedule of his property, and a list of his creditors, (on oath so far as he could ascertain them,) being annexed to his said petition, and I being satisfied that the said Edward Holland has resided in the state of Maryland for two years next preceding the date of his said petition, and I having appointed James J. Taylor trustee for the benefit of the creditors of the said Edward Holland, which said trustee has given bond in due form for the faithful performance of his trust, and the said Edward Holland having given bond with security for his personal appearance in April next, to answer to all the interrogatories of his creditors, and having executed a deed of conveyance to his said trustee for all his property, real, personal and mixed, and the trustee having certified the delivery thereof to him by the said Edward Holland, I do hereby order and adjudge that the said Edward Holland give notice to his creditors by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in one of the newspapers printed in the city of Annapolis, once a week for three consecutive months, prior to the said County Court of Anne Arundel County, to answer such interrogatories and allegations as may be made against him, and I having appointed a deed of conveyance to his said trustee for all his property, real, personal and mixed, and the trustee having certified the delivery thereof to him by the said Edward Holland, I do hereby order and adjudge that the said Edward Holland give notice to his creditors by causing a
