

PROSPECTUS OF A NEW PUBLICATION TO BE CALLED
The Catholic Periodical Library.
 Which is designed to be a reprint of all the best Catholic Works in the English Language, in weekly numbers, at 8 cents each.

THE dearth and scarcity of the best Catholic works must long have been a source of regret to every intelligent and observing Catholic in America. So limited has been the sale, and so great the expense of printing these books, that but few individuals in the country have been sufficiently enterprising to undertake their publication; and their price, in consequence, has been more than proportionally high. In fact, so dear have Catholic books in general been, that it has been entirely impossible for the poorer members of the Catholic community, who stand most in need of instruction, and for whom the books have in general been compiled, to obtain copies, even of those works which are nearly essential to the practice of their religion.

The subscriber has long since observed this fact with the utmost regret, and may certainly say, that up to this time, he has at least done something to reduce the price of the most necessary Catholic works. Our religious books are still, however, extremely dear, and the subscriber, depending on the support of a liberal and enlightened Catholic community, has determined to issue a Periodical publication, which, by its cheapness, will place all the best Catholic works within the reach of the poorst individuals; and from the neatness and elegance of its execution will be found worthy of a place in the libraries of the rich. Such a publication as that which the subscriber proposes to issue, has long been called for by the rapidly increasing number of the members of our Holy Church; and it is justly to be expected that it will meet with such a degree of encouragement to enable him to conduct it successfully. He therefore, not only understanding the expense and risk attending it, and counting entirely in the liberality and generosity of his fellow Catholics of the United States and the Canadian, has resolved to put it to press forthwith, and to forego the profits himself on his own account, and calls on them for their assistance and patronage.

In this undertaking, he particularly encourages all those who will meet with the cordial approval of the clergy, and especially, and that he will be aided by the powerful assistance of that learned and devoted body of men. The undertaking is one which is eminently calculated to disseminate the principles of our holy religion widely throughout the community, and to assist the clergy in the discharge of their parochial duties by affording, at an uncommonly low rate, the necessary knowledge and instruction. The subscribers, therefore, earnestly requests that the Bishops and Clergy in general will exert their powerful influence in order to increase the popularity of the work and to obtain a sufficient number of subscribers to enable him to carry it on with success. By these means they will augment the spiritual comforts of their charges, and contribute, in a great measure, to dispel the prejudices by which our brethren of the other denominations are unfortunately blinded.

TERMS:
 The Catholic Periodical Library will be published in Weekly numbers, of fifty pages each, double size, on fine royal paper, and beautiful new type, stretched in handsome wrappers, and will embrace the whole of the most celebrated Controversial and Devotional works, together with a large fund of ecclesiastical history. The first number will be issued on Saturday, November 7th.—Terms of subscription $1 Per Annum, or Eight Cents per Number, payable in advance.

Liberal commissions will be allowed to Agents. Any six persons, who may live at a distance, remitting a twenty dollar note, may have six copies of the work sent them for one Year.

The following is a list of many of the works which will be issued in the publication, and which will follow each other in rapid succession.

Moore's Travels of an Irish Gentleman in search of a religion; from the History of the Variations of the Protestant Churches; The Faith of Catholics; by Kirkcaldy; Borington Hayward's True Church of Christ shown; Hayward's Charity and Truth; Jones Castillon, or Ages of Faith; Maudslott's Question of Questions; Mamford's Catholic Scripturist; Langard's History of the Anglo-Saxon Church; by the petition of the Faith; Dr. M. Huc's Evidence of the Catholic Church; Flcury's Manners of the Israelites; Flcury's Manners of Christians; Linnegay's Ecclesiastical History of Ireland; Bishop Hay-Work's Prince Gallitzin's Controversial Writings; Manning's Works; O'Leary's Tracts; St. Bonaventura's Life of Christ; Chillover's Meditations; Butler's Book of the Catholic Church; Butler's Festivals and Fast; Butler's Lives of Saints; Dr. Langard's edition of Ward's Brevia.

The above is a collection of Standard Catholic Works, which could not be purchased for less than seventy dollars; and it would be almost impossible to obtain many of the works included in it at any price whatever. The collection can now be obtained in this cheap and elegant Periodical for the uncommonly low price of about Twenty Dollars.

All new Catholic Works will be published in the Periodical Library as soon as received; and able translators will be provided for all the European publications of peculiar excellence.

JOHN DOYLE, Bookseller, N. Y.
 Editors of Papers in the country by giving the above a few insertions, and sending the papers containing it to the publisher, will entitle themselves to a copy of the work for the year.

Fourth Year of Waldie's Library: BOOKS BY MAIL PROSPECTUS OF TWO NEW VOLUMES FOR 1836.

THREE years have now elapsed since the proprietor of Waldie's Select Circulating Library laid before the public his original prospectus for a valuable library, the great features of which were cheapness, and the facility of a rapid transportation by mail. The most ample success has attended the enterprise, and the effects upon the reading community, it is believed, have been wholesome.

The fourth year will commence on the first Tuesday of January, 1836, at which period it will be necessary to determine the additional amount of copies to be printed, subscriptions being taken only from January of each year. The entire success of the Library is the best guarantee that can be given of its continuance. It was the first to supply books by mail at a more percentage of their former cost; it has outlived more than thirty similar attempts at imitation; and has now an extensive list of patrons who are of the most solid and valuable class of citizens in every part of the Union, as well as in foreign countries.

The object of Waldie's Library, its use and purpose, is enjoyment liberal and intellectual. To all who love a mental banquet, without being compelled to depend on places of public resort, this publication furnishes a most valuable desideratum, supplying polite literature of a character to enlarge and improve the mind. The time and attention of the editor, himself a reader from inclination, as well as duty, are devoted to the procurement of works of an elevated standard of intellect which may be admitted into every family without hesitation by the most fastidious, and become a rallying point for all its members, promoting social pleasures, reading and conversation. The variety thus collected from the whole mass of published works, mostly new, embraces Biography, Novels, Voyages and Travels, Sketches, Tales, and Select History, person memoirs of extraordinary individuals, and curious adventures, &c. &c. An amount equal to fifty London moderate volumes is thus annually furnished in weekly numbers, at a cost only equal to one of the London works. The plan thus embraces the whole range of popular literature, and the work has now become so universally diffused in every part of the Union as to form an inestimable portion of the literature of the country, and with which an acquaintance has become nearly necessary to those who mix in society.

The Library has now conducted disseminating works to all parts of the country, in five to six weeks after their issue, at a uniform five dollars per annum, or twenty dollars for a family for a year, and a half for a single volume included, a moderate book is sent every week, making in the course of the year more than three volumes of Reed's Cyclopaedia. One volume of the Library, containing from fifteen to twenty entire works, can be ordered as an expense little exceeding that of sending either separately, and constitutes a concentrated collection forming a never failing resource of amusement and instruction, and which must always be worth the price that has been paid for it. The most ample testimony has been spontaneously afforded that this work has contributed to the pleasure of thousands, who, but for the resource it afforded, must have been left without minds unoccupied, or thrown into unprofitable and unengaged society. This immense supply of periodical reading has thus been met, and every where as a means of improvement, and a substitute for the small talk of a listlessness so apt to employ a large portion of the time of the many.

Waldie's Library is published every Tuesday, except on a cover of four quarto pages, entitled, The Journal of Belley, Letters, containing reviews of new books, literary intelligence of all kinds, tales, lists of new books, &c. &c. thus combining the advantages of a Library, and the amusement of a magazine, and newspapers for the whole for $5.00 per annum, or clubs of five individuals obtain five copies for $20.00, a reduction which pays the postage. Payment always in advance.

Waldie's Port Folio and Companion to the Library.
 This periodical, containing as much matter as the Library, and at half its price, or both are sent for the same price, for $6.00. Its contents consist of a great part of the best matter from the Edinburgh Magazine and Reviews, more especially from the Edinburgh Journal. Its object is popular instruction and amusement, contained in a measure as to extend the feelings of every member of the social circle. It enjoys an extensive circulation; price to single subscribers not taking the Library, $2.50, postage paid.

A very limited number of complete sets of Library and Port Folio, at the original subscription price, may be had for a short period. The Library has been published three years and the Port Folio over an individual may now form a club by himself, and by paying for the past three years and the volumes for 1835 and 1836, the whole can be had for $20.00. For this amount of matter may be procured which public approbation has stamped as truly valuable and unique for its kind. This privilege must, however, be of brief continuance.

THE NEW-YORKER—QUARTO FORM—NEW SERIES.

PROSPECTUS OF THE SECOND VOLUME.
THE Publishers of the New-Yorker commenced in March last, a weekly edition of their publication in quarto form, and made, as they thought, ample provision for supplying as great a number of subscribers as their most flattering hopes led them to believe would patronize the work under its then new arrangement. They have been deceived—agreeably so, in their calculations, inasmuch as the favour shown to the publication rapidly absorbed the whole edition, and constant orders are received for copies, which the Publishers have been unable to supply. With a view to obviate this difficulty, and meet the wishes of the many who desire to patronize the work, the Publishers have resolved to neutralize the blank in the current order of the volume, by changing so far the present arrangement, as to furnish two volumes in a year, in lieu of one, as stated in the original prospectus.

On the Twenty-fourth of September next, therefore, will be issued the first number of a new series of the Quarto New-Yorker, or No. 1. of Vol. II. thus affording to new subscribers an opportunity of beginning with a distinct volume, entirely unconnected with the one preceding, while our original patrons will be advantaged in receiving their copies in a form calculated better for binding in a convenient volume, than under the old arrangement. The distinguishing line between the old and new Series will be indicated at the head of the first page of every number; and as no change is contemplated in the size or quality of the work, no inconvenience can result to those who have taken it from the commencement; while, on the other hand, it presents the features of an entirely new publication to those who may date their subscription with the new volume.

Under its improved arrangement, the whole edition for one year will embrace two semi-annual volumes, each containing four hundred and sixteen pages of original and selected matter such as has heretofore been presented to its readers, and which, it is hoped, has been of a character to meet the full approval of the literary and general tastes of the reading community. The two volumes will comprise eight hundred and thirty-two pages of fifty two of which will be Music.

The aim of the Publishers is to present in a compact, neat, and portable form, a literary and miscellaneous journal adapted to the intellectual wants of their readers; and from the very flattering success that has thus far rewarded their efforts, they indulge the hope that the New-Yorker will continue to receive that share of public favour which it has ever been their study to merit. The expression of cordiality and good feeling manifested by their friends and contemporaries affords gratifying evidence that the character of their journal has been based upon a correct foundation, and it would therefore be irrelevant to attempt to express their determination of having no means untried of furnishing a sheet which will bear respectful criticism when compared with any of the periodicals of the day of a similar character.

To those who propose patronizing the work, promptitude in forwarding their orders is earnestly recommended, as the present season is the best time to be taken for the edition of the work, and it is to be regretted that the number of subscribers who have not yet put out of the hands of the Publishers to supply our columns, and they will not warrant the change of volume to those who may come in late with their subscriptions. Amended are the conditions, which must be strictly adhered to, as the one of conflict laid down will govern the transaction of business between the publishers and patrons.

CONDITIONS.
 The Quarto New-Yorker will be published every Saturday afternoon on an extra-imperial sheet of the finest quality, comprising sixteen pages of three columns each, and addressed to its patrons in city and country, at THREE DOLLARS per annum, payable in advance. Orders from a distance, unaccompanied by a remittance, will necessarily remain unanswered. Any person or persons sending $5 positively free of postage or other charges will receive two copies for one year, or a single copy for two years, and in the same proportion for a larger sum. The few who may desire to take the quarto edition for immediate use, and the Quarto for binding, will be entitled to receive both for $4.50 in advance. We will cheerfully preserve their files of the Quarto for any such who may desire it.

EVERY BODY'S ALBUM.

 Humorous Tales, Essays, Anecdotes, and Facetiae.
 EMBELLISHED WITH NUMEROUS GROTESQUE & AMUSING ENGRAVINGS.

which it is proposed to diversify and distinguish this work has never yet been adopted by any one of the numerous literary caterers that have hitherto abounded in this country—and its extensive novelty and the vast fund of humour and variety which will be interspersed throughout its pages, is calculated to render it a desirable and popular companion for the amusement of all classes who desire to possess an epitome of the works of celebrated Modern Humourists, Etchers, and Engravers. The encouragement generally given to new undertakings, having a salutary object in view, has proved a decided public advantage, and it is questionable whether any other age has ever brought into active use so large a proportion of the really deserving offspring of genius and talent as the present. Assured that this periodical, affording, as it will, an elaborate and comprehensive collection of fanciful illustrations, Satirical Essays in prose and verse, witty Tales, with Quips, Quirks, Anecdotes, and Facetiae, must have a partial tendency (among its patrons at least) to divert into another and more exhilarating channel much of the oppressive action of the mind, consequent upon the cares and vexations of business, the publisher anticipates for it a most flattering and extensive subscription list. The work, at all events, will be commenced on the first of July, and continued for one year, therefore every subscriber will be certain of receiving all the numbers for which he has paid. When the twelve numbers are completed and made up into two volumes, they will form one of the most desirable and amusing records of Wit and Humour which can be found in print. Let the public assist the publisher with their patronage, and he assures them he will leave nothing undone that will give celebrity and popularity to his work.

The "Every Body's Album," will be published monthly in numbers of 72 pages with a variety of embellishments—neatly stitched in colored covers—printed with new type, and on fine white paper, at three dollars per annum, payable in advance. Two copies will be supplied to order, for one year, for five dollars. When sent to a distance from the city, the work will be packed in strong wrappers, to prevent the least rubbing by the mails. Notes of solvent banks of every description taken in payment of subscriptions. Address the publisher (postage paid.)
