

Fourth Year of Waldie's Library. BOOKS BY MAIL. PROSPECTUS OF TWO NEW VOLUMES FOR 1836.

proprietor of Waldie's Select Circulating Library laid before the public his original prospectus for a valuable library, the great features of which were cheapness, and the facility of a rapid transportation by mail.

The fourth year will commence on the first Tuesday of January, 1836, at which period it will be necessary to determine the additional amount of copies to be printed, subscriptions being taken only from January of each year.

The object of Waldie's Library, use and purpose, is enjoyment, liberal and intellectual. To all who have a mental talent, without being compelled to depend on places of public resort, this publication furnishes a most valuable desideratum.

The Library is now conducted disseminates books to all parts of the country in from five to six weeks after their issue in London.

Waldie's Library is published every Tuesday, accompanied by a cover of four quarto pages, containing reviews of new books, literary intelligence of all kinds, tales, historical news, &c.

This periodical contains half as much matter as the Library, at half its price; or both are furnished to clubs of five for $6 00.

A very limited number of complete sets of Library and Port Folio, at the original subscription price, may be had for a short period.

The Museum of Foreign Literature and Science, price $8 00 per annum, the Library and Port Folio, will be supplied for $12 00.

NEW PAPER

THE BALTIMORE KALEIDOSCOPE, And Weekly Express.

RECENTLY commenced, and now published every Saturday, by YOUNG & ABRAHAM, at the South East corner of Market and Gay streets, Baltimore, L. A. Wilmer, editor. Price $2 per annum.

This paper will contain a great variety of original and selected matter, news, literary and scientific articles, notices of new books, and animal-versions on the most popular topics of the day.

And to every person who will send Five Subscribers, and Ten Dollars in cash, a complete set of either Bellamy or Marryat, as they may prefer.

NEW MONTHLY MAGAZINE. On the 1st of July, 1837, will be published, beautifully printed on good paper, of an extra large royal octavo size, and neatly stitched in a coloured cover, the first number of A NEW PERIODICAL WORK, ENTITLED, THE GENTLEMAN'S MAGAZINE, Edited by WILLIAM E. BURTON, Philadelphia. To whom all engagements should be addressed.

THE announcement of a new Periodical in the present state of affairs, may create some feeling of surprise, but having contemplated an abridgement of a very popular monthly publication, every body acquainted with the progress of the work in the perfected arrangements, and produced a periodical embodying the most wholesome parts of the old work, but combined with sufficient energy and talent to ensure the success of their new enterprise.

The contents of the Gentleman's Magazine will, in every respect, be answered to the reasoning of the title. We do not pretend, in our literary pursuit, to fly to the south sea, or to hunt for the new world.

The Gentleman's Magazine will contain a variety of original matter, and two columns of foreign intelligence, and a large amount of original and selected matter.

To induce subscribers to forward their names immediately, the publisher begs leave to offer the following inducements for Clubbing, the advantages of which proposition remain in force for a few months only.

FOR ANNAPOLIS, ST. MICHAEL'S, AND WYE LANDING. The Steamboat MARYLAND will leave Baltimore on SUNDAY MORNING NEXT, at eight o'clock, for the above places from the lower end of Dugan's wharf.

CASH FOR ANY NUMBER OF NEGROES. Including both sexes, from 10 to 35 years of age. PERSONS having likely Servants to dispose of, and wishing the highest price, will do well to give me a call, as I am determined to buy and give higher prices than any other purchaser, who is now or may come into this market.

ISAAC F. PURVIS, R. P. S.—Any communications left with Mr. John Lamb, will be promptly attended to. I. P.

SEVENTEEN POPULAR NOVELS, VIZ:

- Peter Simple, Jacob Faithful, Frank's Misadventure, King's Own, Pellam, The Disowned, Deverton, Paul Clifford, Eugene Aram, Newton Foster, Facha of Many Talles, James on Search of his Father, Last Days of Pompeii, Henri, Pilgrims of the Rhine.

Will be given a premium to any person who will send the names of Ten Subscribers, and Twenty Dollars in cash, to the publisher of The Saturday News and Literary Gazette.

The SATURDAY NEWS contains more reading matter than any other paper published in the United States. It is devoted to general Literature, Criticism, the Drama, Agriculture, Intelligence, News, &c.

The following notices are taken from many of a similar character, made by the leading press of this city—SATURDAY NEWS—The weekly paper with the above title, which was founded a few weeks since, came to light.

The PHILADELPHIA SATURDAY NEWS—We have been favoured with a copy of the first number of this new paper. It is creditable to all concerns.

We have received the first number of the Saturday News, a new paper of the largest class, issued by the Messrs. Godey, Neal and McMichael, able and experienced newspaper editors.

SATURDAY NEWS—The new Journal advertised in our paper under the above title, has made its appearance last week, and is very unequivocally on the good side of the ledger.

THE CULTIVATOR. A MONTHLY PUBLICATION, COMPRISING 20 PAGES IN A VOLUME, DEVOTED TO THE IMPROVEMENT OF THE SOIL AND THE MIND.

THE Conductor tenders his acknowledgments to gentlemen, for their kind offices in extending the circulation of THE CULTIVATOR, and respectfully solicits the continuation of their good will.

THE entire Series of THE CULTIVATOR will be sent to order, at 50 cts. the volume, stitched, or $2 for the three volumes bound together. 11 vols. for $5.

Subscriptions to the above work received by A. COWAN, Annapolis.

MAMMOTH SHEET. OFFICE OF THE SATURDAY NEWS, AND LITERARY GAZETTE, Philadelphia, November 26, 1836.

THE very liberal patronage bestowed on the SATURDAY NEWS, since its commencement in July last, and a desire to meet that patronage by corresponding exertions, have induced us this week to publish a Double Number—being the largest sheet ever printed in Philadelphia for any purpose, and the largest literary paper ever printed in the United States.

We flatter ourselves that, besides its extraordinary size, this number presents attractions that entitle it to some attention. It contains the whole of Friendship's Offering for 1837, the London copy of which costs $4, and has 384 closely printed pages of letter press.

Of the general character of the Saturday News we need not speak. That has now become so well known as to require no comment. We may take occasion to say, however, that in enterprize and resources we yield to no other publishers in this city or elsewhere, and we are determined that our paper shall not be surpassed.

THE SALMAGUNDI, AND NEWS OF THE DAY. PUBLISHED WITH A MULTITUDE OF COLORED ENGRAVINGS.

A NEW PERIODICAL, of a novel character, bearing the above appellation, will be commenced on the beginning of January, 1836. While it will furnish its patrons with the leading features of the news of the day, its principal objects will be to serve up a humorous compilation of the numerous lively and pungent sallies which are daily floating along the tide of Literature, and which, for the want of a proper channel for their preservation, are positively lost to the Reading world.

THE Salmagundi will be printed on large imperial paper, equal in size and quality to that which is at present used for the Gentleman's Vale Mecum. It is calculated that MORE THAN 500 ENGRAVINGS will be furnished to the patrons of this Journal in one year—these, in addition to an extensive and choice selection of Satire, Criticism, Humour, and Wit, to be circulated through its columns, will form a Literary Banquet of a superior and attractive order; and the publisher relies with perfect confidence on the liberality of the American public, and the spirit and taste with which this expensive undertaking will be prosecuted, to bear him successfully and profitably along with it.

THE Terms of THE SALMAGUNDI will be TWO DOLLARS per annum, payable invariably in advance. No paper will be furnished unless this stipulation is strictly adhered to. Clubs of three will be supplied with the paper for one year, by forwarding a five dollar note, postage paid. Clubs of seven will be supplied for the same term, by forwarding a ten dollar note. The papers that are sent out of the city will be carefully packed in strong envelopes, to prevent their rubbing in the mail.

THE SALMAGUNDI will be published on alternate weeks—otherwise it would be impossible to procure the numerous Engravings which each number will contain—and the general interest it will afford must be enhanced by this arrangement.

Address, CHARLES ALEXANDER, Athenian Buildings, Franklin Place, Philadelphia.

A NEW AND CHEAP PERIODICAL. Attention is requested from our readers to the following prospectus of a new, and even a cheaper book periodical, which will be issued from this office in the first week of next January.

It will not be in so convenient a form for binding as the present, with which it will in no way interfere, but it will make books cheap beyond all precedent. It will contain the works of the day, which are not sought after, but are comparatively dear, and which cannot penetrate the interior in any mode half so rapidly as by mail, in which volumes of books are prohibited. A fifty cent American reprint will be furnished entire for from four to six cents; a Marryat novel for twelve cents, and others in proportion.

As but very few copies will be printed but what are actually subscribed for, those who wish the Omnibus, must make their remittances at once.

WALDIE'S LITERARY OMNIBUS. NOVEL AND IMPORTANT LITERARY ENTERPRISE!!

IT was one of the great objects of "Waldie's Literary," "to make good reading cheaper, and to bring literature to every man's door." That object has been accomplished; we have given to books wings, and they have flown to the uttermost parts of our vast continent, carrying society to the secluded, occupation to the literary, information to all.

We now propose still further to reduce prices, and render the access to a literary banquet more than twofold accessible; we gave and shall continue to give in the Quarto Library a volume weekly for two cents.

We now propose to give a volume in the same period for less than four cents a cent, and to add as a piquant seasoning to the dish a few columns of shorter literary matters, and a summary of the news and events of the day. We know by experience and calculation that we can go still further in the matter of reduction, and we feel that there is still verge enough for us to aim at offering to an increasing literary appetite that mental food which it craves.

The Select Circulating Library, now as ever so great a favourite, will continue to make its weekly visits, and to be issued in a form for binding and preservation, and its price and form will remain the same. But we shall, in the first week of January 1837, issue a huge sheet of the size of the largest newspapers of America, but on very superior paper, and also filled with books of the newest and most entertaining, though in their several departments of Novels, Tales, Voyages, Travels, &c., select in their character, joined with reading such as usually fill up a weekly newspaper.

By this method we hope to accomplish a great good; to enlighten and enlighten the family circle, and to give to it, at an expense which shall be no consideration to any, a mass of reading that in book form would alarm the pockets of the prudent, and to do it in a manner that the most sceptical shall acknowledge "the power of concentration can no farther go." No book which appears in Waldie's Quarto Library will be published in the Omnibus, which will be an entirely distinct periodical.

TERMS. WALDIE'S LITERARY OMNIBUS will be issued every Friday morning, printed on paper of a quality superior to any other weekly sheet, and of the largest size. It will contain—

1st. Books, the newest and the best that can be procured, equal every week to a London duodecimo volume, embracing Novels, Travels, Memoirs, &c., and only chargeable with newspaper postage.

2d. Literary Reviews, Tales, Sketches, notices of books, and information from the world of letters, of every description.

3d. The news of the week concentrated to a small compass, but in a sufficient amount to embrace a knowledge of the principal events, political and miscellaneous, of Europe and America.

The price will be two dollars to clubs of five subscribers where the paper is forwarded to one address. To clubs of two individuals, five dollars; single mail subscribers, three dollars. The discount on uncurrent money will be charged to the remitter; the low price and superior paper absolutely prohibit paying a discount.

As the arrangements for the prosecution of this great literary undertaking are all made, and the proprietor has redeemed all his pledges to a generous public for many years, no fear of the non-fulfillment of the contract can be felt. The Omnibus will be regularly issued, and will contain in a year reading matter equal in amount to two volumes of Bee's Cyclopaedia, for the small sum mentioned above.

Address, post paid, ADAM WALDIE, 46 Carpenter St. Philadelphia. Editors throughout the Union, and Canada, will confer a favour by giving the above one or more conspicuous insertions, and accepting the work for a year as compensation.

FOR ANNAPOLIS, CAMBRIDGE AND EASTON. The Steam Boat MARYLAND, leaves Baltimore, every TUESDAY & FRIDAY MORNING, at 7 o'clock for the above places, starting from the lower end of Dugan's wharf, and returns on Wednesday and Saturday.
