The Select Circulating Library, now as ever so great a favourite, will continue to make its weekly visits, and to be issued in a form for binding and preservation, and its price and form will remain the same. But we shall, in the first week of Jaruary 1837, isshall, in the largest of the size of the largest newspapers of America, but on very superior paper, also filled with books of the newest and most entertaining, though in their seventeements. and most entertaining, though in their several departments of Novels, Tales, Voyages, Travels, &c., select in their character, joined with reading such as usually should fill a weekly newspaper. By this method we hope to accomplish a great good; to enliven and enlighten the family circle, and to give to it, at an expense which shall be no consideration to any, a mass of reading that in book form would alarm the pockets of the prudent, and to do it us a manner that the most seepand to do it it, a manner that the most sceptical shall acknowledge "the power of concentration can no farther go." No took which appears in Waldie's Quarto Library will be published in the Onnibus, which will be an entirely distinct periodical.
