VOL. XTII.

ANNAPOLIS, THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 23, 1837.

Printed and Published by JONAS GREEN, At the Brick Building on the Public Circle.

Price-Three Dollars per annum.

26,000 SUBSCRIBERS! PHILADELPHIA MIRROR.

I HE splendid patronage awarded to the Philadelphia Saturday Courier, induces the editors to commence the publication, un-der the above title, of a quarto edition of their popular journal, so long known as the largest Family Newspaper in the United States, with a list of near TWENTY-SIX THOUSAND part of the Union. SUBSCRIBERS.—The new feature recent.

3. The postage ly introduced of furnishing their readers with new books of the best literature of the day, having proved so eminently successful, the plan will be continued. Six volumes of the celebrated writings of Captain Marryatt, and sixty five of Mr. Brook's valuable Letters from Europe, have already been published without interfering with its news and miscellaneous reading. The Courier is the largest and cheapest family newspaper ever issued in this country, containing articles in Literature, Science, and Arts: Internal Improvements Agriculture; in short every variety of topics usually introduced into a public journal. Giving full accounts of sales, markets, and news of the latest dates.

It is published at the low price of S2. For this small sum subscribers get valuable and entertaining matter, each week, enough to fill a common book of 200 pages, and equal to 52 volumes a year, and which is estimated to be read, weekly, by at least two hundred thousand people, scattered in all parts of the country, from Maine to Florida, and from the sea board to the lakes. The paper has been now so long established as to render it too well known to require an extended prospectus; the publishers, therefore, will do no more than refer to the two leading daily political papers of opposite politics. The Pennsylvanian says—The Saturday Courier is the largest, and one of the best family newspapers in the Union;" the other, the Inquirer and Daily Courier, says, bit is the largest journal published in Philadelphia, and one of the very best in the United States." The New York Star says-"we know of nothing more liberal on the pirt of the editors, and no means more efficacious to draw out the dormant talents four country, than their unexampled liberality in offering literary puzes."

The Albany Mercury of March 16th, 1836, the Athany Mercury of March 16th, 1836, says, othe Saturday Courier, is decidedly the best Family Newspaper ever published in this or any other country, and its value is duly appreciated by the public, if we may judge from its vast circulation, which exceeds 25, 000 per week. Its contents are agreeably varied, and each number contains more real ly valuable "reading matter" than is publish l in a week in any daily paper in the Union Its mammoth dimensions enable its enter prising proprietors, Messrs. Woodward & Clarke, of Philadelphia, to re-publish in its columns, in the course of a year, several of the most interesting new works that issue from the British press; which cannot fail to give to it a permanent interest, and render it orthy of preservation. To meet the wishes, therefore, of such of their subscribers as de sire to have their numbers bound, they have determined on issuing an edition of the Cou rier in the quarto form, which will render it much more convenient for reading when it is bound in a volume, and thus greatly enhance

THE QUARTO EDITION. Under the title of the PHILADELPHIA MIRion, will commence with the publication of the Prize Tale, to which was awarded the prize of $100, written by Miss Leslie, editor of the splendid Annual the Token, and author tributions to American Literature. A large number of songs, poems, tales, &c. offered in competition for the $500 premiums, will add value and interest to the succeeding numbers, which will also be enriched by a story fro Miss Sedgwick, author of Hore Leslie, The Linwoods, &c., whose talents have been so justly and extensively appreciated, both at home and abroad.

This approved FAMILY NEWSPAPER. is strictly neutral in religious and political matters, and the uncompromising opponent of quackery of every kind.

MAPS.

In addition to all of which the publishers intend furnishing their patrons with a scries of engraved Maps, embracing the twenty-five States of the Union, &c exhibiting the situa tion, &c. of rivers, towns, mountains, lakes the sea board, internal improvements, as dis played in canals, rail roads, &c., with other lateresting and useful features, roads, distances, &c. forming a complete Arlas for general use and information. Fundamely executed, and each distinct map on a large quarto sheet. to sheet, at an expense which nothing but the splendid patronage which for six years past has been so generously extended to them, could warrant.
