HE splended patronage awarded to the Philadelphia Saturday Courier, induces the editors to commence the publication, un der the above title, of a quarto edition of their popular parnal, so long known as the largest Foully Newspaper in the United States, with a list of near TWENTY-SIX THOUSAND part of the Union. SUBSCRIBERS .- The new feature recent ly introduced of furnishing their readers with ew books of the best literature of the day. having proved so eminently successful, the having proved so emimently successfur, the plan will be continued. Six volumes of the celebrated writings of Captain Marryatt, and sixty five of Mr. Brook's valuable Letters from Europe, have already been published without interfering with its news and miscel lancous reading. The Courier is the largest laneous reading.

and cheapest faintly newspaper ever issued in this country, containing articles in Literature, Science, and Artsz Internal Improvement; Agriculture; in short every variety of topics i usually introduced into a public journal. Giving full accounts of sales, markets, and news

It is published at the low price of $2. For this small sum subscribers get valuable and entertaining matter, each week, enough to fill a common book of 200 pages, and equal to 52 volumes a year, and which is estimated to beread, weekly, by at least two hundred thus and people, scattered in all parts of the courtry, from Maine to Florida, and from the sea ward to the lakes. The paper has been news doing established as to render it too well known to require an extende prospectus; the problems, therefore, will do no more than refer to the two leading daily political papers of apposite politics. The Pennsylvanian sign of the Saturday Courier is the largest, I mae of the best family newspapers in the and one of the oest framity newspapers in the Union? the other, the Inquirer and Daily Corner, says, but is the largest journal published in Philadelphia, and one of the very best rathe United States." The New York Star ars---we know of nothing more liberal on report of the editors, and no means more charious to siraw out the dormant talents ar country, than their unexampled libe ty in offering literary prizes."

The Airany Mercury of March 16th, 1936. sies, othe Saturday Courier, is decidedly the best Family Newspaper ever published in this or any other country, and its value is delappreciated by the public, if we may from its vast circulation, which exceeds 25, no per week. Its contents are agreeably vined, and each number contains more realvalua de "ceading matter" than is publishin a week in any daily paper in the Union. Its mammath dimensions enable its enter-LARKE, of Philadelphia, to re-publish in its columns, in the course of a year, several of the most interesting new works that issue from the British press; which cannot fail to give to it a permanent interest, and render it worthy of preservation. To meet the wishes, therefore, of such of their subscribers as de sire to have their numbers bound, they have determined on issuing an edition of the tier in the quarto form, which will render it convenient for reading when it is bentin a volume, and thus greatly enhance
