Philadelphia. November 26, 1836.

THE very liberal patronage bestowed on the SATURDAY NEWS, since its commencement in July last, and a desire to get that patronage by corresponding exertions, have induced as this week to publish a Double Number—being the largest sheet ever printed in Philadelphia for any purpose, and the largest literary paper ever printed in the United States. T was one of the great objects of "Wal-die's Literary," "to make good reading encaper, and to bring literature to every man's door." That object has been accomptished; we have given to books wings, and they have flown to the u termost parts of our vast continent, carrying society to the social ded, occupation to the literary, information to all. We now propose still further to reduce prices, and render the access to a literary banquet more than twofold accessibles for chear repoints, we believe this surpasses, my former instance. For four cents subscrible in the Saturday News receive, in addition to their ordinary supply of miscellanears and shall continue to give in the quarto their avolume weekly for two cents a day; we now propose to give a volume in the same period for tess than four cents a tech, and to add as a riquant seasoning to the dish a few columns of shorter literary matters, and a summary of the news and where the dish a few columns of shorter literary matters, and a summary of the news and calculation that we can go still further come so well known as to require no comor the matter of reduction, and we feel that to a le sill verge enough for us to aim at offering to an increasing literary appetite that

The Select Circulating Library, now as ever so great a favourite, will continue to make its weekly visits, and to be issued in a form for binding and preservation, and its price and form will remain the same But we shall, in the first week of January 1857, issue a huge sheet of the size of the largest newspapers of America, but on very superior paper. also filled with books of the newest and most entertaining, though in their several departments of Novels, Tales, Voyages, Travels, &c., select in their character, joined with reading such as usually should fill a weekly newspaper. By this method we hope to accomplish a great good; to enliven and enlighten the family circle, and to give to it, at an expense which shall be no considera-tion to aby, a mass of reading that in book form would alarm the pockets of the prudent, and to do it in a manner that the most sep-tical shall acknowledge "the power of con-centration can no father go." No look centration can no farther go." No look which appears in Wal-lie's Quarto Library cill be published in the Omnibus, which will be an entirely distinct periodical.
