Fourth Year of Waldio's Library. PROSPECTUS OF TWO NEW VOL-

The fourth year will commence on the first Tuesday of January, 1836, at which period it will be necessary to determine the addiit will be necessary to determine the anni-tional amount of copies to be printed, ear-scriptions being taken only from January of each year. The entire success of the Library is the best guarantee that can be given of its continuance. It was the first to supply books ay mail at a mere per centage of their former cost; it has outlived more than thirty puerile attempts at imitation; and has now an extensive list of patrons who are of the most solid and valuable class of citizens in every part of the Union, as well as in foreign countries.
The object of Waldie's Library, its use and purpose, is enjoyment liberal and intel-lectual. To all who love a mental banquet, lectual. To all who love a mental banquet, without being compelled to depend on places of public resurt, this publication fornishes a most valuable desideration, supplying polite literature of a character to enlarge and improve the mind.
