From the Charleston Courier Estra, March 13. IMPORTANT FROM FLORIDA. The schr. George & Mary, arrived this morn ing, from Jacksonville. The following is from the Courier of that phote dated 10th inst. LATE NEWS FROM GENERAL GAINES.

The intelligence from the Withlacochee continues to be of great interest and importance. Soon after our last publication we learned that General Gaines continued fighting the Indiana After the battle of the first day Gen. G., found 30 Indians killed. He had two of his men kil- (6th inst.) there was not a min to the army of led, and several wounded. On the 3d day the and being thus closely pressed, sent for reinforcements, provisions and ammunition. Gen. Clinch, being under the orders of Gen. Scott. and having received no order to send the provisions for the Army, sent corn from his own plantation, and Mr. B M. Dell started with upwards of 80 head of cattle.

They had not proceeded many miles, when an express arrived from Gen. Gaines containing the intelligence, that he was entirely surrounded by the Indians, and unless he received provisions, he should be under the necessity of cutting his way through them, leaving his wounded. He requested the assembling of the Alachaa militia to guard the provisions sent him. After receiving this unexpected intelligence, the provisions, which were on their way, were order d back. The soldiers of Alachun, though so unceremoniously discharged, and who had re fused to be discanded in the present defenceles. state of the country, assembled to the number of about 200 to go to the assistance of Gen. Gaines.

The following extract of a letter received by Col. Dell from Capt. Priest, dated 4th inst., contains some further particulars.

with the Alachua militia, making in all about eight hundred, had gone to aid Gen. Gaines .-He reached the camp, Saturday last, and effected a junction with him. With their united forces, amounting nearly to two thousand men, Gen. Gaines intended crossing the Withlacoochee Monday last. His boats, floating bridges &c. were all prepared. He has four twelve pounders, with which to cover his landing on the opposite side of the Withlacoochec. The Indians will undoubtedly make a desperate struggle to prevent his crossing. Mr. Harrison say that on Monday the cannon was distinctly heard. It is all over now, and we are anxious to hear the result. He states that Gen. Games has never shown to the enemy more than about 200 men, at one time. That in every instance of an attack, whether by night or day, he was prepared for them, having anticipated the move ments of Oscola. In this way he made great havoc among the enemy, having killed several hundred of them. His loss, before Gen. Clinch joined him, was only eight killed and about forty wounded. Mr. H. says, that in his express, Gen. Gaines said he had men enough, and ask. ot only for provisions and ammunition.

From some observations made by Gen. Gaines the number of Indians is estimated at between .two and three thousand
