EVERY-BODY'S ALBUM.
A MONTHLY MAGAZINE OF Humorous Tales, Essays, Anecdotes, and Facetiae.
EMBELLISHED WITH NUMEROUS
GROTESQUE & AMUSING ENGRAV-INGS.
Each number comprising seventy-two large octavo pages, neatly covered and stitched-making at the end of the year two volumes of EIGHT HUNDRED AND SIXTY-FOUR PAGES, and at least six HUNDRED ENGRAVINGS, with Titles and Index complete—at Three Dollars per annum.
THE cheerful and pleasing feature with which it is proposed to diversify and distinguish this work has never yet been adopted by any one of the numerous literary caters that have hitherto abounded in this country, and its extensive novelty and the vast fund of humour and variety which will be interspersed throughout its pages, is calculated to render it a desirable and popular companion for the amusement of all classes who desire to possess an epitome of the works of celebrated Modern Humourists, Etchers, and Engravers. The encouragement generally given to new undertakings, having a salutary object in view, has produced a decided public interest in it, and it is questionable whether a younger age has ever brought into active use so large a proportion of the really deserving springs of genius and talent as the present.
Assured that this periodical, affording, as it will, an elaborate and comprehensive collection of fanciful illustrations, Satirical Essays in prose and verse, witty Tales, with Quips, Quirks, Anecdotes, and Facetiae, must have a partial tendency (among its patrons at least) to divert into another and more exhilarating channel much of the oppressive action of the mind, consequent upon the cares and vexations of business, the publisher anticipates for it a most flattering and extensive subscription list. The work, at all events, will be commenced on the first of July, and continued for one year, therefore every subscriber will be certain of receiving all the numbers for which he has paid. When the twelve numbers are completed, and made up into two volumes, they will form one of the most desirable and amusing records of Wit and Humour which can be found in print. Let the public assist the publisher with their patronage, and he assures them he will leave nothing undone that will give celebrity and popularity to his work.
THE "EVERY-BODY'S ALBUM," will be published monthly in numbers of 72 pages, with a variety of embellishments—neatly stitched in colored covers—printed with new types, and on fine white paper, at three dollars per annum, payable in advance. Two copies will be supplied to order, for one year, for five dollars. When sent to a distance from the city, the work will be packed in strong wrappers, to prevent the least rubbing by the mails. Notes of solvent banks of every description taken in payment of subscriptions. Address the publisher (postage paid).

Price—Three Dollars per annum.
26,000 SUBSCRIBERS!
PHILADELPHIA MIRROR.
THE splendid patronage awarded to the Philadelphia Saturday Courier, induces the editors to commence the publication, under the above title, of a quarto edition of their popular journal, so long known as the largest Family Newspaper in the United States, with a list of near TWENTY-SIX THOUSAND SUBSCRIBERS.—The new feature recently introduced of furnishing their readers with the books of the best literature of the day, having proved so eminently successful, the editors will be continued. Six volumes of the selected writings of Captain Maryatt, and the late Mr. Brock's valuable Letters from Europe, have already been published without interfering with its news and miscellaneous reading. The Courier is the largest and cheapest family newspaper ever issued in the country, containing articles in Literature, Science, and Arts; Historical Improvements; Agriculture in short every variety of topics skillfully introduced into a public journal. Giving full accounts of sales, markets, and news of the latest dates.
It is published at the low price of $2. For its small sum subscribers get valuable and entertaining matter, each week, enough to fill a common book of 200 pages, and equal to two volumes a year, and which is estimated to cost, weekly, at least two hundred pages, scattered in all parts of the country, from Maine to Florida, and from the Atlantic to the Lakes. The paper has been long established as to render it too well known to require an extended prospectus; but, therefore, will do no more than point to the two leading daily political papers of the country, the Pennsylvania and the Saturday Courier is the largest, and one of the best family newspapers in the land; the other, the Inquirer and Daily Advertiser, says, "it is the largest journal published in Philadelphia, and one of the very best in the United States." The New York Star is well known of nothing more liberal in spirit of the editors, and no means more desirous to draw out the dormant talents of our country, than their unexampled liberality in offering literary prizes." The Albany Mercury of March 16th, 1836, says, "the Saturday Courier, is decidedly the best Family Newspaper ever published in this country, and its value is duly appreciated by the public; if we may judge from its vast circulation, which exceeds 25, 000 copies weekly. Its contents are agreeably varied, and each number contains more reading than the 'reading matter' than is published in any other daily paper in the Union.
Its smooth dimensions enable its enterprising proprietors, Messrs. Woodward & Clarke, of Philadelphia, to re-publish in its pages, in the course of a year, several of the most interesting new works that issue from the British press; which cannot fail to excite a permanent interest, and render it worthy of preservation. To meet the wishes, however, of such of the subscribers as desire to have their numbers bound, they have commenced issuing an edition of the Courier in the quarto form, which will render it more convenient for reading when it is bound in a volume, and thus greatly enhance its value."
THE QUARTO EDITION.
The editors of the Philadelphia Mirror will concur with the publication of the "EVERY-BODY'S ALBUM," to which was awarded the prize of $100, written by Miss Leslie, editor of the splendid Annual the Fanny, and author of Penn Sketches and other valuable contributions to American Literature. A large number of songs, poems, tales, &c. offered in competition for the $100 premiums, will add value and interest to the succeeding numbers, which will also be enriched by a story from Miss Sedgwick, author of Hope Leslie, The Lawwoods, &c. whose talents have been so justly and extensively appreciated, both at home and abroad.
This approved FAMILY NEWSPAPER, strictly neutral in religious and political matters, and the uncompromising opponent of quackery of every kind.
MAPS.
In addition to all of which the publication furnishing their patrons with a series of engraved Maps, embracing the twenty-five States of the Union, &c. exhibiting the situation, &c. of rivers, towns, mountains, lakes, the sea board, internal improvements, as displayed in canals, rail roads, &c., with other interesting and useful features, roads, distances, &c. forming a complete Atlas for general use and information, handsomely executed, and each distinct map on a large quarto sheet, at an expense which nothing but the splendid patronage which for six years past has so generously extended to them, could warrant.
TERMS.
The Philadelphia Saturday Courier is still continued in its large form, at the same price as heretofore. The Philadelphia Mirror, being a quarto edition of the Saturday Courier, with its increased attractions, and printed on the best fine white paper of the same size as the New York Albion, will be put at precisely one half the price of that valuable journal, viz: Three Dollars per annum, payable in advance, (including the Maps.)
WOODWARD & CLARKE,
Philadelphia.

A NEW AND CHEAP PERIODICAL.
Attention is requested from our readers to the following prospectus of a new, and even a cheaper book periodical, which will be issued from this office in the first week of next January. It will not be in so convenient a form for binding as the present, with which it will in no way interfere, but it will make books cheap beyond all precedent. It will contain the works of the day, which are such sought after, but are comparatively dear, and which cannot penetrate the interior in any mode but so rapidly as by mail, in which volumes of books are prohibited. A fifty cent volume or report will be furnished entirely for four to six cents; a Maryland novel for twelve cents, and others in proportion.
As but very few copies will be printed but what are actually subscribed for, those who wish the Omnibus, must make their remittances at once.
Books at Newspaper Postage.
WALDIE'S LITERARY OMNI-BUS.
NOVEL AND IMPORTANT LI-TERARY ENTERPRISE!
NOVELS, TALES, ROMANCES, VOYAGES, TRAV-ELS, REVIEWS, AND THE NEWS OF THE DAY.
IT was one of the great objects of "Wal-die's Literary," to make good reading cheaper, and to bring literature to every man's door. That object has been accomplished; we have given to books wings, and they have flown to the uttermost parts of our vast continent, carrying society to the secluded, occupation, to the literary, information to all. We now propose still further to reduce prices, and render the access to a literary banquet more than twofold accessible; we give and shall continue to give in the quarto library a volume weekly for two cents a day; we now propose to give a volume in the same period for less than four cents a week, and to add as a piquant seasoning to the dish a few columns of shorter literary matters, and a summary of the news and events of the day. We know by experience and calculation that we can go still further in the matter of reduction, and we feel that there is still verge enough for us to aim at offering to an increasing literary appetite that mental food which it craves.
The Select Circulating Library, now as ever so great a favourite, will continue to make its weekly visits, and to be issued in a form for binding and preservation, and its price will remain the same. Its new shape in the first week of January, 1837, will be a large sheet of the size of the largest newspapers of America, but on very superior paper, also filled with books of the newest and most entertaining, though in their several departments of Novels, Tales, Voyages, Travels, &c. selected in their character, joined with reading such as usually should fill a weekly newspaper. By this method we hope to accomplish a great good to enlighten and enlarge the family circle, and to give to it, at an expense which shall be no consideration to any, a mass of reading that in book form would alarm the pockets of the prudent, and to do it in a manner that the most scrupulous shall acknowledge "the power of concentration can no farther go." No book which appears in Waldie's Quarto Library will be published in the Omnibus, which will be an entirely distinct periodical.
WALDIE'S LITERARY OMNIBUS will be issued every Friday morning, printed on paper of a quality superior to any other weekly sheet, and of the largest size. It will contain, 1st. Books, the newest and the best that can be procured, equal every week to a London quaterino volume, embracing Novels, Travels, Memoirs, &c., and only chargeable with newspaper postage.
2d. Literary Reviews, Tales, Sketches, notices of books, and information from "the world of letters," of every description.
3d. The news of the week concentrated to a small compass, but in a sufficient amount to embrace a knowledge of the principal events, political and miscellaneous, of Europe and America.
The price will be two dollars to clubs of five subscribers where the paper is forwarded to one address. To clubs of two individuals, five dollars; single mail subscribers, three dollars. The discount on uncurrent money will be charged to the remitter; the low price and superior paper absolutely prohibit paying a discount.
On no condition will a copy ever be sent until the payment is received in advance.
As the arrangements for the prosecution of this great literary undertaking are all made, and the proprietor has redeemed all his pledges to a generous public for many years, in fear of the non-fulfillment of the contract can be felt. The Omnibus will be regularly issued, and will contain in a year reading matter equal in amount to two volumes of Rees's Cyclopaedia, for the small sum mentioned above.
Address, post paid,
ADAM WALDIE,
46 Carpenter St. Philadelphia.
Editors throughout the Union, and Canada, will confer a favour by giving the above one or more conspicuous insertions, and accepting the work for a year as compensation.
