A NEW AND CHEAP PERIODICAL.

Attention is requested from our readers to the following prospectus of a new, and even a cheaper book periodical, which will be issued from this office in the first week of next January. It will not be in so convenient a form for binding as the present, with which it will in no way interfere, but it will make books cheap beyond all precedent. It will contain the works of the day, which are much sought after, but are comparatively dear, and which cannot penetrate the interior in any mode half so rapidly as by mail, in which volumes of books are prohibited. A fifty cent American reprint will be furnished entire for from four to six cents; a Marryat novel for twelve cents, and others in proportion.

As but very few copies will be printed but what are actually subscribed for, those who wish the Omnibus, must make their remittances at once.

Books at Newspaper Postage.

WALDIE'S LITERARY OMNIBUS.

NOVEL AND IMPORTANT LITERARY ENTERPRISE!

NOVELS, TALES, BIOGRAPHY, VOYAGES, TRAVELS, REVIEWS, AND THE NEWS OF THE DAY.

It was one of the great objects of "Waldie's Literary," "to make good reading cheaper, and to bring literature to every man's door." That object has been accomplished; we have given to books wings, and they have flown to the uttermost parts of our vast continent, carrying society to the sequestered hamlet, and rendering the access to a literary banquet more than twofold accessible; we gave and shall continue to give in the quarto library a volume weekly for two cents a day; we now propose to give a volume in the same period for less than four cents a week, and to add as a piquant seasoning to the dish a few columns of shorter literary matters, and a summary of the news and events of the day. We know by experience and calculation that we can go still further in the matter of reduction, and we feel that there is still verge enough for us to aim at offering to an increasing literary appetite that mental food which it craves.

The Select Circulating Library, now as ever so great a favourite, will continue to make its weekly visits, and to be issued in a form for binding and preservation, and its price and form will remain the same. But we shall, in the first week of January 1837, issue a huge sheet of the size of the largest newspapers of America, but on very superior paper, also filled with books of the newest and most entertaining, though in their several departments of Novels, Tales, Voyages, Travels, &c., select in their character, joined with reading such as usually should fill a weekly newspaper. By this method we hope to accomplish a great good; to enlighten and enlighten the family circle, and to give to it, at an expense which shall be no consideration to any, a mass of reading that in book form would alarm the pockets of the prudent, and to do it in a manner that the most sceptical shall acknowledge "the power of concentration can no farther go." No book which appears in Waldie's Quarto Library will be an entirely distinct periodical.

TERMS.

WALDIE'S LITERARY OMNIBUS will be issued every Friday morning, printed on paper of a quality superior to any other weekly sheet, and of the largest size. It will contain,

1st. Books, the newest and the best that can be procured, equal every week to a London duodecimo volume, embracing Novels, Travels, Memoirs, &c., and only chargeable with newspaper postage.

2d. Literary Reviews, Tales, Sketches, notices of books, and information from "the world of letters," of every description.

3d. The news of the week concentrated to a small compass, but in a sufficient amount to embrace a knowledge of the principal events, political and miscellaneous, of Europe and America.

The price will be two dollars to clubs of five subscribers where the paper is forwarded to one address. To clubs of two individuals, five dollars; single mail subscribers, three dollars. The discount on uncurrent money will be charged to the remitter; the low price and superior paper absolutely prohibit paying a discount.

On no condition will a copy ever be sent until the payment is received in advance.

As the arrangements for the prosecution of this great literary undertaking are all made, and the proprietor has redeemed all his pledges to a generous public for many years, no fear of the non-fulfillment of the contract can be felt. The Omnibus will be regularly issued, and will contain in a year reading matter equal in amount to two volumes of Rice's Cyclopaedia, for the small sum mentioned above.

Address, post paid,
ADAM WALDIE,
46 Carpenter St. Philadelphia.
Editors throughout the Union, and Canada, will confer a favour by giving the above one or more conspicuous insertions, and accepting the work for a year as compensation.

boats might be kept in trim, the Phillips especially, being so light that the weight of four or five men would careen her over like a canoe. The highest excitement prevailed. The Franklin no longer regarded the delivery of the mail, and had Mr. Kendall's penalty been ten-fold greater, it would not have weighed a feather. The river in front of the boats, from the light of the furnaces, seemed a sheet of fire, while the sky continued overclouded with the dense volumes of smoke which poured forth from the chimneys. Sometimes the Franklin would shoot ahead. Our very breaths were held in suspense. Then would the Phillips recover her ground, and pass her adversary an equal distance. The cheers which had been sent forth a minute before were now returned with hearty good will, and a determination to triumph, mixed with many horrid imprecations, was belched forth by the crews of both vessels. In passing Petersburg, the boats struck with a more violent concussion than before; the alarm of the ladies increased; the captain of the Phillips was besought to desist, and assured that the ladies in question, from their constitutional nervousness, could not survive the excitement. Captain McClain yielded to their importunities, and in passing the point above the town just named bore away and left the channel to the Franklin, while a hearty cheer, followed by a gun, resounded from the latter. On board the Franklin it is said the ladies were even more alarmed. Canphor, ammonia, and all the restoratives on board drew around in profusion until the cabin resembled a chemical laboratory.

ARRIVAL AT CINCINNATI.
The Phillips fell in the rear of the Franklin, as above related, twenty five miles below Cincinnati. She maintained her distance to port, and came in three lengths astern at ten minutes past one, having performed the run in 13 hours and 35 minutes—150 miles.

PHILADELPHIA, June 5, 1837.

Escape of Prisoners.—Yesterday morning between the hours of eight and nine, some male prisoners in the House of Refuge, seized a favourable moment, knocked down the keeper, opened the gates—and nearly forty of the inmates effected their escape. As soon as they arrived without the walls of the prison, they all ran together in one direction for some distance creating excitement and alarm by the cry of—Mad Dog! Mad Dog!

Two of the prisoners divided from the main body, and were chased to the banks of the Schuylkill, where they plunged into the water, swam across, and thus eluded pursuit. We have not heard whether any of the fugitives were taken. The keeper who was knocked down, was not, as we understand, seriously injured, but on recovering himself, expressed the greatest astonishment at the sudden depopulation of his dominions. He raised the "hue and cry" as soon as possible.

INCENDIARY CAUGHT.
A barn belonging to Mr. Daniel Morey, of Stillwater, Mass., was, together with four horses, consumed by fire on the 20th inst. A villain by the name of Bortle has confessed the fact of his being the incendiary. B., together with another by the name of Sheffer, are now in that village. The loss of Mr. Morey is said to amount about to $1,900.

LATEST FROM FLORIDA—MORE MUR-DERS.

A letter received in this city by J. Stony, from Garey's Ferry, says, that on Monday last, some teamsters arrived at that place and report that a baggage train returning from Fort Mellon to Tampa Bay, had been attacked by a body of Indians and the wagon master, (one of the late South Carolina militia) was killed, with two teamsters, and some inhabitants in the neighborhood, who had returned to their plantations, supposing the war was at an end.

IMPORTANT FROM FLORIDA.

OFFICE OF THE COURIER,
CHARLESTON, June 1—5 P. M.
LATEST FROM FLORIDA.—From a passenger arrived yesterday on board the steamboat John Stony, which left Black creek on Monday last, we learn that intelligence has been received there that an expedition, under Lieutenant R. M. PEXTON, of the army, had been undertaken from Ft. Monroe to the upper part of the St. John's river; that Lieut. PEXTON had discovered a large lake, heretofore unknown to the whites; the Indians were cultivating large fields of corn, that twelve negroes (the property of Colonel Rice) having discovered this camp of Lieut. P., had come in and give themselves up. The negroes state the Indians did not intend to emigrate, but would re-commence hostilities in a few weeks; and that Powell (who has been represented to the contrary by all the other Indians who have come into Gen. Jesup's camp) is a man without influence among his people. We understand that the fact is otherwise, and that Powell is a chief of much influence with his tribe.

DESTRUCTIVE CONFLAGRATION.
The beautiful village of Suffolk has suffered from a most destructive conflagration. It broke out on Saturday morning at the lower part of the village, and gained in spite of every effort, consuming the Court House, Jail, and a number of stores and dwellings. The loss is very heavy, and but slightly insured.—About FIFTY DWELLING HOUSES consumed.

NAVAL.
The U. S. Ship Macdonian, dropped down from the Navy Yard to the Naval anchorage below the forts on Saturday afternoon.

Lieuts. Miller, Smeas and Allen, and Dr. Russell of the Army, and Lt. Stallings, U. S. N. late of the Schr. Grampus, came passengers in the South Carolina.

FROM THE SOUTH.

By the arrival yesterday morning of the steam packet South Carolina from Charleston we have the papers of that city of Friday. The Indians, it was feared, were playing their old game of deceit and treachery, and were playing shy till the moment of striking a blow had arrived. Some thought more favorably of their intentions, but Gen. Jesup is probably well aware of the character of those he must deal with. The U. S. Squadron had not sailed from Pensacola at the latest dates. It was to have sailed on the 25th ult.

NAVAL.

The West India squadron is expected to sail on the 25th inst. for the Gulf of Mexico. It consists of the Frigate Constellation, Com. A. J. Dallas. Sloops of war Concord, M. Mix, Com'r. Natchez, W. Mervine, Commander. St. Louis, Thos. Paine, Commander. Boston, Fred. Engle, Lieut. Com'g. Schr. Grampus, J. M. McIntosh Lt. Com'g. Th. U. S. steamer America, Lieut. and Com'g. S. Johnson, arrived here yesterday from Tampa; no news of consequence. The Indians came in slowly, and did not bring their rifles nor women and children; after remaining at the camp some time, they would go out under the pretence of bringing them in.

To the Voters of Anne-Arundel County.

Gentlemen:—I have been induced by what I believe to be the wishes of a large portion of the people of this county, and more particularly of the Sixth Election District, to offer myself as a Candidate to represent you in the next General Assembly of the State. The peculiar circumstances of the times, the political situation of our county, and the inflated state of party spirit, which, forgetting its legitimate object, seeks now only the aggrandizement of its votaries, seem imperiously to demand that an effort should be made to place the guardianship of our public affairs in the care of those whose only object and motive can be the faithful performance of that trust. If therefore, I should be elected at the coming election, I shall proceed to the seat of government, untrammelled by party pledges, party engagements, or party views, and with the single determination of promoting the interest of the county, and the honour and welfare of the State.

SUBSCRIPTION FOR VOL. IV OF
THE CULTIVATOR,

A MONTHLY PUBLICATION, COMPRISING 200 PAGES IN A VOLUME, DEVOTED TO THE IMPROVEMENT OF THE SOIL AND THE MIND.

The Conductor tenders his acknowledgments to gentlemen, for their kind offices in extending the circulation of the CULTIVATOR, and respectfully solicits the continuance of their good will. Putting out of the question our personal contributions, of the merits of which it does not become us to speak, we venture to say, there is no periodical of its price, that contains more matter directly useful to the great agricultural interest, than it is to be found in the columns of the CULTIVATOR. One volume contains as much matter, by printer's computation, as five ordinary doledecims, which sell at 75 to 125 cents each. If, then, as we believe, the paper is both cheap and useful, and calculated to promote improvement in the business of husbandry, every gentleman may be neft his community, by a moderate effort to extend its circulation. We plead not for ourselves, but for the great interest which it is our pride and pleasure to serve.

The entire Series of the Cultivator will be sent to order, at 50 cts. the volume, attached, or 82 for the three volumes bound together. 11 vols. for $5.
