Fourth Year of Waldie's Library.
BOOKS BY MAIL!
PROSPECTUS OF TWO NEW VOLUMES FOR 1836.

THREE years have now elapsed since the proprietor of Waldie's Select Circulating Library laid before the public his original prospectus for a valuable library, the great features of which were cheapness, and the facility of a rapid transportation by mail. The most ample success has attended the enterprise, and the effects upon the reading community, it is believed, have been wholesome.

The fourth year will commence on the first Tuesday of January, 1836, at which period it will be necessary to determine the additional amount of copies to be printed, subscriptions being taken only from January of each year. The entire success of the Library is the best guarantee that can be given of its continuance. It was the first to supply books by mail at a mere percentage of their former cost: it has outlived more than forty periodicals and magazines at institution; and has now an extensive list of patrons who are of the most solid and valuable class of citizens in every part of the Union, as well as in foreign countries.

The object of Waldie's Library, its use and purpose [illegible] to furnish a select [illegible] which, without [illegible] to depend upon the chances of public favor for its publication for its own sake, [illegible] to the selection of polite literature, the diffusion of correct and improved taste and morals. The main attention of the conductor [illegible] a reader from [illegible] to be [illegible] the [illegible] of [illegible] Tales, [illegible] history, personal memoirs of [illegible] &c. &c. [illegible] capital to fifty [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]