PHILADELPHIA MIRROR. 1 HE splendid patronage awarded to the Philadelphia Saturday Courier, induces the editors to commence the publication, un-der the above title, of a quarto edition of their popular journal, so long known as the largest Family Newspaper in the United States, with a list of near TWENTY-SIX THOUSAND a list of near TWENTY-SIX THOUSAND SUBSCRIBERS.—The new feature recently introduced of furnishing their readers with new books of the best literature of the day. having proved so eminently successful, the plan will be continued. Six volumes of the celebrated writings of Captain Marryatt, and sixty five of Mr. Brook's valuable Letters from Europe, have already been published without interfering with its news and miscellaneous reading. The Courier is the largest and cheapest family newspaper ever issued in this country, containing articles in Literature, Science, and Arts: Internal Improvement; Agriculture; in short every variety of topics usually introduced into a public journal. For this small sum subscribers get valuable and entertaining matter, each week, enough to fill a common book of 200 pages, and equal to 52 volumes a year, and which is estimated to read, weekly, by at least two hundred thousand people, scattered in all parts of the country, from Maine to Florida, and from the sea board to the lakes. The paper has been now so long established as to render it too well known to require an extended prospectus; the known to require an extended prospectus; the satisfacts, therefore, will do no more than 20 It is accompanied by the Journal of publishers, therefore, will do no more than refer to the two leading daily political papers of opposite politics. The New York Star says-"we know of nothing more liberal on the pirt of the editors, and no means more efficacious to draw out the dormant talents of our country, than their unexampled libe-

The Albany Mercury of March 16th, 1936, says, "the Saturday Courier, is decidedly the best Family Newspaper ever published in this or any other country, and its value is duly appreciated by the public, if we may judge n its vast circulation, which exceeds 25 000 per week. Its contents are agrecably varied, and each number contains more real ly valuable "reading matter" than is published in a week in any daily paper in the Union. Its mammoth dimensions enable its enter-prising proprietors, Messrs. WOODWARD & CLARKE, of Philadeiphia, to re-publish in its columns, in the course of a year, several of the most interesting new works that issue from the British press; which cannot fail to give to it a permanent interest, and render it worthy of preservation. To meet the wishes therefore, of such of their subscribers as desire to have their numbers bound, they determined on issuing an edition of the Courier in the quarto form. which will render it convenient for reading when it is bound in a volume, and thus greatly enhance
