Fourth Year of Waldle's Library. BOOKS BY MATL PROSPECTUS OF TWO NEW YOL-UMBS FOR 1836.

THREE years have now clapsed since the proprietor of Waldie's Belect Circulate propriets of Waldie's Select Circulating Library laid before the public his original prospectus for a valuable library, the great features of which were cheapness, and the facility of a rapid transportation by mail. The most ample success has attended the enterprise, and the effects upon the reading and the library of the reading that is believed, have been wholecommunity, it is believed, have been whole-

The fourth year will commence on the first Tuesday of January, 1836, at which period It will be necessary to determine the addi tional amount of copies to be printed, sub-scriptions being taken only from January of each year. The entire success of the Library is the best guarantee that can be given of its continuance. It was the first to supply books my mail at a mero per centage of their former cost; it has outlived more than thirty puerile attempts at imitation; and has now an extenattempts at imitation; and has now an extensive list of patrons who are of the most solid and valuable class is in every part of the Union, as well are object of Want of Library, its use

The object of Wantes Library, its use and purpose, is enjoyment liberal and intellectual. To all who love a mental banquet, without being compelled to depend on places of public resort, this publication furnishes a most valuable desideratum, supplying polite literature of a character to enlarge and improve the mind. The time and attention of made in the date, do not purchase, there is prove the mind. The time and attention of the editor, himself a reader from inclination as well as duty, are devoted to the procurement of works of an elevated standard of intellect which may be admitted into every family without hesitation by the mos fastifamily without hesitation by the most fastidious, and become a raliying point for all its members, promoting social belies lettres reading and conversation. The variety thus collected from the whole mass of published works, mostly new, embraces Biography, Novels, Voyages and Travels, Sketches, Tales, and Select History, personal memoirs of extraordinary individuals, and curious adventure, &c. &c. An amount equal to fifty London duodecimo volumes is thus annually furnished in weekly numbers, at a cost only furnished in weekly numbers, at a cost only equal to one of the Landon works. The planthus embraces the whole range of popular literature, and the work has now become so unierature, and the work has now become so universally diffused in every part of the Union as to form no inconsiderable portion of the literature of the country, and with which an acquaintance has become really necessary for those who mix in society.

The Library as now conducted disseminates isooks to all parts of the country in from five to six weeks after their issue in London. Five dollars per annum expended in this way or family; for a cent and a half, a day, post-or family; for a cent and a half, a sent every age included, a duodecimo book is sent every week, making in the course of the year more than three volumes of Rees's Cyclopedia. One volume of the Library, containing from fifteen to twenty entire works, can be bound at an expense little exceeding that of binding eithers. er eparately, and constitutes a concentrated collection forming a never failing resource of amusement and instruction, and which must always be worth the price that has been paid The most ample testimony has been spontaneously afforded that this work has contributed to the pleasure of thousands, who, but for the resource it afforded, must have

AND LITERARY GAZETTE.

Philadelphia, November 96, 1836.

THE very liberal patronage bestowed on the SATURDAY NEWS, since its commencement in July last, and a desire to meet that patronage by corresponding exertions, have induced us this week to publish toward in Philadelphia for any purpose, and the largest literary paper ever printed in the United States. To those of our friends who are practical printers, it need not be mentioned that this undertaking has involved serious mechanical difficulties. The largest personneed in the largest preyses in Philadelphia for for twelve cents, and others in proportion.

VELS, REVIEWS, AND THE NEWS OF THE T was one of the great objects of "Waldie's Literary," "to make good reading encaper, and to bring literature to every man's door." That object has been accom-DAT plished; we have given to books wings, and they have flown to the uttermost parts of our they have slown to the untermost parts of our cast continent, carrying society to the secla ded, occupation to the literary, information to all. We now propose still further to reduce prices, and reader the access to a literary banquet more than twofold accessible, we gate and shall continue to vive in the we gave and shall continue to give in the quarto library avolume weekly for two cents a day; we now propose to give a volume in the same period for less than four cents a week, and to add as a piquant scasoning to the dish a few columns of shorter liter matters, and a summary of the news and events of the day. We know by experience and calculation that we can go still further in the matter of reduction, and we feel that there is still verge enough for us to aim at offering to an increasing literary appetite that mental food which it claves.

The Select Circulating Library, now as ever so great a favourite, will continue to make its weekly visits, and to be issued in a form for hinding and preservation, and its pine and form will remain the same But we shall, in the first week of Jaruary 1857, issuch, in the first week of sar day foot, assue a huge sheet of the size of the largest newspapers of America, but on very super or paper, also filled with books of the newst and most entertaining, though in their several departments of Novels. Tales, Voyages, Travels, &c., select in their character, joined with reading such as usually should fill a weekly newspaper. By this method we hope weekly newspaper. By this accomplish a great good; to enliven and enlighten the family circle, and to give to it, at an expense which shall be no consideration to any, a mass of reading that in book form would alarm the pockets of the prudent, norm would alarm the pockets of the prudent, and to do it in a mainer that the most septical shall acknowledge "the power of concentration can no farther go." No look which oppears in Halie's Quarto Library will be with the distribution of the Charles and the Charles an will be published in the Omnibus, which will be an entirely distinct periodical.
