THE SALHARUNDI. CHEER TO CWEECHD EMBELLISHED WITH A MULTITUDE OF CO TIC ENGRAVANGS.

A NEW PERIO IIIAM, of a good that racter, bearing the above appenation, will be commenced on the beginning of January, 1836. While it will furnish its patrons with the leading features of the news of the div. its principal object will be to serve up a numerous compilation of the numerous live ty and pungent sallies which are daily floating along the tide of Literature, and which, for the want of a proper channel for their preservation, are positively lost to the Readingworld. Original wits and humorists of our time will here have a medium de oted to the faithful record of the scintillations of then genius. It is not necessary to detail the many attractions which this journal will pos-sess, as the publisher will furnish a specimen number to every person who desires itders, postage paid; Tan the pledges himself that no exertions on his part shall be wanting to make each succeeding number su-perior in every respect to the preceding ones. The Salmagenor will be printed on large imperial paper, qual in size and quality to that which is at present used for the Gentle man's Vade Mecum. It is calculated that MORE THAN
