

Maryland Gazette.

ANNAPOLIS: Thursday, January 12, 1837.

The Annual Fair for the benefit of the Female Orphan Society of the city of Annapolis, will be held at the Assembly Room of said city on Thursday, the 9th of February next, commencing at 12 o'clock. A variety of articles will be exhibited for sale. Industry and skill, and fancy are combining their powers to produce a variety which may be pleasing and attractive to the spectators. Many a benevolent heart is dayling, and many a kind hand is employed in executing something to aid the Fair; and the Managers give this early notice, that others, who perhaps have not yet thought of it, may understand that now is the time to raise for our help. Our hopes are bright, our expectations sanguine, that the result will prove as gratifying as that which has followed similar efforts. Every exertion will be made to have the exhibition as pleasing to the eye as possible; but it is to the heart that we make our appeal, and we trust that those who visit it, will look beyond that which meets the outward vision, to the object for which it is set forth—an object which cannot be known without being acquainted. How full of sorrow is the name of orphan! If rank and wealth and honour surround life's childhood, each and all of them can offer no equivalent for the tender smile, the fond declaration, the watching, ceaseless care of parental love; and when all these are wanting, sad indeed is the situation of the helpless child! It is for such we plead, for such we solicit your compassion. Friends and patrons, citizens and strangers, we feel assured that you will give to the relief of the orphan. Yes, you will, for you have not forgotten that it is written, "a Father of the fatherless is God, in his holy habitation;" and verily you will believe that "as much as you have done to it, one of the least of these, you have done it unto him."

As the time is approaching when the cities of Baltimore and Annapolis, and the county of Anne Arundel, will vote for two representatives to the next Congress, it cannot be considered premature to call the attention of the voters of the district to such persons as are qualified and worthy to receive their suffrage, as it may conduce to a more distinct expression of the public voice. Without intending in any manner, to detract from the pretensions of the respectable gentlemen who now represent the District in Congress, I take the liberty to mention the name of Gen. Wm. H. Marrett, and hope that he will consent to be a candidate. Gen. Marrett is well known to the people. His long service in the Legislature—his having been elected Speaker of the House of Delegates and President of the Senate, are evidences of his capacity for business, and the high estimation in which he was held when a member of the Legislature. He is liberal in his politics, kind and generous in his feelings, and respectful in his deportment. These qualities, public and private, will strongly recommend him to the people of the District as a suitable person to represent them in the next Congress.

COURT OF APPEALS, W. S. DeCen, ber Term, 1836. Tuesday, January 10th, 1837.—On motion, W. H. Collins and Daniel P. Barnard, Esqs. of Baltimore, were admitted Attorneys of this Court. Robert Jones, of Geo. vs. James Stearns's Lessee. The argument in this cause was commenced by R. N. Martin for the Appellant, and Collins for the Appellee. Wednesday, January 11th.—The same cause was continued by Collins and W. W. Havelly for the Appellee.

TRIAL OF RICHARD M. WHITE. The second trial of R. H. White, for setting fire to the Treasury building was commenced on Friday last, agreeably to appointment by the Court. A new Jury was empanelled in the Court, after nearly two hours had been spent in examining the gentlemen who were summoned as to their fitness to serve upon the panel. A great number was set aside, it appearing that they had expressed a decided opinion as to the guilt or innocence of the prisoner. Before the witnesses were examined and the trial went on, the Court made so many pointed remarks, that the impropriety of publishing any reports of the proceedings, and that it was unbecoming to the reporters then present, that such a course must hereafter be avoided.

THE CULTIVATOR. THE THIRD VOLUME. The Cultivator will terminate with our next number. We state the fact thus early, that our subscribers, who wish to continue their subscriptions, may have timely opportunity to renew them before the commencement of the fourth volume, which will be on the first of March. We regret the necessity that requires us to demand the subscription monies in advance; but it is necessary to sustain the publication; and we therefore give notice, that the paper will be discontinued to all, after February, who shall not have paid for the 4th volume, or until they do pay for it. The Cultivator is sent to 2250 post office, from many of which, from the impossibility of making small remittances, there are balances due us, which constitute, in the aggregate, a sum greater than the profits of our labour.

EXTRAORDINARY PHENOMENON AND EXTENSIVE CALAMITY AT TROY, N. Y. Extract of a letter from a friend to a member of Congress from the State of New York. Troy, Monday Morning, Jan. 2, 1837. The lower part of our city has become a modern Pompeii. Last evening about seven o'clock, the hill at the lower part of the city slid down, covering up houses, barns, &c. with men, women and children in them. It has covered up every thing half way to the river, passing over Sixth, Fifth and Fourth streets to Third street.

SECOND EDITION OF VOLUME I. The application for our first volume are so numerous that we have concluded to print a second edition, on the same sized pages as the present volume. Applications for the volume will be registered, and the copies forwarded as soon as the volume can be printed. Price Fifty Cents.

MAMMOTH SHEET. OFFICE OF THE SATURDAY NEWS AND LITERARY GAZETTE. Philadelphia, November 26, 1836. THE very liberal patronage bestowed on the SATURDAY NEWS, since its commencement in July last, and a desire to meet that patronage by corresponding exertions, have induced us this week to publish a Double Number—being the largest sheet ever printed in Philadelphia for any purpose, and the largest literary paper ever printed in the United States. To those of our friends who are practical printers, it need not be mentioned that this undertaking has involved serious mechanical difficulties. The largest—our one of the largest presses in Philadelphia is used for our ordinary impression—but this would accommodate only a single page of the mammoth sheet, and we were obliged, therefore, to work four forms at different periods. The care used in preparing the paper—in removing and folding the sheets, &c. can only be estimated by those who have seen the experiment made; and, add to the necessarily increased amount of composition, press work, &c. these supplementary expenses have made an aggregate cost, which would have deterred many from engaging in the enterprise. A gain of two thousand new subscribers will not repay the actual cost of this single number.

DISGRACEFUL OUTRAGE AND MURDER. The citizens of Mason were considerably excited last Monday morning on hearing that the Irishmen at work on the Forsyth rail road, about five or six miles from the city, had beaten some persons who were bringing Cotton to this market. The circumstances, as currently as we could obtain them, are these: A Mr. Smith who was hauling Cotton to market, while walking behind his wagon, (his negro driving) was suddenly knocked down and beaten by some of the men; the boy hearing the noise jumped from his horse to see what was the matter when several commenced beating him, he however made his escape without much injury. By this time, a Mr. Huckleby, from Pike, came up and enquired the cause of their beating Smith, when he was instantly knocked down from his horse, and most barbarously beaten, his skull was fractured and he was otherwise badly injured. He died the next day, although every assistance was rendered him. Some one else, whose name we have not learned, was also seriously injured.

NOTICE TO TRESPASSERS. THE subscriber hereby warns all persons not to trespass with Dog or Gun, or in any other manner, upon the Farm lately occupied by Mr. Enoch Duval, as he is determined to put the Law in force against all offenders, without respect to persons.

NOTICE. THE Commissioners for Anne Arundel county, will meet at the Court House in the city of Annapolis, on TUESDAY the 17th day of January next, for the purpose of settling with the Executors of Tobacco, bearing appeals, amending transfers, and closing their books for the year 1836.

VALUABLE PROPERTY FOR SALE. THE subscriber offers for sale the whole of his property in the city of Annapolis, to wit: THE DWELLING HOUSE and Premises where he now resides, which is in complete repair, and calculated for a large family; there are twelve spacious Rooms, eight of which have fire places; the Cellars are perfectly dry, and all newly paved; there are nearly five acres of Ground attached to the premises, with every necessary out building, a large Stable sufficient for twelve Horses, Carriage House, Smoke House, Dairy, and Wash-House, an excellent Pump of pure Water in the yard; the Garden, which is large, abounds with the most choice selection of Fruit, and with Shrubby of every description. This property is situated near the Government House, lately owned and occupied by Gen. Richard Howard of this State; the whole is in fee simple, and the title indisputable.

PUBLIC SALE. THE subscriber, in virtue of a Bill of Sale from Enoch Duval to George Wells, will expose to Public Auction, to the highest bidder for cash, on SATURDAY the 14th instant, part of the property contained in said Bill of Sale, viz. the crop of TOBACCO hanging in the Tobacco House, the crop of CORN in the Corn House, 2 stacks of HAY, and a parcel of Wheat Straw, Fodder, Blades and Corn Husks. Sale to take place at 12 o'clock, M. at the late residence of the said Enoch Duval.

CHANCERY SALE. BY virtue of a decree of the Court of Chancery of the State of Maryland, the subscriber will expose to Public Sale, on Tuesday the 24th day of January next, on the premises, the House and Lot of Ground whereof the late Samuel Maynard died seized, situated in the city of Annapolis, adjoining the residence of Mrs. Wilton, and now occupied by John N. Watkins, Esq. The House is built of the very best materials, and is in good repair, and being near the State House makes it valuable. It is deemed unnecessary to give a further description of the above property, as it is presumed those inclined to purchase will view the premises previous to the sale.

OPERATIVE SURGEON DENTIST. RESPECTFULLY informs his acquaintance, and the citizens of Annapolis generally, that he proposes during his continuance in this city, to attend to the practice of his profession. J. H. owing to the inclemency of the season, respectfully offers his services to Ladies and Gentlemen, at their residences, free of extra charge. He also takes the liberty of stating, that he has obtained a knowledge of all the late improvements in the art of Dentistry, both Physical and Mechanical, and feels sanguine of giving general satisfaction. Advice given gratuitously. Prices for operations moderate.

THE SALMAGUNDI, AND NEWS OF THE DAY. ESTABLISHED WITH A MULTITUDE OF COMIC ENGRAVINGS. A NEW PERIODICAL, of a novel character, bearing the above appellation, will be commenced on the beginning of January, 1837. While it will furnish its patrons with the leading features of the news of the day, its principal object will be to serve up a humorous compilation of the numerous lively and pungent sallies which are daily floating along the tide of literature, and which, for the want of a proper channel for their preservation, are positively lost to the reading world. Original wits and humorists of our time will here have a medium devoted to the faithful record of the scintillations of their genius. It is not necessary to detail the many attractions which this journal will possess, as the publisher will furnish a specimen number to every person who desires it—(those out of the city, will forward their orders, postage paid)—and he pledges himself that no exertions on his part shall be wanting to make each succeeding number superior in every respect to the preceding ones.

THE SALMAGUNDI will be published on alternate weeks—otherwise it would be impossible to procure the numerous Embellishments which each number will contain—and the general interest it will afford must be enhanced by this arrangement.

LONDON FASHIONS. GEORGE M'NEIL, MERCHANT TAILOR. HAS just received direct from London Dress Coat, Pantaloon and Vest, as specimens of the Fashions, and invites his friends and those disposed to patronize him, to call and examine them, together with a large and general assortment of CLOTHS, CASSIMERES, and VESTING, all of the latest importations.

THE SALMAGUNDI will be published on alternate weeks—otherwise it would be impossible to procure the numerous Embellishments which each number will contain—and the general interest it will afford must be enhanced by this arrangement.
