Waryland Wazette.

ANNAPOLIS: Thursday, May 31, 1838.

For the Maryland Gazette

TO SUSANNA.

Sweet girl 'tis true the fond wishes I cherish'd,
For ever are crush'd and I must not repine;
But still, though all my wild fancise have perish'd,
Still around this fond heart love's chain will entwine.
I tried to forget, but the struggle was vain,
In wain from thy power I strove to get free;
I must bend my proud heart to love's silken chain,
And bow unresisting to fortune's decree. TO SUSANNA. And bow unresisting to fortune's decree.

I know there is madness in loving thee now, Since hope, even hope, is banish'd this breast;
I know that in gazing upen thy fair brew,
I but gaze on my own utter ruin, at best.
But yet I must love thee, though far, far apart,
Our fortunes may now and forever remain;
Still, still, in this tortur'd and desolute heart.
The image of Susanna only shall reign.

> For the Maryland Gazette. Once more will I the Muses' aid Invoke, implore a strain;
> To welcome thee dear lovely maid,
> Back to this Nech again.

Thy radiant course I recollect—
Oh! could I e'er forget;
The thrilling glance, the brow contex
Are well remembered yet.

Thy manners bland—cerulian air Are not forgotten here; Then welcome back dear lovely fair, Again our hearts to cheer. Again our hearts to cheer.

Shed thy benign influence round—
Awake our souls to joy;
Let melody and love resound,
And fill our hearts with joy. Sweet pleasant days and pleasant nights, Continue still with you; Our finey as our heart delights, Asian to pursue. Broad Neck, May 30th.

In the steamboat Columbia, from Norfolk cers from the squadron lying in Hampton Roads. -Nat. Intelligencer.

ROBBERY OF THE BANK OF THE ME. TROPOLIS.

We learn from the National Intelligencer that the Bank of the Metropolis was robbed on Sunday last. It is supposed that the Bank was entered by the thieves on Saturday night. reached the top of the bank portico, which fronts that I have yet heard of. on Fisteenth street. Drawing the ladder after them, they placed it on the portico, and ascended the roof of the bank, crossing the balustrade. Descending by the sky-light, and forcing two trap doors, the thieves arrived at the bottom of the stairs, when they cut or forced their way tablishment of James Goold & Co., and 15 or through a pannel of a door which communicates 20 buildings on Hamilton street, Albany, were with the bank, and which door was lined with sheet iron. The aperture in the door through which the thieves forced themselves into the bank is not more then 8 or 9 inches wide and 16 long, it is so very narrow that, in forcing themselves through it, one or more of the thieves must have scratched themselves and drawn blood, as marks of it were found on the office towel. With a piece of iron which appears to have been a part of an iron rail, (pro-bably taken from the rail road,) the thieves suc ecceled in forcing open the book-safe in which the commander.—N. Y. Express. were deposited two manogany cases of variation to give a seen from the telegraph station, at an experiment 1 had somewhere net with, 40 in piece of puthed meat being made sweet by better an now absent from the city, who had left them in the bank for safe-keeping. The valuation who lay in the Cove of Cork, despatched one therefore the control of the about the streets. He was likewise a soldier of the revolution."

The Virginia State Loan of $400,000, bear

PEACHES.

It affords us pleasure to state, the prospect in New Jersey this year, favours an abundant crop

CASE OF RICHARD H. WHITE. We learn from the National Intelligencer that on Thursday morning, soon after the that on Thursday morning, soon after the open and her officers were treated with market at least the interference of the circuit Court of that district, Messre. tention, the left for Copenhagen, at which place ing of the Circuit Court of that district, Messre. tention, the left for Copenhagen, at which place is about a year after this, as I was riding past "About a year after this, as I was riding past ing of the Circuit Court of that district, Messrs.

Brent and Brent, attorneys for the prisoner, she arrived in safety—where she excited simi.

Brent and Brent, attorneys for the prisoner, she arrived in safety—where she excited simi.

She proceeded thence to Stock.

White, for irregulanty in the proceedings apparent in the records in this case, and asked the Court to appoint a day to hear the argu
Brent and Brent, attorneys for the prisoner, she arrived in safety—where she excited simi.

She proceeded thence to Stock detached farm house, at the outskirts of the village, I observed a farmer's daughter standing that he had just returned from New Or to Gunter's Lending, or editable to Ross's Landing, or detached farm house, at the outskirts of the village, I observed a farmer's daughter standing that he had just returned from New Or to Gunter's Lending, or received in kindness by officers selected for at the door, apparently in great affliction. On the purpose. You will find food for all, and that it was his intention to inquiring into the cause of her distress, she told the court to appoint a day to hear the argu-

The trial of John Wilson, who it may be remembered, officiated as speaker of the Arkansas House of Representatives during the last Legislative session of that State, and who, on a certain occasion, walked down from his Chair and slew Maj. T. T. Anthony, with a Bowie knife on the floor of the House, took place a few days ago. The verdict of the Jury wasunot guilty of murder but excusable homicide!"-Louisville Journal.

Richard K. Frost, the steam doctor, convicted in New York of manslaughter for administering lobelia to a patient, has been adjudged to pay a fine of one hundred and fifty dollars, and lischarged.

To the Editor of the Baltimore Chronicle. DEAR SIR: - During the severe gale on Tuesday evening which caused so much devastation in your city, the property of the Messra. Elli-cott at Elkridge Furnace, did not escape unin

The chimney of their dwelling with those of several outhouses, was blown off, thereby injuring the roofs in a more or less degree.

The roof of a coal house was much injured, and several pair of heavy steps which went up on the outside of houses, were blown to an asonishing distance. Their blacksmith shop, a large brick building, was injured very much, not only the roof da-maged, but the walls blown six or eight inches out of place, so as to render it dangerous to work in; the end of their carpenter shop was partially blown in, and the roof moved several came passenger Major General Jesup and his heavy timbers were hurled about in every di-nids from Florida; and also several French offi-rection. And such was the immease power of hurled out of the shatts and the cart upset.

The woods present one vast wreck, trees lying scattered in every direction either blown down or torn up by the roots.

The fences are in many places level with the ground, and numerous other accidents of trivial character have been the result of this tremen. dous tornado; this immediate neighbourhood By means of a light painter's ladder, the thieves seems to have suffered more than any other

ELERIDGE LANDING.

DESTRUCTIVE FIRE AT ALBANY. The extensive and valuable coach making establishment of James Goold & Co., and 15 or my books directed.

destroyed by fire on Friday morning. Goold's loss is estimated at about $45,000-on which he has an insurance of $19,500.

FIRST ATLANTIC STEAMER.

navigation of the Atlantic. They were communicated to the Gazette by Capt. Stephen Roverely. While I was in conversation on this supposed, of deception and violence." gers, of Groton, who was sailing-master of the ship of which Moses Rogers, of Groton, was in a small corner of the room, a tub of worth them in the bank for sale-keeping. The value of the King's cutters to her relief. But great that the yeast might correct the putrid nature ble contents of these cases the thieves took a. of the King's cutters to her relief. But great that the yeast might correct the putrid nature way. They next forced open the door of the was their wonder at their inability with all sail of the disease, and I instantly gave him two was their sportment, which, though the lock in a fast vessel, to come up with a ship under large spoonfuls. I then told the mother, if she was strong and immoveable, they easily entered, bare poles. After several shots were fired from found her son better to repeat the dose every was strong and immortance, they easily entered, but potes. Inter service should be sur- three hours. I then set out for my journey; as the door side was only made of wood. But the main safe, which is on the right of the prise of her crew at the mistake they had made, upon my return, after a few days, I anxiously the main sairs, which is on the right of the prise of her clew at the inistance may had made, upon my return, after a lew days, I anxiously Cashier's room, the thieves were unable to pe- as well as their curiosity to see the singular inquired after the boy, and was informed he was netrate, as the iron and stone work of which it is constructed defied all attempts to force it on the part of the most determined and resolute robbers. It is probable that the thieres were at robbers. It is probable that the thieres were at robbers. The probable of Sender, when the probable of Sender when the probabl learn that Mr. William Butler, "the oldest in- he answered—"Why do you wear that pennant, the man was left solely to his management. habitant" of Philadelphia, closed his carthly sir!" Because my country allows me to, Sir." His disorder, however, kept only gaining ground, till at length the apottectory considered him in habitant" of Philadelphia, close to the lost year and career on Saturday. He was in the lost year and if you don't take it down he will send to year great danger. At last, finding every efforts age, and until recently continued to walk him, and if you don't take it down he will send to year great danger. At last, finding every efforts age, and until recently continued to walk him, and if you don't take it down he will send to be of service to him be filed, he told me have the streets. He was likewise a soldier a force that will do it." Captain Rogers then for to be of service to him be filed, he told me have the streets. exclaimed to the engineer-uget the hot water he considered it to be a lost case, and that the engine ready." Although there was no such man could not survive twenty-four hours. On machine on board the vessel, it had the desired the apothecary thus giving him up, I determined ing six per cent, interest, was taken on the 21st effect, and John Bull was glad to paddle off as to try the effects of yeast; I gave him two large instant by Messrs. Jequelin, Taylor & Co. of fast as possible. On approaching the city, the spoonfuls, and in 15 minutes from his taking following effect. A young lady of great perint management of the perint of the perint of the yeast, his pulse, though still feeble, began to some attractions, the daughter of a farmer in the yeast, his pulse, though still feeble, began to ed with persons cheering the adventurous craft.

get composed and full. He in 32 minutes from the neighborhood, had formed an acquaintance bis taking it, was able to get up from his bed with a youth of wild and dissolute habits, and from London, came down to visit her, and were and walk in his room. At the expiration of the her parents in consequence forbade him very curious to ascertain her speed, destination, 2d hour, I gave him a bason of sage, with by the invitation of our minister at that court, by several noblemen, military and naval officers, luable presents of plate, &c. &c and we have from St. Petersburgh to Copenhagen, and thence to Arendal, in Norway, whence she returned to Savannah, where, after a passage of about 25 fifty persons labouring under putrid fevers; and had a, s, she arrived in safety—being the first steam what is singular (continues this benevolent the vessel that had ever crossed the Atlantic-and after performing a voyage highly creditable to American ingenuity and enterprise.

She used Liverpool coal for fuel, of which she only used her engines when not able to go the rate of four knots with her sails. By the great fire in Savannah her owners were compelled to sell her, and she was purchased to run as a packet between that place and New York, whither she was bound, under charge of Captain Nathan Holdredge, now master of the Liverpool packet ship United States-when she was on the south side of Long Island.

The following valuable article relative to the cure of Putrid Fover by yeast, is selected from the London Courier of the 30th March.

PUTRID FEVERS. A Scotch paper contains the following arti cle relative to the cure of this terrible malady inches out of place. Large flasks and various by yeast. The account is given in a letter writheavy timbers were hurled about in every dibe too extensively communicated, since it point the wind, that a mule standing in a cart was out a new resource for the preservation of hu een there many months before a putrid fever proke out among us. Finding by far the greater number of my parishioners too poor to afford themselves medical assistance, I undertook, by the help of such books on the subject of medical themselves medical assistance, I undertook by the worthy Steward and his amiable lady; cine as were in my possession, to prescribe for them. I early attended a boy about fourtee. cars of age, who was attacked by the fever. He had not been ill many days before the symptoms were unequivocally putrid. I then admi. generally refused nourishment, and spent the nistered bark, wine, and such other remedies as My exertions were, however, of no avail; his disorder grew every day at the very sight of a man. We are told that nore untractable and malignant, so that I was in her only lucid moments, she made discloin hourly expectation of his dissolution. Being sures, which, with other circumstances, leave inder the necessity of taking a journey, before I set off to see him, as I thought for the last her. A lady, to whom Louisa had brought lettime, and I prepared his parents for the event We find in the New London (Conn) Ga-of his death, which I considered as inevitable, time, learned that she was in the Hospital, and zette, the following particulars of the first steam and reconciled them in the best manner I was working. The sight brought to my recollection She was seen from the telegraph station, at an experiment 1 had somewhere met with, "of work during the whole of Sunday, when the of people came off in boats to see her. She wild part of the moors. The boy himself of merits and to the attractions around the work during the whole of Sunday, when the of people came of in boats to see her. She will plit of the monds. The body ministrice of merits and to the mirror around thein; a watchinen of the bank were absent. It seems was compelled to lay to outside the bar till the pened the door, looked surprisingly well, and mongst the number, Professor Hall, of Marywatching of the better from the instant he took land, a gentleman of talents and distinction, impossible that they could have succeeded in tide should serve for her to go in. During this told me he felt better from the instant he took land, a gentleman of talents and distinction. entering the bank if they had carried on their operations, of forcing sky lights, trap-doors, and door panels, while the watchmen were on ext.

We understand that the value of the jewelry that they come the bank is represented by the part is represented by the par We understand that the value of the jewelry and plate stolen from the bank is very considerable. A reward of $500 is offered by the bank Directors for the apprehenson of the daring villains who have committed the robbery.

The Pennsylvanian of yesterday says: "We The Pennsylvanian o

ment. At the suggestion of the United States Attorney, nine o'clock yesterday morning was fixed, as the District Attorney atted that it was important to have the question decided before he summoned his witnesses.

MOCKERY OF THE LAW.

The trial of John Wilson, who it may be remembered, officiated as speaker of the Arkansas

Mr. Hughes, the American minister, dired on board, and took an excursion among the neighboard, and took an excursion among the neighbouring Islands, with which they were much bearing Islands, with which they were in the last stage of a putrid fever. His tongue the last stage of a putrid fever. His tongue
the last stage of a putrid fever. His tongue
the last stage of a putrid fev about two hours, and found him sensible and a. renewed his intimacy with his former sweet. ble to converse; I then gave him a dose of bark; heart, and finally succeeded in exacting a proby several nonlement infinitely and naval officers, Die to converse; I then gave min a dose of bala; some inise that she would the next morning, run away who also tested her superior qualities by a trip he afterwards took at a proper interval, some inise that she would the next morning, run away to Cronstadt. Her officers received several varefreshment. I staid with him till he repeated gone on a tour to the graines, is search of game, the yeast, and then left him with directions how and was not expected to return for several to proceed; I called upon him apparently well, days. He had his mustivings however; and now before us a superb gold snuff box, which to proceed; I called upon him the next morning now before us a superb gold snuff box, which to proceed; I canted upon him apparently well, days. He had his most vining however; and was presented to her sailing master, Capt. at nine o'clock; I found him apparently well, returning home late at night, he was a horified and walking in his garden. He was an old witness of his own dishonour. Without atman upwards of 70.

All have since administered the yeast to above

man) I have not lost a patient."

The above has been handed to us by a gentleman in this city, who has lost two children by the fever which has been so prevalent and fatal of late. He had a third child who was wood for kindling. She had no freight, and taken ill, and this prescription having come to ile, and the moment the casen ent was opened his knowledge, he made the experiment, which fired with uncering aim, and they both fell a. was happily crowned with success. We shall be happy to record farther proofs of its efficacy. Edinburgh, March, 1799

From the Mobile Examiner.

SHAMEFUL.

The following article is from yesterday's Monitor. We are assured the facts are true, and delicacy alone prevents us from giving further particulars. The monsters who have been guilty of this outrage deserve the severest re-prehension of the public; and we hope the matter may be inquired into. If there be no law to reach the case—let public orinion set its guard received the package, and took it to the ondemnation upon it:—

"AFFECTING DEATH.—A melancholy case since, she was carried in a state of derange-inent to the City Hospital, by these gentlemen, The presumption therefore is that it is now in the hands of a thief. out these with the skilful treatment of the at tending physicians, were of no avail in restor-ing her lost reason and health. Her situation excited the deepest sympathy. She slept little, nost of her time in walking the floor, in great agitation, which was increased beyond degree no room to doubt that violence had been done ters of introduction, last week, for the first where she died on Saturday last-a victim, it is SHANNONDALE SPRINGS.

This delightful watering place, has been pur-chased by a Company who have erected extensive improvements for the accommodation of granting a further delay, to correct the error those who may visit it for health, or recreation that you have committed. The full moon of from the toil and bustle of a city life. In re- May is already on the wane, and before another ferring the attention of its readers to the adverisement, the Charlestown, Va. Press says:

The truth of the statements there made concerning this beautiful and valuable establishment, can be fully attested by all who have ever had the pleasure of a visit or who have land an you and I must now obey. By the treaty, opportunity of fairly testing the beneficial effects the emigration was to have been completed of the waters. Many distinguished gentlemen on or before the 23d of this month; and the land, a gentleman of talents and distinction. My troops already occupy many positions who, in a long letter upon the subject says, in the country that you are to abandon, and Springs." Of the medicinal virtues of these duty in mercy. We are commanded by the waters, this gentleman also speaks in the highest

A DOMESTIC TRAGEDY. A tragedy of a painful and appalling character, was recently perpetrated in the western part of Alabama. The particulars as recorded in the Lakeville Express are somewhat to the sonal attractions, the daughter of a farmer in the neighborhood, had formed an acquaintance with a youth of wild and dissolute habits, and has near the sonal possible to avail conflicts. The blood of the red man, may be spilt, and if spilt, however accidenthouse, and exerted themselves to sever the con-nection, by providing "Miss Julia Maria" with a general war and carnage. Think of this of this delicious fruit look extra year, lavours an abundant crop years plants. Indeed all kinds of fruit look extra had offered a large reward to any one who had one who had offered a large reward to any one who had one who had one who had years past. Indeed all kinds of from St. Helena, it was suspected that that was the bark as before; at the next hour afterwards I gave him ing performed the ceremony, the happy couple" or, and have been present at many a score well—pears, plums, apples, &c., indicate a heavy yield.—Mount Holly Herald.

The description of shughter; but spare me, I besee it you have bark as before; at the next hour he had food; set off for their home on the borders of the great of shughter; but spare me, I besee it you have bark as before; at the next hour he had food; set off for their home on the borders of the great of shughter; but spare me, I besee it you have bark as before; at the next hour he had food; set off for their home on the borders of the great of shughter; but spare me, I besee it you have bark as before; at the next hour he had food; set off for their home on the borders of the great of shughter; but spare me, I besee it you have bark as before at the next hour he had food; set off for their home on the borders of the great of shughter; but spare me, I besee it you have bark as before; at the next hour he had food; set off for their home on the borders of the great of shughter; but spare me, I besee it you have been present at many a score. the object of the Savannah. After remaining next had another dose of yeast, and then went prairie, and for six months the lady appeared the horror of witnessing the destruction of 25 days in Liverpool, during which time ske to bed; it was nine o'clock; he told me he had a perfectly reconciled to her lot, and exerted her- the Cherokees. was visited by thousands of people of all ranks, good night, and was recovered. I however result to love, honour and obey her liege lord,—and her officers were treated with marked atwith his rifle and dogs, he met his former rival preparations for emigration as you can, and tempting to disturb the guilty pair, he fired hie house in three places, the flames creeping through the upper stories, and encircling the soef of his onen happy home. The wretched women and her paramour were aroused from their addterous dreams by the flames, and rushed to the windows to save themselves has leaping out, but below stood the infuriated hust and with his ri-

From the Philadelphia Eng airer.

A PACKAGE LOST, CONTALNING UP.
WARDS OF TWENTY THOUSAND DOLLARS.

mid the burning ruins.

We learn that a package containing Bank notes and drafts to the amount of about twenty. two thousand dollars, was made up by four of the Philadelphia Brokers on Wednesday last and placed in the hands of the Mail guard between this city and New York, with the object of having it conveyed to the latter city. The lice at Third and Willow streets at five o'clock. When the mail drove up, the guard, being in mental derangement and consequent death has recently occurred in this city. Late in the au. tunn of last year, Louisa Parnier, a young woman of French descent, about twenty years of age, arrived in this city from Philadelphia, to nevolent clergyman) to reside at Brampton, a populous village near Chesterfield. I had not attending a fancy store. About two months

> THE CHEROKEES. The following official paper is copied from he Globe of yesterday:

lajor General Scott, of the United States Army sends to the Cherokee people remaining in North Carolina, Georgia, Tennessee and Alabama, this ADDRESS.

CHEROKEES! The President of the United States has sent me, with a powerful army to cause you in obedience to the to join that part of your people who are already established in prosperity on the other side ters of introduction, last week, for the first time, learned that she was in the Hospital, and caused her to be removed to her own house, which were allowed for the purpose, you have there she died on Saturday last—a rictim, it is suffered to pass away without following, and without making any preparation to follow, and now, or by the time that this solemn address shall reach your distant settlements, the emigration must be commenced in haste, but, I hope, without disorder. I have no power by shall have passed away, every Cherokee, man, woman, and child, in those States, must be in otion to join their brethren in the far West.

My FRIENDS! This is no sudden determination on the part of the President, whom

I am come to carry out the determination. and such is also the wish of the whole people of America.

Chiefs, head men and warriors! Will you, then, by resistance, compel us to resort to arms? God forbid! Or will you, by flight, seek to hide yourselves in mountains and forests, and thus oblige us to hunt you down? Remember that, in pursuit, it may be imtheir ly, it may be impossible for the discreet and

Do not, I invite you, even wair for the close approach of the troops; but make such places, and thence at your case, and in com-fort, be transported to your new homes ac-cording to the terms of the tresty.

This is the address of a warrior to warri-than his negrostica by hindle continue.

May his entreaties be kindly received, and may the God of both prosper the Americans and Cherokees, and preserve them long in peace and friendship with each other! WINFIELD SCOTT.

Cherokee . Igency, May 10, 1838.

From the Savannah Georgian, May 23.

FROM FLORIDA. The following extracts of letters, with which we have been favoured, furnish the litest intelligence from the posts in East Florida, west of the St. Johns. Extract of a letter, dated

"FORT BROOKE, May 9th, 1838. "Gen. Armistead and staff, and Major Wilson, with three companies 4th Infantry, will leave to-day for the Cherokee Nation via New Orleans, the Mississippi and Tennessee rivers, to Calho:in, which they exnessee rivers, to Calhein, which they ex-pect to reach in :5 days. There is nothing tanks of Damascus were cent their joy at the defe new here. "Gen. Taylor is at Pease Creek with Alligator and some 300 Indians and negroes. Alligator thinks he can bring in Wild Cat Sam Jones. I do not pelieve he can. Gen Jesup, I presume, will leave in a few days for the eastern part of the peninsula."

Extract of another letter, dated "Micanort, (Flor.) May 14, 1838. I have no news to communicate. We hore to be able soon to move against the enemy. They are becoming very bold and impudent—cross our roads in every direction, and come within haif a mile of the fort. Our express men from Fort King are fired on every time they pass. They must be punished, and Major Riley contemplates an expedition round Orange Lake, as soon as Capt. Smith arrives with his 35 men, and - comes from Tampa with a company of mounted infantry. The last are expected every inoment; and an order for Smith has been issued. It is certainly the most important enterprise that can be undertaken in Florida, and if success attend it, the terminas S. Alexander, E every inoment; and an order for Smith has nation of the war may be the result. The and others are comp enemy can muster a large force. They have Harwood, Harriet Har a town on the Ok-la-wa-ha-have collected wood are defendants there their women and children, are plant- expose at Public Sale ing, and feel confident of security. If broken and dispersed, their wives captured, and Farm late the reside fields laid waste, I am certain many will Richard Harwood of come in immediately and the rest will soon hereafter described, a follow. It is at least worth the trial, and the season is now fair. A month hence will be too late."

All the Montreal Banks have resumed specie payments and it is expected all the banks of Up-per Canada will soon follow the example.

SNOW STORM AND GREEN PEAS. On the 19th of April, a very severe snow storm occurred in London, and on the same day green peas were selling for eight guineas a "Westward the Star of Empire takes its way." The Peoria Register announces the arrival at that place of the steam boat Princeton, with about 150 emigrants on board, who design settling in the neighborhood of Oregon city. They embarked at Wheeting, and carried with them all the necessary implements of husbandry and larmes Harper, Schousehold furniture to the amount of about 75 tons. It seems they have gone there prepared is amply supplied where the larmer to here.

FOREIGN.

TWO DAYS LATER FROM EUROPE. Ily the ship Carroll of Carrollton, Capt. Bird, the editors of the Journal of Commerce have received London papers to April 26th, and Liver-pool to the 27th, both inclusive. The C. of Carrollton brings one box of gold, amount unknown. The cotton market was active and the adrance of 1d per lb on the prices of the week ending April 20th, of which we have before been edvised, was fully maintained.

LONDON, April 25th-Evening.-The commercial advices which have been received from payment of the pur the United States are considered to be far from this actory by those who are more immediately chasers conveying connected with the commerce of "the model republic." In the British stock market there was more disposition manifested for investments in money stock this morning, and it caused an advance of about 2 per cent. in Consols and the Three-and a half per Cents. Consols for money touche 931, but the closing quotations receded to 931a1 money and account.

Business in the Foreign bonds has been very limited. United States Bank stock is 251.

London, April 26 .- The despatch of Sir Francis Head is the main topic of interest, and hi personal presence in this city, having arrived in the same vessel that brought his despatch, will Court of Arrived rather increase than diminish the feeling which of Maryland, the so remarkable a document is calculated to produce .- Morning Herald.

Crow's Nest .- Two rooks have recently taken up their abode in a singular position, at the back of Mr. Lyon's house. Bold street, above Slater street. There are, we believe, but three trees in the yard, yet in one of them the rooks have for about a week been engaged in building a nest. A third rook made his appearance a day or two since, but was beaten off as an intruder.

Letters from Bordeaux of the 21st inst. mention that deplorable ravages had been made in some of the wine districts by the late and continued frosts and storms. The German journals referred to by the Paris affirmed that the Hungari Prince Esterhazy for the Victoria, will cost half a m I can believe this, since th dorned with eilver and d florins."—Dutch paper. A "BAYONNE, April "A party opposed to D in the Basque provinces this device-Peace and gardy is at its head in th Some Carlist troops from it without success."

Syma. - A recent lette quoted by the "Leipsic late accounts from Be Egyptians had lost 20,00 tained to have been exag the Druses, but the celel the right arm of Ibrahim town with 6000 picked ROME.—On Palm Sur son performed in the for

Chapel, the ceremonies Among other foreigners Bruggenoun, Russian co who appeared in his office admitted to kiss his Hol according to the custom from his iloliness the co REFERENCE OBITE Died, at Lebanon, o

26th instant, ELIZABE Thomas, Esq., in the thi TRUSTE day of June next, at of the said Richard deceased, consisting of ABLE NEGRUES of rent ages, and also I Utensile, and House niture, &c. &c. The personal estate are, not exceeding six mo And also on FRID at 12 o'clock, M. on scribers will expose residue of the REAL of the said Richard !

ceased, consisting of 1,000 ACR called "SUMMER South River, in Ann joining the lands of ing advantageously arms or plantations the Farm a comm LING HOUSE, an every description. The terms on w equal instalments punctions, and in two day of sale, respec The credit sales estates are to bear and are to be secu ties to be approved cause and those cla JOSEPH H ALEXANDE

May 24. The Chronicle, ore: the Globe, a Washington, will wask till the day

PUB DAY the 7th day the Personal Est

thington, late of sisting of Horses, Cattle, Utensils of a and Kitchen

TERMS.-T Cash for all sums all sums of Two redit of six mo haser giving bo NICH'S. J. W May 24.