BOOKS BY MAIL PROSPECTUS OF TWO NEW YOL-UMES FOR 1856.

THIREE years have now elapsed since the proprietor of Waldie's Select Circulating Labrary laid before the public his original prospectus for a valuable library, the great leatures of which were cheapness, and the facility of a rapid transportation by mail. The most ample success has attended the enterprise, and the effects upon the reading community, it is believed, have been whole-

The fourth year will commence on the first Trester of January, 1836, at which period it will be necessary to determine the additional amount of copies to be printed, sub-scriptions being taken only from January of each year. The entire success of the Library best guarantee that can be given of its continuance. It was the first to supply books oy mail at a mere perc - tage of their former costs it has outlived more than thirty pucile ettempts at inutation; and has now an extengive list of patrons who are of the most solid and valuable class of citizens in every part of the Union, as well as in foreign countries.

The object of Waldie's Inbrary, its use and purpose, is enjoyment liberal and intel-lectual. To all wno love a mental banquet, without being compelled to depend on places of public resort, this publication furnishes a most valuable desideratum, supplying polite literature of a character to enlarge and importe the minu. The time and ettention of the editor, himself a render from inclination as well as duty, are devoted to the procurement of works of an elevated standard of in tellect which may be admitted into every fainity, without hesitation by the mos fists dious, and become a rallying point for all its members, promoting social belies lettres reading and conversation. The variety thus col-lected from the whole mass of published works, mostly new, embraces Biography, Novels, Voyages and Travels, Sketches, Pales, and Select History, personal memoirs of extraordinary individuals, and curious adventure &c. &c. An amount equal to fifty London auodecimo voiomes is trus annually furnished in weekly numbers, at a cost only TT was one of the great objects of "Wal-die's Literary," "to make good reading cneaper, and to bring literature to every man's door." That object has been accomplished; we have given to books: wirgs, and they have flown to the untermost parts of our vast continent, carrying society to the seclar ded, occupation to the literary, information to all. We now propose still further to reduce prices, and reader the access to a literary banquet more than twofold accessibles we gave and shall continue to give in the quarto library a volume weekly for two cents tion to their ordinary supply of miscellane-ous matter, an English annual, the largest yet received for the coming season; and they receive it, moreover, in a form that, from its povely, gives it additional value. novelty, gives it additional value.

mental food which it craves. The Select Circulating Library, now as e-ver so great a favourite, will continue to make ver so great a lavourite, will continue to make its weekly visits, and to be issued in a form for binding and preservation, and its price and four will remain the same. But we shall, in the first week of January 1837, issue a huge shoet of the size of the largest newspapers of America, but on very superior paper, also filled with books of the newest and most entertaining, though in their several departments of Novels, Taics, Voyages, ed with reading such as usually should fill a weekly newspaper. By this method we hepe to accomplish a great good; to enliven and enlighten the family circle, and to give to it, at an expense which shall be no consideration to any, a mass of reading that in book form would alarm the pockets of the prudent, and to do it in a manner that the most scep-tical shall acknowledge "the power of con-centration can no farther go," No book centration can no farther go."
