To the Voters of Anne-Arundel County.

I have been induced by what I believe to be the wishes of a large portion of the people of this county, and more particularly of the Sixth Election District, to offer myself as a Candidate of the State. The peculiar argumbly of the State. The peculiar circumstances of the State. The peculiar circumstances of the times, the political situation of our county. and the inflamed state of party spirot, which, forgetting its legiturate object, seeks new only the aggrandizement of its votories, seem anger riously to demand that an effort should be made. Deposit or Evidences of Debt to be issued in to place the guardianship of our public affairs virtue of this by-law, shall upon their face in the care of those whose only object and motive can be the faithful performance of that trust. If therefore, I should be elected at the coming election, I shall proceed to the seat of government, untrammelled by party pleages party engagements, or party views, and with the single determination of promoting the interest of the county, and the honour and welf of the State.

Earthquake.—The French papers say that a Earthquake.—The French papers say that a letter of the 15th inst., from Trieste states that a vessel just arrived from Greece brought news of an earthquake which had caused frightful devastation in that country. Forty houses had been thrown down at Hydra. The little island of Poros was half opened, and half the island of Santorine, said to owe its existence to a volcanic cruption, had completely disappeared, by which from 4 to 5000 lives are lost. The continent is not much injured.
