and impair the public credit, if it fail to exhaust it." The interest alone on the public debt will be about eight hundred thousand dollars; and in a few years the system of taxation must fall upon the people. The framers of the law know this must be a necessary consequence, and provided in the 16th section "that in case it becomes necessary to levy a direct tax, it shall be laid upon goods, wares, and merchandise, ships and vessels in or out of port, money at interest, bonds and mortgages, stock and public securities of every description, and every other description of property, real, personal, or mixed, and the faith of the state is pledged to levy the same, to provide for the payment of principal and interest to be created by this act, or of debts which may be contracted by any subsequent legislature."
This part of the law shows that the premium was not expected to pay the debt, and that other debts besides those authorized were in contemplation. Indeed it is evident that the system of loans and public debts though rapid in its progress is yet in its commencement. In time of peace a system of general taxation is to be adopted, not for the public defence, but to pay the expenses of the government, but to enable the holders of canal and rail road stocks to carry on their speculations.
The 11th section of the law requires that the governor shall appoint three commissioners, who are directed to proceed to Europe for the purpose of negotiating the loan.
When the canal company borrowed five millions of dollars from the Dutch, one commissioner was enough. When capitalists are about to invest their money, they do not inquire about the number of agents they are to deal with, but what interest they are to receive, and how the whole debt is to be paid. But three commissioners were required by the act of assembly, and appointed by the executive, and they are now visiting the money markets of Europe.— Judge Buchanan sailed in May; General Emory after harvest, and Mr. Peabody, originally from the eastern states, has been some time a resident in England. That the two first named gentlemen should have left the United States, was a subject of surprise, because it was generally known that Mr. Peabody had stated in a letter, that it was impossible to obtain the loan upon the terms required by the act of assembly.
It has been said however that Gen. Emory was of opinion that the law left him no discretion, but positively directed him to proceed to Europe. But there is a part of a law which authorizes said commissioners to negotiate said loan in this country, if in their judgment the interest of the state will thereby be promoted." In the hurry of preparation for a long voyage, the commissioners probably overlooked this provision of the law, or perhaps they thought the interest of the state would be promoted by the various information they expected to collect in their travels.
If three persons were necessary to perform the business of one, still it is a subject of surprise and regret that Judge Buchanan should be selected for that purpose. Being chief judge of a judicial district, as well as of the court of appeals, his whole time is occupied in the discharge of his official duties. Indeed he has applied to the legislature for additional compensation, for the very reason that he has such arduous duties to perform. It is obvious therefore, that he could not be spared for six months from his judicial duties. But this is not the worst aspect of the case. He is receiving his salary of $2,500 as a judge, while he will receive between six and seven thousand dollars for borrowing money in Europe. Then it will be remembered that he received a considerable sum for revising the laws, which makes it appear that he is an especial favourite with the executive of Maryland. The Bill of Rights declares "that no chancellor or judge ought to hold any other office civil or military, or receive fees or perquisites of any kind."
There was no necessity for appointing three commissioners, or even one to negotiate the loan, either at home or abroad, because the treasurer of the state was the proper person to transact the business. He was better qualified by his experience in financial affairs, and his agency would have added nothing to the public expense.
In the year 1834 he was directed to sell the state bonds for three millions of dollars. Without moving out of his office, he received proposals from Frederick County Bank—the Savings Bank of Baltimore; the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal Company; Alexander Brown and Sons; Thomas Biddle and Co.; J. I. Cohen jr. and Co. and brothers; Hoffman and Co.; and James Howard. Many of these bids were for the whole amount, as will be seen by a reference to the journal of May session page 41. The proceedings of the legislature and executive which have been noticed, require but little comment.
They are submitted to the serious consideration of the people.
MAINE ELECTION.
A slip from the Boston Atlas of Saturday says that all the towns have been heard from but eight, and the vote stands thus:— Kent, 1 34,009
Parks, 1 32,971
Majority, 1,037
In the Legislature, 129 representatives were known to be elected, to wit, 86 Whigs and 42 Administration—37 to hear from.
EARLY CORN.
We have been shown a specimen of corn of this year's growth, raised by Samuel Hollingsworth, Esq. of Cecil county, the whole crop of which has been thus early sent to market for sale, consigned to Messrs. Levering & Harrison.
The seed was obtained from New Hampshire, and was planted on the 10th June last, and cribbed on the 10th September, the grain being perfectly formed before the approach of the dry weather usually experienced in August, and the crop ready to be gathered in previous to the early frosts in the fall. The grain is hard and flinty, and weighs about sixty pounds to the bushel. We have not been able to learn, however, whether it possesses any advantage over the ordinary kinds as to the quantity produced per acre, its great merit being the rapidity with which it reaches maturity. [Balt. Amer.] PEACH TREES.

A subscriber informs us and wishes the fact made public, that MARK put round the trunk of Peach Trees, say a bushel or half that measure to each tree, protects them from the attack of worms, preserves the trees in health, continues them in life beyond the time of their ordinary existence, promotes the growth of the fruit to almost double its former size, and increases the richness of its flavour in like proportion. This is valuable information indeed, and our friend assures us it is not less true than valuable.—

ABSTINENCE.
Cheyne says that St. Anthony lived to 105 years on mere bread and water, adding only a few herbs at last, James the hermit to 104; Arsenius, the tutor of the Emperor Arcadius, to 120—65 in the world and 55 in the desert, to which he retired during the persecutions of the early Christians; St. Epiphanius to 110; St. Jerome to about 100; Simon Stylites to 109, and Romanus to 120. And Lewis Cor-naro, a Venetian nobleman, after he had used all other remedies in vain, so that his life was despaired of at 40, yet recovered and lived, by the mere force of his temperance, to near 100 years.
ROBINSON CRUSOE'S ISLAND SWAL-LOWED.
The Barbadoes West Indian of May 11 states the following, which will give many a juvenile and other reader:—
"Juan Fernandez.—This lovely island, on which Alexander Selkirk was cast away, and which gave rise to the novel of Robinson Crusoe was swallowed up by the recent earthquake which destroyed a great portion of Chili, in South America."
OBITUARY.
Died, on Monday, the 11th Sept. at Elk Ridge, Anne Arundel County, SARAH ANN, eldest daughter of Anthony and Mary Ann Smith, aged 17 years and 7 months. In the death of this young lady her numerous friends and relatives have experienced an affliction more distressing to them than terrible to her, for during a painful illness of four weeks she at all times expressed an entire resignation to the will of Him "in whom are the issues of life and death," desiring life, but not dreading death, according as He willed. The deceased was a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

A BY-LAW
To the Voters of Anne-Arundel
County.
Gentlemen.—
I have been induced by what I believe to be the wishes of a large portion of the people of this county, and more particularly of the Sixth Election District, to offer myself as a Candidate to represent you in the next General Assembly of the State. The peculiar circumstances of the times, the political situation of our county, and the inflamed state of party spirit, which, forgetting its legitimate object, seeks now only the aggrandizement of its votaries, seem imper-iously to demand that an effort should be made to place the guardianship of our public affairs in the care of those whose only object and motive can be the faithful performance of that trust. If therefore, I should be elected at the coming election, I shall proceed to the seat of government, untrammelled by party prejudices, party engagements, or party views, and with the single determination of promoting the interest of the county, and the honour and welfare of the State.

SECURITY AGAINST
COUNTERFEITS.
DR. BRANDRETH has adopted the following plan to secure the GENUINE Brandreth Pills to the public. Every authorized agent must have the following Certificates of Agency, and it will be seen that a double caution MUST be committed before any one can procure a forged certificate, and the person having it in his possession is equally liable with the forger. No one will continue ten years in the State Prison, for the sale of a box of counterfeit Brandreth Pills; at least I hope so.

DR. BRANDRETH'S
WANTS NO COLLEGE, NO INSTITUTION, NO HO-SPOPLY, NO CHARTER, HE BRING QUITE SATISFIED TO REST ON THE PATRON-AGE OF THE PUBLIC
FOR THE SUCCESS OF HIS GRANDFATHER'S VEGETABLE
UNIVERSAL PILLS.
THE unprecedented success which has resulted from the adoption of Brandreth's Pills, during a period of upwards of 35 years, the numerous and extraordinary cures which they have performed upon hundreds of individuals whom they have rescued from almost inevitable death, after they had been pronounced incurable by the most eminent of the faculty—justly Dr. Brandreth, the proprietor of this Vegetable Universal Medicine, is warmly and conscientiously recommending it to the especial notice of the public.
Dr. Brandreth wishes mankind to consider this truth, that health solely depends on the state of purity in which the blood is kept, every part of the body being supplied daily with new blood from the food consumed, consequently, according to the pureness of that blood, so must the state of the body be more or less healthy. To obtain therefore, the most direct purifier of the blood, is a question of no little importance to every individual.
That Brandreth's Pills are the most direct purifiers of the blood, there will be no doubt when it is considered that they have gained their present very extensive sale by their own intrinsic merit proved by the numerous cures which they have accomplished in every variety of disease.
The peculiar action of these pills is most surprising; their operations being more or less powerful, according to the pureness of the circulating fluid. On a person in a fair state of health, who is only costive or slightly bilious, they will be scarcely felt; on the contrary, if the complaint be chronic, and the constitution be much deranged, the effect generally at first is most powerful, until the system be freed from some of its most vitiated and turgent humours. This is accomplished, doses sufficient to cause two or three copious evacuations daily, will soon remove the disease, and the constitution will be restored to a state of health and renewed vigour.
As a general Family Medicine, these Pills stand unrivalled. In many of the lingering complaints also, with which the human system is afflicted, they have been highly successful. The use of a few boxes will, in most cases, convince the patient of their beneficial properties. Indeed, a fair trial is all that is needful in their recommendation.
Beware of COUNTERFEITS. If you want the GENUINE Medicine be sure and keep clear of DRUG STORES. No DRUGGIST or APOTHECARY sells the GENUINE BRANDRETH PILLS. Ask to see the Certificate of Agency. All the regularly appointed Agents have one. Price of Pills 25 cents the Box, with full directions.
The SUBSCRIBER is the regularly appointed AGENT for ANNE-ARUNDEL COUNTY, of whom the GENUINE MED-ICINE can at all times be procured.

SUBSCRIPTION
FOR VOL. IV OF
THE CULTIVATOR.
A MONTHLY PUBLICATION, COMPRISING 24 NUMBERS IN A YEAR, DEVOTED TO THE INTERESTS OF THE SOIL AND
THE FARMER.
I have the pleasure to acknowledge the subscription of several of our best officers, and the continuation of the Cultivator, and respectfully solicit the continuance of their good will. Putting out of the question our personal contributions, of the merits of which it does not become us to speak, we venture to say, there is no periodical of its price, that contains more matter directly useful to the great agricultural interest, than is to be found in the columns of the Cultivator. One volume contains as much matter, by printer's computation, as five ordinary duodecimos, which sell at 75 to 125 cents each. If, then, as we believe, the paper is both cheap and useful, and calculated to promote improvement in the business of husbandry, every gentleman may benefit his community, by a moderate effort to extend its circulation. We plead not for ourselves, but for the great interest which it is our pride and pleasure to serve.
The entire Series of the Cultivator will be sent to order, at 50 cts. the volume, stitched, or $2 for the three volumes bound together. 11 vols. for $5.
Subscriptions to the above work received by
