Our Annual Fair which was held on the 9th of February, succeeded beyond our expectations-its success fully evincing the patronage of a generous community abides with our society, and will make the future to be as the past, and still more abundant in its favours. One of our little number has been removed by death; one too, whose liberal han I and benevolent heart were kindly open to the calls of charity, but we are comforted with eternal gain. We too are passing away; let us therefore do now "whatever our hand findeth to do with all cur might." Permit us, in conclusion, to urge upon you the importance of con inued effort and patient perseverance in this g , d cause, relying for success and guidance upon that unerring Hand which has brought us under such favourable auspices to the pr sent periale
