T was one of the great objects of "Waldie's Literary," "to make good reading cneaper, and to bring literature to every man's door." That object has been accomplished; we have given to books: wirgs, and vast continent, carrying society to the secla rary banquet more than twofoid accessibles quarto library a volume weekly for two cents the same period for less than four cents the same period for less than four cents a sceek, and to add as a piquant seasoning to the dish a few columns of shorter literary matters, and a summary of the news and events of the day. We know by experience and calculation that we can go at !! further in the matter of reduction, and we feel that there is still verge enough for us to aim at offering to an increasing literary appetite that ver so great a favourite, will continue to make for binding and preservation, and its price and four will remain the same. But we shall, in the first week of January 1837, issue a huge sheet of the size of the largest newspapers of America, but on very superior paper, also filled with books of the newest and most entertaining, though in their several departments of Novels, Tales, Voyages, ed with reading such as usually should fill a weekly newspaper. By this method we hope to accomplish a great goods to enliven and enlighten the family circle, and to give to it, at an expense which shall be no consideraat an expense which man or no considera-tion to any, a mass of reading that in book form would alarm the pockets of the prudent, and to do it in a manner that the most scep-tical shall acknowledge "the power of con-centration can no terther go." No book centration can no farther go." No book which appears in Waldie's Quarto Library will be published in the Omnibus, which will be an entirely distinct periodical. TERMS. WALME'S LITERARY OMNIBUS will be issued every Friday morning, printed on pa-per of a quality superior to any other weekly
