Go of it at least, unequiverally expressed in sea of what is your duty—and the other has a ding and a ding do not equally divided? I very much mistake the character of the people of your State, if they do not agree with their representatives. They are proverhially a people who detest the ideas a debt—who do not imagine a man rich, hereal is millione on both sides of his least. he counts his millions on both sides of his lock -who do not believe in the modern theory the credit is capital in any sense in which the works may be used. To them, of what consequence is the coming of a second cotton crop, compared to the loss of $3,600,000 a year in the depreciation of your paper, not to speak of that by all the other banks in the State, whose con-duct your course influences? They hold that your duty to them is to redeem your bills in specie, and nobody can doubt that in this they best are right.

With respect to this matter of the second cotton crop, as connected with the system of foreign exchanges, it is of so much importance that I must reserve the discussion of it for an ce of entire letter.

Very respectfully, A CITIZEN,

Several men were recently arrested in the ri cinity of New York for making and passing counterfeit coin. The officers also secure their tools and a quantity of false money, made of German silver.

A man named H. M. Woods, late assistant postmaster at Ellsworth, Maine, was recently tried at Portland for purloining money from the mail. He was found guilty and sentenced to ten years' imprisonment.

A SHOCKING ACCIDENT

e ex Occurred at Brooklyn on Saturday afternoon. A little Irish boy about ten years old, whose name we did not learn, was sitting with his legs hanging over one of the wharves, engaged in fishing, when a sloop under full sail was sudden. ly swept by the tide along side, and before the little fellow could escape, his limbs were caught between the vessel and the wharf and complete. ly severed from the body! He was alive ttack last heard from, but it seems to be almost impos. mode and I sible for him to survive so frightful a mutilation. -N. Y. Gazette. this

PAINFUL OCCURRENCE.

A scrious acceident occurred at the printing y dif-w up. office attached to the Methodist book room in this city, on Saturday. Mr. Ludlam, the superintendant of the power press, by some means became entangled in the machinery, and was carried around for some minutes, by the main shaft. He was alone in the room at the time, but his cries soon brought the other inmates of the building to his assistance. On extricating him, it was found that his legs, and one arm were broken. He was still alive at noon cf rill it this day .- N. Y. Com. Adv.

SEVERE SENTENCE.

The Wilmington (Del ) Gazette says-The trial of John Kennedy, who was arrested a few weeks since in this city on a charge of robbing Mr. Thomas Vandever, while on his way to market, was closed on Wednesday last, when the jury returned a verdict of guilty. He was yesterday sentenced to pay to the state a fine of five hundred dollars, to stand on the pillory for the space of one hour, shall be publicly whipped with thirty nine lashes on the bare back well laid on, imprisoned for a term of two years, and upon the expiration of such imprisonment, to be disposed of as a servant to the highest and lest bidder or bidders for the term of ten years."

FROM FLORIDA.

FRAUD AND FORGERY.

The city was yesterday full of reports of extensive forgeries committed by William Bromwell, a Dry goods dealer in Baltimore street, and a man, heretofore, of unsuspecta supyour ed honesty and good character. It appears from that Mr. Bromwell has been in the habit for a long time, of supplying himself with mo-ney and goods by lodging as collateral secu-rity with those from whom he borrowed the ranch one or purchased the other, notes, purports ing to be signed by country merchants of good credit, who were known or supposed to be his customers. By this system he succeeded in obtaining considerable sums of money and large quantities of goods. It is had become and it is but instict to believed, however, and it is but justice to him to state it, that he used the money procured by these criminal means, in a vain attempt to mistain his credit as a merchant, under the delusive expectation that he might, by some means or other extricate himself m his embarrassments and relieve himself from the consequences of his misconduct by taking up and destroying the evi-dence of it. It is understood that he has left the city. - Chron.
