To all who low a mental banquet, without being compelled to legend on places paper of public resort, this publication furnishes a Bar most valuable desideratum, supplying polite literature of a character to enlarge and improve the mind. The time and attention of the editor, himself a reader frees inclination as well as duty, are devoted to the procure-ment of works of an elevated standard of imtellect which may be admitted into every family without hesitation by the mos fastidious, and become a rallying soint for all its memoers, promoting social belies lettres read-ing and conversation. The variety thus collected from the whole mass of published works, mostly new, embraces Baggraphy, Novels, Voyages and Travels, Shetches, Tales, and Select History, personal memoirs of extraordinary individuals, and curious adventure, &c. &c. An amount equal to fifty London duodecimo volumes is thus annually formished in weekly numbers, at a cost only equal to one of the London works. The plan thus embraces the whole range of popular literature, and the work has now become a uni-versally diffused in every part of the Union could on coul acquaintance has been ne really nacessary for those who mix in society.
