FOREIGN.

FROM ENGLAND.

By the packet ship Roscoe, Captain DeLano, from Liverpool, whence she sailed on the 24th of June, we have a Liverpool paper of that date. It contains very full accounts of the ceremonies attendant upon the proclamation of Queen Victoria. We have also, a London Times of the 23d June.

Her Majesty's first court was held at Kensington palace on the day of the late King's death, and was attended by more than a hundred of his late majesty's privy council, and by the lord mayor and a deputation from the city. A privy council was held, at which most of the privy councillors were re-sworn.

The members of the royal family, the archbishops, and the other privy councillors, afterwards signed the proclamation.

Her Majesty's First Act and Declaration with respect to the Church, and the Church of Scotland.

The Queen gave audience, on the same day, to Lord Melbourne. The following declaration was issued:

At the Court of Kensington, the 20th day of June, 1837, present, the Queen's most excellent majesty in council.

Her Majesty being this day present in council, was pleased to make the following declaration, viz:

"The severe and afflictive loss which the nation has sustained by the death of his majesty, my beloved uncle, has devolved upon me the duty of administering the government of this empire. This awful responsibility is imposed upon me so suddenly, and at so early a period of my life, that I should feel myself utterly oppressed by the burden, were I not sustained by the hope that Divine Providence, which has called me to this work, will give me strength for the performance of it, and that I shall find in the purity of my intentions, and in my zeal for the public welfare, that support and those resources which usually belong to a more mature age, and to a longer experience.

"I place my firm reliance upon the wisdom of Parliament, and upon the loyalty and affection of my people. I esteem it also a peculiar advantage that I succeeded to a sovereign whose constant regard for the rights and liberties of his subjects, and whose desire to promote the melioration of the laws and institutions of the country, have rendered his name the object of general attachment and veneration.

"Educated in England, under the tender and enlightened care of a most affectionate mother, I have learned from my infancy to respect and love the constitution of my native country.

"It will be my unceasing study to maintain the reformed religion as by law established, securing at the same time to all the full enjoyment of religious liberty; and I shall steadily protect the rights and promote to the utmost of my power the happiness and welfare of all classes of my subjects."

Whereupon the lords of the council made it their humble request to her Majesty, that her Majesty's most gracious declaration to their lordships might be made public, which her Majesty was pleased to order accordingly.

C. G. GREVILLE.

The Duke of Cumberland, now become King of Hanover, (the salique law prevailing in that part of the British King's dominions) proceeded to Kensington palace in the course of the morning, to attend the council, and was hoisted by the people on his return. He was the first to take the oath of allegiance to the Queen his niece.

The proclamation was made on Wednesday, the 21st. The Queen was loudly cheered by the populace, when she presented herself, in mourning, at the windows of the presence chamber of St. James' palace. The Queen has dropped her first name Alexandria, and will use the signature of Victoria, mercly.

The funeral was to take place on Thursday, the 6th of July. A post mortem examination was made; the symptoms were dropsy in the chest and enlargement of the heart.

In the House of Lords on the 22d, a message from the Queen was read by the Lord Chancellor. It was short, and merely stated, after a brief allusion to the death of the King, that the state of the public business, and the period of the session, considered in connexion with the duty imposed upon her by law, of summoning a new Parliament within six months, made it inexpedient to recommend any new measures for adoption by the House of Commons, except such as should be necessary for carrying on the public business during the interval between the sessions. A message in reply was agreed to, and also one of condolence to the Queen-dowager.

The same proceedings took place in the other house.

The conservative papers speak very confidently as to the line of conduct to be expected from the Queen. The Times rejects that symptoms of a high-minded and courageous nature in the young sovereign have already exhibited themselves, affording hope of sagacity to penetrate, and firmness to defeat the schemes of the enemies to the throne and country—that is, the whigs.

It was observed at the first privy council, that she did not give any token of recognition to any of the persons assembled, except her royal uncles.

The Times says very little about money matters, remarking that all public interest is engrossed by the death of the King, the accession of the Queen, the ceremonies consequent thereupon, and the political probabilities of the day.

Letters to commercial houses in this city, state that trade is improving, and confidence increasing fast. The packet Columbus arrived at Liverpool on the 20th.

In the House of Commons, on Wednesday the 22d, Sir G. Grey stated in answer to the question, that his late majesty had sanctioned an act passed by the Parliament of Upper Canada, to continue the existence of the House of Assembly, notwithstanding the demise of the crown.

Mr. Forrest was married on the 23d of June, in London, to Miss Catherine Sinclair.

Another child murder took place at Ripon, on the 16th of June. The father, named Marshall, aged 32 years, in a fit of desperation or frenzy, plunged his two children into a tub of water and held them there until they were dead. One was a boy of eight years, the other a girl of eight months. He then placed them on a bed, and gave the alarm himself.

TWO DAYS LATER FROM FRANCE.

By the arrival of the Uca, Captain Pell, from the packet of the 24th June, we are in possession of files of Paris and Havre papers, former to the 23d June, and the latter to the day of sailing.

A resolution of some importance was agreed to in the Chamber of Deputies on the 20th, namely, to defer the consideration of the proposed great lines of rail-road until the next session. This decision appears to have given some dissatisfaction, but on the whole it is thought not unreasonable, considering the variety and importance of the questions to be discussed; among which are, the adoption of a systematized plan for the length, situation and construction of the routes, so as to ensure the widest benefit, the amount of cost for which the government shall become responsible, the privileges to be offered to companies engaging in the project, the rates of toll, &c. A great object with the government is to prevent the stocks from becoming a subject of speculation and jobbing on the Exchange.

The bodies of the unfortunate persons killed at the Champ-de-Mars, were buried on Saturday the 16th, with solemn and public ceremonies. Eleven hearse were employed on the occasion.

A letter from Rouen, dated the 19th, mentions the arrival of forty beautiful orange trees, on their way to England—a present from the Duke of Orleans to the Duke of Sutherland.

In the Chamber of Deputies, on the 22d, M. Mangun renewed his attacks upon the ministry, relative to the treaty with Abd-el-Kader. Count Mole replied briefly, that at the commencement of the next session the ministers would go into particulars, when it would be found that they and General Bugeaud had acted for the best interests of France. There seems to be no doubt that the treaty will be ratified.

The Journal du Havre of the 23d quotes an article from a Paris paper, which it does not name, stating that the Mexican government has applied to that of France to mediate between the Mexican republic and our own, respecting the existing matters of difference, and especially the revolt of the Texans.

Advices from New York to the 1st of June inclusive were received at Havre on the 23d, by the Charles Carroll.

The opposition Paris papers had a great deal to say about the new conspiracy against the life of the King. The ministerial journals treat it as mere matter of moonshine.

On the 22d, a well dressed man threw himself from the top of one of the towers of Notre Dame, and was dashed to pieces.

The Court of Cassation decided on the 21st, that to kill or wound another in a duel, is a crime, of which the law takes cognizance, and on which it is bound to inflict punishment.

The latest accounts from Denmark were, that the king was dying. There are unfortunate reports also, as to the health of Bernadotte, alias the King of Sweden.

Letters from Naples of June 10th, give painful accounts of the ravages committed by the cholera. The Neapolitans were earnestly imploring the assistance of St. Januarius against the disease, and the king, to quicken the saint's zeal, had bestowed upon him the grand cross of the order of St. Ferdinand, and doubled his pay as generalissimo of the army.

AGE OF THE PUBLIC

FOR THE SUCCESS OF HIS GRANDFATHER'S

VEGETABLE

UNIVERSAL PILLS.

THE unprecedented success which has resulted from the adoption of Brandreth's Pills, during a period of upwards of 85 years, the numerous and extraordinary cures which they have performed upon hundreds of individuals whom they have rescued from almost inevitable death, after they had been pronounced incurable by the most eminent of the faculty—justly Dr Brandreth, the proprietor of this Vegetable Universal Medicine, in warmly and conscientiously recommending it to the especial notice of the public.

Dr. Brandreth wishes mankind to consider this truth, that health solely depends on the state of purity in which the blood is kept, every part of the body being supplied daily with new blood from the food consumed, consequently, according to the purity of that blood, so must the state of the body be more or less healthy. To obtain therefore, the most direct purifier of the blood, is a question of no little importance to every individual.

That Brandreth's Pills are the most direct purifiers of the blood, there will be no doubt when it is considered that they have gained their present very extensive sale by their own intrinsic merit; proved by the numerous cures which they have accomplished in every variety of disease.

The peculiar action of these pills is most surprising; their operations being more or less powerful according to the purity of the circulating fluid. On a person in a fair state of health, who is only constive or slightly bilious, they will be scarcely felt; on the contrary, if the complaint be chronic, and the constitution be much deranged, the effect generally at first is most powerful, until the system be freed from some of its most vitiated and urgent humours. This accomplished, doses sufficient to cause two or three copious evacuations daily, will soon remove the disease, and the constitution will be restored to a state of health and renewed vigor.

As a general Family Medicine, these Pills stand unrivalled. In many of the lingering complaints also, with which the human system is afflicted, they have been highly successful. The use of a few boxes will, in most cases, convince the patient of their beneficial properties. Indeed, a fair trial is all that is needed in their recommendation.

Beware of COUNTERFEITS. If you want the GENUINE Medicine be sure and keep clear of DRUG STORES. No DRUGGIST or APOTHECARY sells the GENUINE BRANDRETH PILLS. Ask to see the Certificate of Agency. All the regularly appointed Agents have one. Price of Pills 25 cents the Box, with full directions.

SECURITY AGAINST COUNTERFEITS.

DR. BRANDRETH has adopted the following plan to secure the GENUINE Brandreth Pills to the public. Every authorized agent must have the following Certificate of Agency, and it will be seen that a double forgery MUST be committed before any one can procure a forged certificate, and the person having it in his possession is equally liable with the forger. No one will chance ten years in the State Prison, for the sale of a box of counterfeit Brandreth Pills; at least I hope so.

Green, of Baltimore, is my appointed General Agent for the State of Maryland, Virginia, and District of Columbia, in the United States of America; and this letter, which is signed by me, Benjamin Brandreth, in my own hand writing—must also be signed by the within named General Agent, whose name will also appear in the principal papers of the United States.—This caution has become absolutely necessary to guard the public against the numerous counterfeit pills which are out of the above popular Medicine.
