For the Maryland Gazette, CASTLE CROSIER.

The order of distinction are numerous—these are the "star," the "garter," the "blue" and "red ribbon," and other similar gewgaws.

The origin of the order of the Crosier, it is difficult to affix the precise era when it was instituted, since centuries have elapsed.

ed for its nobly endowed house, its cloistered walls, its pinnacled towers, its arched windows.

to St. Petersburg. Several officers, with myself, accompanied Mr. Dallas, and after dining with him, went in the evening to one of the most beautiful Opera houses I had ever seen.

"We list we remained at St. Petersburg, one of the Emperor's aids accompanied us every where, and attended to us every civility and attention in his power.

Exploring Expedition. The Pioneer, and Consort, two vessels built at Boston for the Expedition, have been fitted out to something like shipshape at the Norfolk yard.

INDIAN COUNCIL. SIGNING THE TREATY. Yesterday, after a long talk by the Indian delegation at Mr. Laurie's Church, the treaty entered into between the Hon. Secretary of War, on the part of the United States, and the Sioux delegation.

From the Savannah Georgian, Sept. 20—2 P. M. "I was directed by Col. Gates last week to take 15 men and go to the Wahaouta Prairie.

The Independence in the Baltic. Extract of a letter from an officer on board the U. S. ship Independence, to a gentleman in this city.

SHOCKING ACCIDENT. We are informed that a painful accident, the result of carelessness, occurred at Hampstead on Monday last.

MUSIC IN SCHOOLS. The Teachers of private schools at Boston have, much to their praise, already begun to introduce vocal music as a part of the course of instruction.

A SECOND ELIZABETH. It is related of Queen Victoria that, having expressed a wish to appoint one of the highest stations about her person, Miss J. Robinson, a daughter of the Lord Liverpool, was chosen.

INDIAN CHARACTER. A chief, on his return from the payment, called at one of the taverns and partook of a splendid dinner, asking and obtaining almost every luxury in the city.

MULTUM IN PARVO. A better illustration of this saying could hardly be furnished, than by the relic mentioned in the following paragraph.

In the repository of the royal artillery at Woolwich a large cylinder is exhibited, which is a very great curiosity, having been produced by the burning of 21 Bank of England notes.

The Boston Times says, among the articles on exhibition at the Mechanics' Fair, are two sticks of candy, weighing 475 pounds.

MUSIC WITH CHARMS. At a Concert given last evening at the Lyceum in Brookline, by Mr. Russell, and while that gentleman was singing one of his popular songs, a beautiful white pigeon flew into the hall through an open window.

HORRID MASSACRE. A horrid massacre and mutiny occurred at New Zealand on board the ship Ploughboy of Nantucket on June 18th last.

CHARGE AGAINST A PHYSICIAN. We perceive by the Lowell Advertiser that a serious charge is pending against a physician in that city.

STATISTICS OF COLOURED PERSONS IN PHILADELPHIA. In a recent publication from the Moral Reform Society of Colored Persons, it is stated that their number in the city and county is about twenty-five thousand.

DEATH OF BOTTA, THE HISTORIAN. We learn from one of our foreign journals that Charles Botta, the author of several well known historical works, lately died after a long and painful illness.

A NICE DISTINCTION. In a case respecting a will, at the Derby Assizes, evidence was given to prove the testatrix (an apothecary's wife) a lunatic, and, among other things, it was deposed that she had swept a quantity of pots, lotions, potions, &c. into the street as rubbish.
