DR. BRANDRETH WANTS NO COLLEGE, NO INSTITUTION, NO MONOPOLY, NO CHARTER, HE BEING QUITE SATISFIED TO REST ON THE PATRONAGE OF HIS PUBLIC FOR THE SUCCESS OF HIS GRANDFATHER'S VEGETABLE UNIVERSAL PILLS. THE unprecedented success which has resulted from the adoption of Brandreth's Pills, during a period of upwards of 85 years, the numerous and extraordinary cures which they have performed upon hundreds of individuals whom they have rescued from almost inevitable death, after they had been pronounced incurable by the best eminent of the faculty—justly Dr. Brandreth, the proprietor of this Vegetable Universal Medicine, in warily and conscientiously recommending it to the especial notice of the public.

Dr. Brandreth wishes mankind to consider this truth, that health solely depends on the state of purity in which the blood is kept, every part of the body being supplied daily with new blood from the food consumed, consequently, according to the purity of that blood, so must the state of the body be more or less healthy. To obtain therefore, the most direct purifier of the blood, is a question of no little importance to every individual.

That Brandreth's Pills are the most direct purifiers of the blood, there will be no doubt when it is considered that they have gained their present very extensive sale by their own intrinsic merits, proved by the numerous cures which they have accomplished in every variety of disease.

The peculiar action of these pills is most surprising; their operations being more or less powerful according to the purity of the circulating fluid. On a person in a fair state of health, who is or is not slightly bilious, they will be scarcely felt; on the contrary, if the complaint be chronic, and the constitution be much deranged, the effect generally at first is most powerful, until the system be freed from some of its most vitiated and turbulent humors.

This accomplished evacuant, will soon remove the disease, and the constitution will be restored to a state of health and renewed vigor. As a general Family Medicine, these Pills stand unrivalled. In many of the lingering complaints also, with which the human system is afflicted, they have been highly successful. The use of a few boxes will, in most cases, convince the patient of their beneficial properties. Indeed, a fair trial of all that is needful in their recommendation.

Beware of COUNTERFEITS. If you want the GENUINE Medicine be sure and keep clear of DRUG STORES. No DRUGGIST or APOTHECARY sells the GENUINE BRANDRETH PILLS. Ask to see the Certificate of Agency. All the regularly appointed Agents have one. Price of Pills 25 cents the Box, with full directions.

I certify that the above named Richard Wells is the accredited agent for the Dr. Brandreth's Vegetable Universal Pills in the city of Annapolis. R. R. GREEN, General Agent for Dr. Brandreth for Maryland, Virginia, and District of Columbia. Gm. May 4.

11. 33.

Half an hour elapsed ere Melvil again approached. "The gambler's face was flushed with success; that of Russell was pale and disturbed. He had lost very considerably."

"O more throw for double stakes," cried he, "I have done."

"I've done!" cried Melvil, "I've done!"

"You are wrong," whispered Russell, "you had better apologize; it is a capital shot."

"I was not wrong, and will not apologize," answered Melvil, quietly.

"The latter part of the room, a meeting had been arranged for the following morning by Russell and some friends of Melvil's."

"The south-seer was right," answered Melvil, "I ought not to have entered a gambling room."

"Five persons met early on a damp, misty, gloomy-looking morning, in Batterson fields—they were the duchess, the second and a surgeon, Melvil was cool and collected."

"Will you promise me to give up for ever your fatal pursuit?"

"I will do more—I will swear!" answered Russell.

"The ground was soon measured—the combatants took their place—the signal was given—and, as invariably arranged, both fired together. Melvil remained unharmed—the gambler fell."

"I had calculated Melvil, I have destroyed him!"

"They rushed to the fallen man, and while his second raised his head upon his knees, the surgeon examined the wound. It was in the left side."

"Speak—speak!" exclaimed Melvil, "am I a martyr?"

"Fly! fly! with your best speed, gentlemen," said the surgeon, "the wound is mortal—he cannot live many minutes."

"As the poisoned arrow of the Indian warrior fast in the wound of his enemy, so did this sentence enter into the very heart of Melvil and the restorer and causer his hopes of future happiness. The dying man heard the reply, with assumed fortitude."

"It is well," he said faintly, "may it be just—"

"You, addressing Melvil, you were right—I did use false dice last night but hear my justification, such as it is. I have a wife—children—I shall never behold them more? I love them better than myself. A man of ill-luck had left me penniless, and them starving. Desperation filled my bosom, and I determined, should fortune last night desert me, that I would exchange my favours by employing means which I had previously not even dreamed of. His voice faltered."

"He is dying!" said the surgeon, "fly for your lives gentlemen."

"He who supports the head of Hawkes lowered it gently to the grass, and disappeared—neither of the others moved. The nation of his head appeared to raise the first fading recollections of the unfortunate gambler, but his mind wandered. "Blanch my wife—my sweetest—another chance for my sake!" Thus—through—now give me the box—down go the dice—"

"—once—see!—The game is up! A convulsive contraction of the limbs followed—then a slight shudder—and then the gambler slept peacefully, which knows no waking."

"Russell and Melvil made the fort of Switzer and together, both were melancholy—the latter mer for a season, the latter for ever."

POLITESSE MILITAIRE. At a Military Ball given on a certain occasion in the interior of Alabama, the gentlemen—all officers of course—General such-and-such—Colonel such-and-such—Major such-and-such—so forth and so on—were marvelously polite. For Example: Gen. B.—Ah, my dear Colonel how do you do? (shaking his hand until the epaulettes on each of their shoulders shook lively.) "Come, (striking up to a table)—let us wine."

Col. Z.—Thank you
