

completed some family arrangements. The unsuspecting husband invited his friend to pass a day or two with him, saying that although he should be going to Laksville the next day, the other could amuse himself until his return by shooting the prairie hens, or fishing in a fish pond, whichever he pleased. The other consented, and returned to the house with the hospitable farmer. The next day, the young man renewed his intimacy with his former sweet heart, and finally succeeded in exacting a promise that she would the next morning, run away with him. The husband, in the meantime, had gone on a tour to the prairie, in search of game, and was not expected to return for several days. He had his misgivings however, and returning home late at night, he was a horrified witness of his own dishonour. Without attempting to disturb the guilty pair, he fired his house in three places, the flames creeping through the upper stories, and encircling the roof of his once happy home. The wretched woman and her paramour were aroused from their delirious dream by the flames, and rushed to the window to save themselves by leaping out, but below stood the infuriated husband with his rifle, and the moment the casement was opened fired with unerring aim, and they both fell amid the burning ruins.

From the Philadelphia Eng. Jour.
A PACKAGE LOST, CONTAINING UPWARDS OF TWENTY THOUSAND DOLLARS.

We learn that a package containing Bank notes and drafts to the amount of about twenty thousand dollars, was made up by four of the Philadelphia Brokers on Wednesday last, and placed in the hands of the Mail guard between this city and New York, with the object of having it conveyed to the latter city. The guard received the package, and took it to the office Third and Willow streets at five o'clock. When the mail drove up, the guard, being in haste, as he says, left the package in the passenger's office, and proceeded to take charge of the mail. He remembered no more of the matter until his arrival in New York, and then the apprehension flashed upon his mind, that he had left the package behind. He returned forthwith by the boat of yesterday morning, and on making search at the office where he supposed he had left the package, it was not to be found. The presumption therefore is that it is now in the hands of a thief.

THE CHEROKEES.

The following official paper is copied from the Globe of yesterday:

MAJOR GENERAL SCOTT, of the United States Army sends to the Cherokee people remaining in North Carolina, Georgia, Tennessee and Alabama, this ADDRESS.

CHEROKEES! The President of the United States has sent me, with a powerful army, to cause you in obedience to the Treaty of 1835, to join that part of your people who are already established in prosperity on the other side of the Mississippi. Unhappily the two years which were allowed for the purpose, you have suffered to pass away without following, and without making any preparation to follow, and now, by the time that this solemn address shall reach your distant settlements, the emigration must be commenced in haste, but I hope, without disorder. I have no power by granting a further delay, to correct the error that you have committed. The full moon of May is already on the wane, and before another shall have passed away, every Cherokee, man, woman, and child, in those States, must be in motion to join their brethren in the far West.

MY FRIENDS! This is no sudden determination on the part of the President, whom you and I must now obey. By the treaty, the emigration was to have been completed on or before the 23d of this month; and the President has constantly kept you warned, during the two years allowed, through all his officers and agents in this country, that the treaty would be enforced.

I am come to carry out the determination. My troops already occupy many positions in the country that you are to abandon, and thousands and thousands are approaching from every quarter, to render resistance and escape alike hopeless. All those troops, regular and militia, are your friends. Receive them and confide in them as such. Obey them when they tell you that you can remain no longer in this country. Soldiers are as kind hearted as brave, and the desire of every one of us is to execute our painful duty in mercy. We are commanded by the President to act towards you in that spirit, and such is also the wish of the whole people of America.

Chiefs, head men and warriors! Will you, then, by resistance, compel us to resort to arms? God forbid! Or will you, by flight, seek to hide yourselves in mountains and forests, and thus oblige us to hunt you down? Remember that, in pursuit, it may be impossible to avoid conflicts. The blood of the white man, or the blood of the red man, may be spilt, and if spilt, however accidentally, it may be impossible for the discreet and humane among you, or among us, to prevent a general war and carnage. Think of this, my Cherokee brethren! I am an old warrior, and have been present at many a scene of slaughter; but spare me, I beseech you, the horror of witnessing the destruction of the Cherokees.

Do not, I invite you, even wait for the close approach of the troops; but make such preparations for emigration as you can, and hasten to this place, to Ross's Landing, or to Gunter's Landing, where you will all be received in kindness by officers selected for the purpose. You will find food for all, and clothing for the destitute, at either of those places, and thence at your ease, and in companies, to be transported to your new homes according to the terms of the treaty.

This is the address of a warrior to warriors. May his entreaties be kindly received, and may the God of both prosper the Americans and Cherokees, and preserve them in peace and friendship with each other!

WINFIELD SCOTT.
Cherokee Agency, May 10, 1838.

From the Savannah Georgian, May 23. FROM FLORIDA.

The following extracts of letters, with which we have been favoured, furnish the latest intelligence from the posts in East Florida, west of the St. Johns.

Extract of a letter, dated
"FORT BROOKE, May 9th, 1838.

"Gen. Armstrong and staff, and Major Wilson, with three companies 4th Infantry, will leave to-day for the Cherokee Nation via New Orleans, the Mississippi and Tennessee rivers, to Calhoun, which they expect to reach in 5 days. There is nothing new here.

"Gen. Taylor is at Pease Creek with Alligator and some 300 Indians and negroes. Alligator thinks he can bring in Wild Cat and Sam Jones. I do not believe he can.

"Gen. Jesup, I presume, will leave in a few days for the eastern part of the peninsula."

Extract of another letter, dated
"MACON, (Fla.) May 14, 1838.

"I have no news to communicate. We hope to be able soon to move against the enemy. They are becoming very bold and impudent—cross our roads in every direction, and come within half a mile of the fort. Our express men from Fort King are fired on every time they pass. They must be punished, and Major Riley contemplates an expedition round Orange Lake, as soon as Capt. Smith arrives with his 35 men, and comes from Tampa with a company of mounted infantry. The last are expected every moment; and an order for Smith has been issued. It is certainly the most important enterprise that can be undertaken in Florida, and if success attend it, the termination of the war may be the result. The enemy can muster a large force. They have a town on the Ok-la-wa-ha—have collected their women and children, are planting, and feel confident of security. If broken and dispersed, their wives captured, and fields laid waste, I am certain many will come in immediately and the rest will soon follow. It is at least worth the trial, and the season is now fair. A month hence will be too late."

All the Montreal Banks have resumed specie payments and it is expected all the banks of Upper Canada will soon follow the example.

SNOW STORM AND GREEN PEAS.

On the 19th of April, a very severe snow storm occurred in London, and on the same day green peas were selling for eight guineas a peck.

"Westward the Star of Empire takes its way."

The Peoria Register announces the arrival at that place of the steam boat Princeton, with about 150 emigrants on board, who design settling in the neighborhood of Oregon city. They embarked at Wheeling, and carried with them all the necessary implements of husbandry and household furniture to the amount of about 75 tons. It seems they have gone there prepared to live.

FOREIGN.

TWO DAYS LATER FROM EUROPE.

By the ship Carroll of Carrollton, Capt. Bird, the editors of the Journal of Commerce have received London papers to April 20th, and Liverpool to the 27th, both inclusive.

The C. of Carrollton brings one box of gold, amount unknown.

The cotton market was active and the advance of 1/4 per lb on the prices of the week ending April 20th, of which we have before been advised, was fully maintained.

LONDON, April 25th—Evening.—The commercial advices which have been received from the United States are considered to be far from satisfactory by those who are more immediately connected with the commerce of the model republic.

In the British stock market there was more disposition manifested for investments in money stock this morning, and it caused an advance of about 3 per cent. in Consols and the Three-and-a-half per cent. Consols for money touched 93, but the closing quotations receded to 93 1/2 money and account.

Business in the Foreign bonds has been very limited. United States Bank stock is 25 1/2.

London, April 26.—The despatch of Sir Francis Head is the main topic of interest, and his personal presence in this city, having arrived in the same vessel that brought his despatch, will rather increase than diminish the feeling which so remarkable a document is calculated to produce.

Morning Herald.

Crow's Nest.—Two rooks have recently taken up their abode in a singular position, at the back of Mr. Eyon's house, Bold street, above Slater street. There are, we believe, but three trees in the yard, yet in one of them the rooks have for about a week been engaged in building a nest. A third rook made his appearance a day or two since, but was beaten off as an intruder.

Letters from Bordeaux of the 21st inst. mention that deplorable ravages had been made in some of the wine districts by the late and continued frosts and storms.

The German journals referred to by the Paris papers state that the distress and the disasters occasioned by the late inundations in Hungary were beyond description. The houses destroyed amounted to 12,000.

A letter from Vienna of the 15th says—It is affirmed that the Hungarian drea, ordered by Prince Esterhazy for the coronation of Queen Victoria, will cost half a million of Dutch florins. I can believe this, since the Brandebourgs alone, adorned with silver and diamonds, cost 80,000 florins.—Dutch paper, April 24.

TELEGRAPHIC DESPATCH.

"BAYONNE, April 23, 8 o'clock A. M.

"A party opposed to Don Carlos has appeared in the Basque provinces, whose banners bear this device—Peace and privileges." Murragardy is at its head in the environs of Tolosa. Some Carlist troops from Andoain had attacked it without success."

Syria.—A recent letter from Constantinople, quoted by the "Leipic Gazette," says—The late accounts from Beirut, stating that the Egyptians had lost 20,000 men, are now ascertained to have been exaggerated. The inhabitants of Damascus were unable at first to conceal their joy at the defeat of the Egyptians by the Druses, but the celebrated Soliman Pacha, the right arm of Ibrahim, has since entered that town with 6000 picked men.

Rome.—On Palm Sunday, the Pope in person performed in the forenoon, in the Sisters' Chapel, the ceremonies ordered for this festival. Among other foreigners of distinction was M. Bruggenot, Russian councillor of government, who appeared in his official costume, and was admitted to kiss his Holiness's feet after which, according to the custom of the day, he received from his Holiness the consecrated palm branch.

NICHOLS J. WORTHINGTON, Adm'r.
May 24.

IN CHANCERY, 5th May, 1838.

Chancy Hoskins, and Mary his Wife, and Jarrett Hollingsworth, vs. Oliver Hollingsworth, and others.

THE object of the bill filed in this cause is to obtain a decree for the sale of the real estate of Isaac Hollingsworth, for the purpose of discharging the complainants' claims, the personal estate of said Isaac being insufficient for that purpose.

The bill states, that heretofore one Ananias Divers, the grandfather of complainants Jarrett and Mary, departed this life intestate, leaving among others the said Mary and Jarrett his heirs at law—That said Mary and Jarrett were his heirs at law in this way, they are the children of Cassandra Divers, a daughter of said Ananias, deceased, who intermarried with Isaac Hollingsworth, the father of said Mary and Jarrett, which said Cassandra died before her said father the said Ananias, deceased—That said Ananias deceased left a large real estate which descended to his heirs, and which, under a commission from this court was divided into two parcels, and valued and elected to be taken by Salathiel Divers, one of the heirs, and by Benjamin Buck, who had married Sarah Divers another of the heirs—That said Benjamin Buck, who had elected to take one of the parcels or lots of the real estate of said Ananias deceased, the valuation set upon the same by the commissioners, was ordered to pay or give bond to said Mary and Jarrett the sum of $7,388 00 with interest from the 9th March 1814—That said Isaac being the father of said Mary and Jarrett, and said Mary and Jarrett being minors, the said Isaac Hollingsworth, as natural guardian of said Mary and Jarrett, received at various times large sums of money from said Benjamin Buck, and was due to said Mary and Jarrett for their proportion of the value of the lands of said Ananias Divers, deceased, taken by said Benjamin Buck as aforesaid at the valuation of the commissioners, that is to say, the said Isaac Hollingsworth received from said Benjamin Buck the sums of money stated in the account filed with the said bill, at the times therein stated, all which he received as guardian of said Mary and Jarrett—That the said sum of money so received by said Isaac, he never paid to said Jarrett and Mary, but still owes the same—That the said Isaac Hollingsworth hath departed this life intestate, leaving the said Jarrett and Mary, and Oliver Hollingsworth, Elizabeth Hollingsworth, and Maria Hollingsworth, his heirs at law; and that said Isaac died seized in fee of a parcel of land lying partly in Harford, and partly in Baltimore county, containing about sixty acres, and having thereon a mill and the water rights thereto appendant—That after the death of said Isaac deceased, the Orphan's Court of Baltimore county granted administration on his personal estate to both Hollingsworth, the widow of said Isaac, and George W. Nabb—That the personal estate of said Isaac is insufficient to pay his debts, and that complainants have no means to obtain payment of their claims but by recourse to the real estate of said Isaac—That the said Oliver, Elizabeth and Maria, are infants. The amended bill states, that since the filing of the original bill the defendant, Oliver Hollingsworth, hath arrived at full age, and that he hath removed out of the state of Maryland.

It is thereupon Ordered, That the complainants by causing a copy of this order to be published in some newspaper once in each of three successive weeks before the 5th day of June next, give notice to the said respondent defendant, Oliver Hollingsworth, of the substance and object of the bill, that he may be warned to appear in this court in person, or by a solicitor, on or before the 20th day of October next, to shew cause, if any he hath, why a decree should not be passed as prayed.

WASHINGTON.

SUBSCRIPTION FOR THE FIFTH VOLUME OF THE CULTIVATOR, CONDUCTED BY J. BUEL.

Office, No. 3, Washington-street, Albany.

THE CULTIVATOR is a monthly publication of 16 pages, devoted to agriculture, on a sheet of the largest size of paper—28 by 40 inches. The price is ONE DOLLAR per annum, payable in advance. The postage on a volume of the Cultivator will not exceed 182 cents to any part of the Union, and within the state, and a circle of 100 miles, it will be but 12 cents. A volume will contain more than 200 pages quarto, will be illustrated with cuts of animals, implements, &c. and be furnished with a copious index. It will comprise as much letter press print as 1500 pages of common duodecimo—as much as the Penny Magazine, published by the British Society for the Promotion of Useful Knowledge, and which, at two dollars per annum, has been repeated to be the cheapest periodical any where published.

The Cultivator will continue to treat of the science of agriculture, to furnish instructions for the best models of practice in all the departments of husbandry, in horticulture, and other rural affairs, and to furnish useful lessons for the improvement of the young mind. The Conductor will endeavor to render it a present help, and a volume of useful reference, to all who have the ambition to distinguish themselves in rural labours and rural improvements—to help themselves and to benefit society.

Subscriptions to the above work received by
