epigrammatic diction characteristic of that writer. On examining them more critically, he saw that many turns of expression and phrases were precisely or nearly the same, and that the general character of the hand writing corresponded with the facsimile of the hand writing of Junius, which were published in 1812, by Woodfall. The letters were signed "Lachlan Maclean." The question then occurred, who was this Lachlan Maclean?
The question is thus answered: He was the son of a Presbyterian clergyman, and was bred to the study of medicine, but became a political writer and adventurer in London, and rose to some eminence. He was once Under Secretary of State, in which capacity he might have become acquainted with State secrets. Having been sent out to India by Government, in 1776, he was shipwrecked and drowned on the passage; a circumstance that may account for the non-revelation of the secret as to the authorship of Junius. His papers were all lost at the same time.

SPONTANEOUS COMBUSTION.
A case of spontaneous combustion occurred at Philadelphia last week, which may be cited to put housekeepers on their guard. The National Gazette gives the following account of the phenomenon:—
"On Sunday morning last, about one o'clock, a lady living in Arch, near Eleventh street, in Philadelphia, who was sitting up with her sick husband, was surprised by the sudden bursting out of a flame on the dressing table, on which she had a quire of letter paper, and on the top of it a news paper. The reflection of the flame from the looking glass made the whole table at first appear to be in a blaze. Although very much alarmed at so unexpected and unaccountable an occurrence, she had the presence of mind to take up the burning mass of paper on the shovel and throw it into a tub of water which stood near. With the same instrument she smoothed the blaze which had communicated to the ornate table cover, and the varnish of the table. The only light in the room at the time was a small floating taper, which stood on a stand several feet from the dressing case.— When she had sufficiently recovered from her surprise to investigate the cause of this singular occurrence, she recollected that on the Thursday before she had spread a rag with sweet oil for a blister, and had left it for few moments on the dressing table, which had occasioned a great spot on the cover. The papers lay on or near this spot. At 9 o'clock on Saturday night a peculiar empyreumatic smell had been perceived in the room, but the source of it had not been suspected. No doubt the process of combustion had been going on slowly for some time in the cloth and letter paper, until a rising of the air, it burst into a flame in the newspaper. May not many fires, which have been considered the works of incendiaries, have originated from a similar cause?"

CINCINNATI, April 3.
LONGEVITY.
There is now living, in Crosby town in this county, an old gentleman, Mr. Oliver Hays, who was 102 years old in August last. His health is good, having never known a day's sickness.
He draws a pension, and generally walks into town, 25 miles, to receive it, and walks out, next day, to the residence of one of his grandsons, and returns home at his leisure. His wife is also still living, about 100 years old. This account is from his grandson.

ST. MARY'S HALL.
GREEN BANK, BURLINGTON, NEW JERSEY, FOR THE EDUCATION OF YOUNG LADIES,
UNDER THE IMMEDIATE SUPERVISION OF THE BISHOP OF THE DIOCESE.

THE institution will be opened, with divine permission, on Wednesday, the third day of May, under the charge of the Rev. ASA EXROS, D. D., as Chaplain and Head of the Family, Mrs. SUSAN EXROS, as Matron, and Miss ELLEN ROTTON, as Principal Teacher, with assistant Teachers in the several departments. No pupil will be admitted for less than a year.

The scholastic year is divided into a Summer term, and a Winter term, of twenty-two weeks each; the former, commencing on the first Wednesday in May, and the latter on the first Wednesday in November. There will be two vacations, of four weeks each, next preceding the days just named.

The regular expenses for each term, including boarding and lodging, with fuel and lights, and instruction in all the English branches, the ancient languages, palmistry, plain sewing and the domestic economy, will be one hundred dollars, payable always in advance.
From this charge, twenty five per cent will be deducted, for daughters of clergymen of the Church. Full courses of lectures in Natural Philosophy and Chemistry with a complete apparatus, and also in Botany, will be delivered annually, in addition to the instruction in those branches. There will be a charge of six dollars for each term, for the use of bed, bedstead, bedding and towels. Washing will be charged at fifty cents a dozen.
Books and stationery will be furnished at usual prices. There will be provided, for the use of the Institution a Library, selected especially for the use of the Teachers and Pupils.
Pupils who remain will be charged $12.50 for each of the two vacations. A distinct number of days scholars will be received.

The following will be charges additional to the above,—for instruction in the French language, $7.50 a quarter, (of eleven weeks), —in the German, Italian, and Spanish, $10 a quarter; for special instruction, on the Piaono, with use of instrument, $15 a quarter—on the Harp, with use of instrument, $25 a quarter—$10 a quarter; for instruction in drawing and painting, $8 a quarter,—and in fancy work, $5 a quarter.

All monies for the use of pupils must be entrusted to the Head of the Family; under whose direction all purchases are to be made, and all expenses incurred. Advances must be made to meet all cash expenditures. Parents will designate the additional branches which are to be pursued.

Attention is particularly requested to the following points,—thoroughness in study and exactness in department will be expected of all who desire to continue pupils of the institution; the branches proper to be pursued by each must be left to the discretion of the Principal Teacher—no pupil to bring to the institution any but devotional and school books—plainness and simplicity in dress, and a just economy in expenditure, will be expected in all, as members of a Christian family.

In its entire organization, St. Mary's Hall is designed to be a Christian household; and the aim will be, by the continual application of domestic influences on Christian principles, to form and to accomplish the domestic character. It is the object of the Institution—and nothing will be spared for its accomplishment—to promote to the utmost the physical, intellectual, and spiritual improvement of the pupils entrusted to it; and, training them all up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord, to render them, by the due cultivation of the mind, the manners, and the heart, true Christian ladies, prepared, through grace, for usefulness and influence here, and for glory, honour and immortality hereafter.

All communications must be addressed to the Rev. ASA EXROS, D. D., Chaplain and Head of the Family, of St. Mary's Hall, Burlington, New Jersey.
Burlington March 6, 1837. 3w.

From the Rev. Dr. Tappan, Rector of the Church of the Epiphany, Philadelphia.
The information which I have received, that the Rev. Dr. EXROS, of Boston, and his lady, are to be the united head of the household in St. Mary's Hall, your new school for the education of young ladies, has induced me to offer you, for any purpose which it may serve, in promoting the interests of the Institution, this spontaneous expression of my feelings.— In Boston and its vicinity, there would be far more propriety, in my acknowledging it to him.— In this section of the country, perhaps, my residence here may give me some advantages, which he does not possess.— Allow me, therefore to say, wherever I am known, and he is a stranger, that I have known him intimately from my childhood, and have reverenced him, as many beside have done, as an important light for the Episcopal Church in the time of its desolation, and as the friend and preparation for the ministry, as he was in my respects to myself.— Parents may confide in the certainty, that whatever long tried piety, and moderate calm, and Christian manners, and an affectionate, tender and parental spirit, can do for the benefit of their daughters, they will find in entrusting them to the care of the most respectable connections in her native city; and by her education and manners, and the class of society to which she has been accustomed—as well as by her piety and domestic character—will be found in a high degree qualified for the maternal care of the interesting subjects of her charge. I am of opinion, that no similar Institution can present, as far as the heads of the family are concerned for I am unacquainted with the arrangements for the department of instruction—superior advantages for those young ladies, for whom Christian seek a Christian Parents education.

From the Rev. Dr. Eastburn, Rector of the Church of the Ascension, New York.
Right Rev. and Dear Sir.—In reply to your request, that I would state to you my opinion of the character and qualifications of Miss ROTTON and her sister, it gives me pleasure to say, that, from testimonials submitted to me, I have been brought to the conviction, that they would prove an invaluable acquisition to any establishment for female education, in which they might be placed: With both of these ladies, my acquaintance is but of a recent date. The elder of them, however, whom you have selected as the Principal Teacher of St. Mary's Hall, I have had an opportunity of seeing once or twice lately; and have learned enough from these interviews to say with confidence, that you will find in her not only a lady of great accomplishments, but one fitted, by the superior delicacy and refinement of her manners, and by her unostentatious but deep toned piety, to exert the most salutary influence upon all entrusted to her care. I think it right to state, that these ladies received their education at a school of great celebrity at Clifton, in England; the advantages of which, though, perhaps, not generally known in this country, will be properly appreciated by all who are acquainted with its character.— That these highly esteemed persons may prove an extensive blessing, in the new sphere of action which they have selected, is the prayer of yours very respectfully and truly.

SUBSCRIPTION OF
THE CULTIVATOR,
A MONTHLY PUBLICATION, COMPRISING 200 PAGES IN A VOLUME, DEVOTED TO THE IMPROVEMENT OF THE SOIL AND THE MIND.

THE Conductor tenders his acknowledgments to gentlemen, for their kind offices in extending the circulation of the Cultivator, and respectfully solicits the continuance of their good will. Putting out of the question our personal contributions, of the merits of which it does not become us to speak, we venture to say, there is no product of its price, that contains more matter directly useful to the great agricultural interest, than is to be found in the columns of the Cultivator. One volume contains as much matter, by printer's computation, as five ordinary duodecimos, which sell at 75 to 125 cents each. If, then, as we believe, the paper is both cheap and useful, and calculated to promote improvement in the business of husbandry, every gentleman may benefit his community, by a moderate effort to extend its circulation. We plead not for ourselves, but for the great interest which it is our pride and pleasure to serve.

The entire Series of the Cultivator will be sent in order, at 50 cts. the volume, stitched, or $2 for the three volumes bound together. 11 vols. for $5.
Subscriptions to the above work received by
A. COWAN,
Annapolis.
