TERARY ENTERPRISE!! NOVELS, TALES, BIGGRAPHY, YOTAGES, TRA-VELS, REVIEWS, AND THE NETTS OF THE DAY

IT was one of the great objects of "Wal-die's Literary," "to make good reading cneaper, and to bring literature to every man's door." That object has been accomplished; we have given to books wings, and they have flown to the uttermost parts of our inted pages of let-a the present age, country, has been ded, occupation to the literary, information to all. We now propose still further to reduce prices, and render the access to a literary banquet more than twofold accessible we gave and shall continue to give in the day; we now propose to give a volume in week, and to add as a piquant seasoning to the dish a few columns of shorter literary matters, and a summary of the news and events of the day. We know by experience and calculation that we can go st !! further in the matter of reduction, and we feel that there is still verge enough for us to aim at offering to an increasing literary appetite that mental food which it craves. The Select Circulating Library, now as ever so great a favourite, will continue to make its weekly visits, and to be issued in a form for binding and preservation, and its price and form will remain the same But we shall, in the first week of January 1857, issue a huge sheet of the size of the largest newspapers of America, but on very superior and most entertaining, though in their several departments of Novels, Tales, Voyages, Travels, &c., select in their character, join-ed with reading such as usually should fill a weekly newspaper. By this method we hope to accomplish a great good; to enliven and enlighten the family circle, and to give to it, at an expense which shall be no consideration to any, a mass of reading that in book form would alarm the pockets of the prudent, and to do it in a manner that the most sceptial shall acknowledge, title power of costs. tical shall acknowledge "the power of coacentration can no farther go." No book which appears in Waldie's Quarto Library will be published in the Omnibus, which will above appellation, be an entirely distinct periodical,
