It dearth and scarcity of the best Catholic works must long have been a source of regret to every intelligent and observing Catholic in America. So limited has source of regret to every intelligent and ob-serving Catholic in America. So limited has been the sale, and so great the expense of printing these books, that but few individuals in the country have been sufficiently enterin the country nave user a subject ton; and prising to unlertake their publication; and their price, in consequence, has been more than proportionably high. In fact so dear than have Catholic books in general been, that it has been entirely in possible for the poorer members of the Catholic community, who done something to this time, or has at least done something to reduce the prices of the most necessary Catholic works. Our religious books are still, however, extremely dear, and the Subscriber, depending on the support of a liberal and enlightened Catholic community, has determined to issue a Periodical publication, which he its channels. odical publication, which, by its cheapness, will place all the best Catholic works within the reach of the poorest individual; and from the neitness and elegance of its execution will be found worthy of a place in the libra-ties of the rich. Such a publication as that which the subscriber proposes to issue, halong been called for by the exigencies of the Catholic community; and the rapidly increasing number of the members of our Holy Church seems fully to profit him in the expectation that it will meet with sufficient encouragement to enable him to conduct it successfully. Fourth Year of Waldie's Library. PROSPECTUS OF TWO NEW YOL-UMES FOR 1856.

UMES FOR 1856.

THIREE years have now elapsed since the proprietor of Waldie's Select Circulating Library laid before the public his original prospectus for a valuable library, the Freat features of which were cheapness and the facility of a rapid transportation by mail. The most ample success has attended the enterprise, and the effects upon the reading community, it is believed, have been wholesome.

The fourth year will commence on the first Fuesday of January, 1836, at which period it will be necessary to determine the additional amount of copies to be printed, submembers of the Catholic community, who stand most in need of instruction, and for whom the books have in general usen compiled, to obtain copies, even of those works which are nearly essential to the practice of their religion.

The subscriber has long since observed this fact with the uthoost regret, and may certainly say, that up to this time, he has at least done something to reduce the prices of the list of patrons who are of the most solid and valuable class of cit zens in every part of the Union, as well as in foreign countries.

of the Union, as well as in foreign countries.

The object of Waldie's Library, its use and purpose, is enjoyment liberal and intel-tectual. To all who love a mental banquet, without being compelled to depend on places without being compelled to depend on places of public resort, this publication furnishes a most valuable desideratum, supplying polite interature of a character to enlarge and improve the mino. The time and attention of the editor himself a reader from inclination 14 well as duty, are devoted to the procurement of works of an cievated stand into in tellect which may be admitted into except family without less tation by the most fastinius, and become a fallying point for all its family without hesitation by the most fasti-tious, and become a rallying point for all its nembers, promoting social belles lettres read-ing and conversation. The variety has col-rected from the whole mass of published works, mostly new, embraces Biographys Novels, Voyages and Travels, Sketches, Cales, and Select History, personal memors of extraordinary in ividuals, and curious adentirely in the interactity and generosity (valve, and select itistory, personal memoris of fellow Catholics of the United States of extraordinary in aviduals, and curious adas the Canadas has resolved to put it to venture. &c &c. THE NEW-YORKER-QUARTO FORM_NEW SER ES.

PROSPECTUS OF THE BECOMD VOLUME. THE Publishers of the New-Yorker commenced in March last, a weekly edition of their publication in quarto form, and of their publication in quarto form, and made, as they thought, ample provision for supplying as great a number of subscribers as their most flattering hopes led them to believe would pationize the work under its then new arrangement. They have been detered—agreeably 50, in their calculations, inasmuch as the favour shown to the jublication rapidly absorbed the whole edition, and tion rapidly absorbed the whole edition, and constant orders are received for copies, which the Publishers have been unable to supply With a view to obviate this difficulty, and meet the wishes of the many who desire to patronize the work, the Publishers have resolved to neutralize the blank in the current order of the volume, by changing so far the present arrangement, as to furnish two volumes in a year, in lieu of one, as stated in the original prospectus.
