A bill, entitled, an act for the benefit of Edward Gibson and Mary his wife, of Baltimore...

A bill to authorize Charles Howard, guardian of James H. McHenry, to consent to the paving of a street in the city of Baltimore...

A bill to authorize the executors of William Wilkins, to lease certain property therein mentioned in the city of Baltimore...

A bill to authorize an exchange of certain lots of ground in the city of Baltimore...

The bill from the Senate, entitled, an act to incorporate the subscribers to an association for the encouragement of the fine arts...

On motion of Mr. Pratt said bill was amended by inserting after the word "commissioners" in the third line, first section, the following:

"And upon refusal to act, or death of either of said commissioners, the Governor and Council shall appoint some person or persons to fill such vacancy or vacancies."

On motion of Mr. Gough, said bill was further amended by inserting in some section, fifth line, after the word "writing," these words, "by proof under oath."

Mr. Richardson moved to strike out the third section of the bill.

Determined in the negative.

On motion of Mr. Boyd, said bill was amended by adding at the end of the fourth section thereof the following:

"Subject always to the control and disposition of the Legislature."

Mr. Duke moved further to amend said bill by adding at the end thereof as an additional section the following:

"And be it further enacted, That the sufferers by the riots in said city in the year 1812, be and they shall be indemnified according to the provisions of this act."

Mr. Carter, moved to amend said amendment by adding at the end thereof, these words, "so far as relates to Mrs. White," determined in the negative.

The question then recurred and was put upon the amendment as proposed by Mr. Duke, determined in the negative.

The said bill was then read the second time as amended, and the question put, shall the said bill pass, resolved in the affirmative.

Mr. Ely, called for the yeas and nays, which were ordered by the house.

Mr. Larrison asked to be excused by the house from voting on said bill.

Burchenal, Harcastle, Wharton, McManon, 42. NEGATIVE. Messrs. Primrose, Kirby, of K. Miller, Hood, Waites, Duke, Ely, Brown, Carroll, of B. It. Co. Long, Teackle, McCullough, Nowland, Henderson, Palmer, Kirby, of Q. A. Boyd, Sutton, Nelson, Richardson, McLean, Newcomer, Brookhart, Fiery, Beam, Matthews, Berry, Francis, 24.

So the bill was passed and sent to the senate.

On motion of Mr. Benn, Ordered, That it be noted on the journal that Mr. Gittinger, is confined to his bed by indisposition, and prevented from voting, upon the bill, entitled, an act to provide indemnity to the sufferers by certain riots, in the city of Baltimore.

Mr. Dulany presented a petition of the heirs of Jane White, praying indemnity for certain losses sustained by their ancestor from a riot in the city of Baltimore in 1812.

The house then adjourned.

Wednesday, March 23d. Mr. Dulany, reported a bill entitled, an act for the relief of the heirs of Jane White, late of the city of Baltimore;

Which was read the first and second time by special order;

Mr. Dulany moved to lay said bill on the table, and make it the order of the day for Friday next the 26th inst.

Resolved in the affirmative.

Mr. Wharton, from the committee on unfinished business, reported a bill entitled, an act to authorize the commonwealth of Pennsylvania, to construct certain rail roads in the State of Maryland.

Mr. Kent, chairman of the committee of claims, made an unfavourable report upon the order of the house, requiring them to examine into the justice and expediency of allowing to Edmund P. Plowden, of St. Mary's county, a balance which he claims as due for a horse which was shot during the late war.

Also, made an unfavourable report upon the order of the house, to enquire into the expediency of paying Thomas Baldwin, for services rendered in the riot on the Baltimore and Washington rail road.

Also, made an unfavourable report, upon the petition of Andrew Pender, of Frederick county, praying remuneration for money expended and services rendered, during the late war.

Which were severally read the first, and by special order, the second time, and concurred in.

The hour having arrived for taking up the orders of the day.

The house proceeded to consider the first order of the day, being the bill reported by Mr. Willis, entitled, an act for the division of Baltimore and Frederick counties, and for the creating a new one by the name of "Carroll," and to alter and change the Constitution of this State, so far as may be necessary to effect the same.

On motion of Mr. Striver, the house was called, and the Doorkeeper sent for the absent members, who after a short time had elapsed, returned, and reported, that in obedience to order, he had notified the absent members that their attendance in the house was required.

The house then resumed the consideration of said bill.

Mr. Brown moved to amend said bill, by striking out in the last line of the first section, the words at "Westminster," and inserting in lieu thereof, the following:

"In the geographical centre of said county, if practicable, if not, as near thereto as the ground will admit of, the site to be ascertained and agreed upon by three commissioners, to be appointed by the Governor and Council, member of whom shall be residents of either Frederick or Baltimore counties."

Determined in the negative.

Mr. Brown then moved to amend said bill, by adding at the end of the second section thereof, the following:

"And it shall be entitled to, and receive, from Baltimore county, one fourth part of the cost value of the public property and money, belonging to said county, and from Frederick county, one fourth part of the cost value of the public property and money, belonging to said county, to be ascertained by three commissioners, to be appointed by the Governor and Council, neither of whom shall reside in either of said counties; said money to be paid over to such person or persons, as may be appointed by the legal voters of Carroll county, to receive the same, within one year after the completion of this act, and to be applied exclusively to the building of a court house, jail, and such other public buildings as the legal voters of said Carroll county may order and direct."

Determined in the negative.

Mr. Winder moved to reconsider the first section of said bill, for the purpose of amendment.

On the question being put, will the house reconsider the first section.

It was determined in the negative.

That is now provided by the Constitution of this State.

Mr. Willis, moved as a substitute for said amendment, to amend said section, by striking out in the first line thereof, after the word "districts," the word "shall" in the second line, and inserting in lieu thereof, the following:

"Carroll county shall be one in number, and their limits, as well as the limits of the election districts in Baltimore and Frederick counties."

On the question being put, will the house adopt the substitute, it was resolved in the affirmative.

The said amendment was then read the second time and assented to.

On motion of Mr. Merrick, said bill was further amended by inserting as the 7th section thereof, the following:

"Sec. 7. And be it enacted, That after the confirmation of this act by the next General Assembly, a writ of election shall issue for holding an election in said county, for four delegates to represent said county in the General Assembly, which shall then be in session."

The said bill was then read the second time as amended, and the question put, shall the said bill pass, resolved in the affirmative.

The clerk of the house returned the bill to provide indemnity to the sufferers by certain riots in the city of Baltimore, endorsed, "will pass unanimously," ordered to be engrossed.

Also, the bill, for the relief of the devisees of William Hill, late of Prince George's county, deceased, endorsed, "will pass with the proposed amendment," which amendment was read the first time and ordered to lie on the table.

Also, delivered the following bills, originated and passed by the senate, viz:

A bill, relating to Evidence in certain cases.

A bill, relating to the inspection of Flax-locks.

And, a bill, to incorporate the Literary Company.

Also, a communication from the Executive, endorsed, "referred to the consideration of the House of Delegates," and is as follows:

Executive Department, Annapolis, March 18th, 1835. Gentlemen of the Senate and of the House of Delegates.

We have the honour to lay before you a report of a committee and sundry resolutions of the General Assembly of the State of Kentucky, in relation to the Abolition Societies at the North, to domestic slavery, and to the rights of the several States to the exclusive regulation and control of their domestic institutions.

With the highest consideration, We have the honour to remain, Your obedient servants,

THOS. W. VEAZEY. Which was read and returned to the committee already appointed on that subject.

Mr. Winder submitted the following preamble and resolution:

"Whereas, the fifty-ninth article of the constitution of this State does expressly provide, 'that nothing in this form of government, which relates to the Eastern shore particularly, shall at any time hereafter be altered, unless for the abolition and confirmation of the reef, at least two-thirds of all the members of each branch of the General Assembly shall concur.'—Therefore,

Be it resolved by the General Assembly of Maryland, That no bill can constitutionally become a part of the constitution of this State, which provides for an increase of representation in either branch of the Legislature from a Western shore, that does not also provide for a proportionate increase of representation from the Eastern shore, unless the same be passed by a majority of at least two-thirds of all the members of each branch of the General Assembly, and be published at least three months before a new election, and shall be confirmed by a similar vote by the General Assembly, after a new election of Delegates, in his first session after such new election."

Which was read the first time.

Mr. Winder moved to give said preamble and resolution a second reading by special order.

Mr. Burchenal moved to lay said preamble and resolution on the table.

Resolved in the affirmative.

On motion of Mr. Miller, The house adjourned.

Thursday, March 24th. Mr. McLean presented a memorial of Mary Gray, a colored woman, praying the passage of a law, authorising her to remain in the State.
