The variety thus colworks, mostly new, embraces Biography. vovels, Vovages and Travels, Sketches, Pales, and Select History, personal memoirs extraordinary individuals, and curious additional and the fifty centure &c &c. An amount equal to fifty condon duodecono voiumes is thus annually urnished in weekly numbers, at a cost only equal to one of the London works. The plan us embraces the whole range of popular lit rature, and the work has now become so uni ersally diffused in every part of the Union s to form no inconsiderable portion of the iterature of the country, and with which an acquaintance has become really necessary for those who mix in speicty

The Library as now conducted disseminates books to all pints of the country in from five to six weeks after their issue in London. five dollars per annum expended in this way will supply good greading for a whole circle or family; for a cest and a half a day, postage included, a duotectino book is sent every week, making in the course of the year more than three volumes of Rees's Cyclopedia. One than three volumes at tees's Cyclopedia. One solume of the Library, containing from fifteen to twenty entire yorks, can be bound at an expense little exceeding that of binding either separately, and constitutes a concentrated collection forming a never failing resource of anneament and distruction, and which must slways be worth the price that has been paid for it. The must scale test incorp, has been for it. The most ample testimony has been pontaneously afforded that this work has contributed to the pleasure of thousands, who, but for the resource it afforded, must have seen left with minds unoccupied, or thrown rate unprofitables and uncongenial society. This immense steply of periodical reading mas thus been welcomed every where as a means of improvement, and a substitute for the small talk orer the listlessness so apt to simploy a large portion of the time of the ma-
