every sixth year thereafter.
Sec. 25. And be it enacted. That in all elec. tions for governor, the city of Annapolis shall s, Ca- he deemed and taken as part of Anne Arundel Sec 26 And be it enacted. That the refetion of master and slave, in this State, shall not be abolished unless a bill so to abolish the same, shall be passed by a unanimous vote of the members of each branch of the General Assembly, and shall be published at least three months before a new election of delegates, and shall be confirmed by a unanimous vote of the members of each branch of the General Assembly at the next regular constitutional session after such new election, nor then, without full compensation to the master for the property of which he inafter shall be thereby deprived.

ounties

be con-degates

ree bal e chosen erson to ction for ken from second-the per-and elec rict; and e writ en

enceforth torial dis-

the provi

n forever said third esident of

of deleted to the him pre-gulate, by ections for e thereby;

ident, sav-returns, in-ind be en-of the per-h election, nt of the ws, on the g his elec-e; and all or legality erson voted re persons, er of legal delegates, ich one of which, up-and shall

Sec. 27. And be it enacted. That the city of Annapolis shall continue to be the seat of gov. rity of ernment, and the place of holding the sessions of the court of appeals for the Western Shore, and the high court of chancery.

Sec. 28. And be it enucted, That if this act shall be confirmed by the General Assembly, after a new election of delegates, in the first session after such new election, agreeably to the provisions of the constitution and form of go. and on vernment, then and in such case, this act, and ern Dis- the aiterations and amendments of the constitution therein contained, shall be taken and considered, and shall constitute and be valid as a allots in part of said constitution and form of governf which ment, any thing in the said constitution and en, shall form of government to the contrary notwith-

CHAPTER 81.

An act to confirm an act, entitled, an act to amend the Constitution and form of Government of the State of Maryland, passed at December session, eighteen hundred and thirty six, chapter one hundred and ninety seven.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryand, That the act entitled, an act to amend the constitution and form of government, of the State of Maryland passed at December .session, cceeding eighteen hundred and thirty-six, chapter one handled and ninety seven, be and the same is hereby ratified and confirmed.

THE SALMAGUNDI. AND MENTS OF REE DAT. COMIC ENGRAPINGS.

NEW PERIOUICAL, of a novel character, bearing the above appellation, will be commenced on the beginning of Janing shall dary, 1836. While it will formsh its pations with the leading features of the news of 10-2 e of dele- day, its principal object will be to serve up e entered a humorous compilation of the numerous liveertified by y and pungent sallies which are daily floating along the tide of Literature, and which, for the want of a proper channel for their pre-servation, are positively lost to the Reading world. Original wits and humorists of one faithful record of the scintillations of their self that no exertions on his part shall be perior in every respect to the preceding ones. imperial paper, equal in size and quality to that which is at present used for the Gentleman's Vade Mecuin. It is calculated that e address-

MORE THAN 500 ENGRAVINGS

f state, by will be furnished to the patrons of this Jour-op president and in one year—these, in addition to an ex-or the sestensive and choice selection of Satire, Criticism, Humour and Wit, to be circulated througo its columns, will form a Literary Banquet of a superior and attractive orders and the publisher relies with perfect confivotes, and dence on the liverality of the American pub-d resident lic, and the spirit and tact with which this ic, and the spirit and tact with which this which the expensive undertaking will be prosecuted, to the shall bear him successfully and profitably along with it. The Terms of THE SALMAGUNDI will be TWO DOLLARS per annun, payable inva-riably in advance. No paper will be furnish-ed unless this atipulation is strictly adhered to. Er Clubs of three will be supplied with the paper for one year, by forwarding a five the paper for one year, oy to wall of seven of the per-decided by will be supplied for the same term, by forwarding a ten dollar note. The papers that are sent out of the city will be carefully packed in strong envelopes, to prevent their rubbing in the mail.

THE SALMAGUNDS will be published on alternate weeks-otherwise is would be im possible to procure the numerous Embellishments which each number will contain-and the general interest it will afford must be enhanced by this arrangement.

Address, CHARLES ALEXANDER,
Athenian Buildings, Franklin Place, Philading term. delphia.

he Intuland Eastette.

ANNAPOLIS, THURSDAY, JUNE 28, 1826.

Printed and Published by JONAS GREEN. At the Brick Building on the Public Circle. Price-Three Dellars per annum.

A BY-LAW Authorising the laying of Curb on a portion & East-Street, and for other purposes.

[Passed May 14th, 1838.]
[Passed May 14th, 1838.]
[Passed May 14th, 1838.]

dined by the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Cummon Council of the city of men, and common council of the city of Annapolis, and by the authority of the same, That the City Commissioners be and they are hereby authorised and directed to cause that redy authorized and directed to cause that it of East atreet commoncing at the cor-r of Charley Henshaw's lot on said street, ner of Unaries Hensnaw's jot on said street, and cunning to the lower end of Jeremiah Highes' brick house on the corner of Fleet, street, to be graduated and curbed, and that they cause to be firted and established the breadth of the footway on that part of the said street directed to be curbed in pursues of the provisions of this hy-law said street directed to be curbed in pursu-ance of the provisions of this by-law.

Sec. 2 And be it catablished and ordain-ed by the authority affectaid. That the sum of one hundred and fifty dollars be and the

be the duty of each and every proprietor of a lot fronting on that portion of said street directed to be curbed by the provisions of this by-law, to cause the footway so far as the same shall bind on his, her or their lot, to be paved with good red paving brick, and each and every person who shall neglect to pave the same for the space of thirty days after being notified by the said Commissioners, or a majority of them, shall forfeit and pay the sum of Twenty Dollars for every week thereafter that the same may remain

JOHN MILLER, Mayor. May 17.

MAMMOTH SHEET. OFFICE OF THE SATURDAY NEWS }

Philadelphia, November 26, 1836.

The Saturday Gazerre.

Philadelphia, November 26, 1836.

The very liberal patronage bestowed on the Saturday NEWS, since its tonmencement in July last, and a desire to meet that patronage by corresponding exertions, have induced us this week to publish a Double Number—being the largest sheet ever printed in Philadelphia for any purpose, and the largest literary paper ever printed in the United States. To those of our friends who are practical printers, it need not be mentioned that this undertaking has involved commencement in July last, and a desire to serious mechanical difficulties. The largest period of the largest presses in Philadelphia is used for our ordinary impression—but this would accommodate only a single page of the mammoth sheet, and we were u-bliged, therefore, to work four forms at dif-ferent periods. The care used in preparing the paner—in removing and folding the sheets ac. can only be estimated by those who have seen the experiment made; and, added to the necessarily increased amount of composition, press work, &c., these supplementary expenses have made an aggregate cost, which would have deterred many from engaging, the anterpress of the supplementary of the engaging in the enterprize. A gain of two thousand new subscribers will not repay the actual cost of this single number.

We flatter ourselves that, besides its extraordinary size, this number presents at-tractions that entitle it to some attention.— It contains the whole of Friendship's Offering for 1857, the London copy of which costs $4, and has $84 closely printed pages of letter press. Distinguished as the present age, and particularly our own country, has been the present age. surnasses any former instance. For four cents subscribers to the Saturday News receive, in addition to their ordinary supply of miscellaneous matter, an English annual, the largest Jet received for the coming season; and they received for the conting seating receive it, moreover, in a form that, from its novely, gives it additional value.

Of the general character of the Saturday News we need not speak. That has now become so well known as to require no com-ment. We may take occasion to say, however, that in enterprize and resources we wield to no other publishers in this city or elsewhere, and we are determined that our paper shall not be surpassed. We have entered the field prepared for zealous competion, and we stand ready in every way to realize our promise, that no similar publication shall excel that which we issue. Our articles, both original and selected, we are not ashamed to test by any comparison which can be adopted; and there is no periodical in the United States, monthly or weekly, which might not be proud of many of our convibutors.

The issuing of this number may be regarded as an evidence of our intention and abilied as an evidence of our intention and abili-ty to merit success. Nor will it be the only effort—From time to time, as opportunity offers, we propose to adopt extraordinary means for the interest and gratification of our subscribers. L. A. GODEY, & Co.

PRINTING

Monthly expensed at this Office.

A NEW AND CHEAP PERIODICAL Attention is requested from our readers to the following prospectus of a new, and even a cheaper book periodical, which will be is-sued from this office in the first week of next January. It will not be in so convenient a form for binding as the present, with which it will in no way interfere, but it will make books cheap beyond all precedent. It will contain the works of the day, which are much sought after, but are comparatively dear, and which cannot penetrate the interior in any mode half so rapidly as by mail, in which volumes of books are prohibited. A fifty cent American reprint will be farnished ontire for from four to six centes a Marryat povel for twelve cents, and others in propor-

As but very few copies will be printed but what are actually subscribed for, those who must make their remitwish the Omnibus, must make their remittances at noce. Books at Newspaper Postage. WALDIE'S LITERARY OMNI-BUS.

NOVEL AND IMPORTANT LI-TERARY ENTERPRISE!! OVELS, TALES, BIOGRAPHY, VOTACES, TRA-VELS, REVIEWS, AND THE NEWS OF THE

IT was one of the great objects of "Wal-die's Literary," "to make good reading eneaper, and to bring literature to every man's door." That object has been accomplished; we have given to books wings, and they have flown to the uttermost parts of our vast continent, carrying society to the seclu ded, occupation to the literary, information to all. We now propose still further to reduce prices, and render the access to a literary banquet more than twofold accessibles we gave and shall continue to give in the quarto library a volume weekly for two cents quarto library a volume weekly for two cents a day; we now propose to give a volume in the same period for less than four cents a speak, and to aid as a piquant seasoning to the dish a few columns of shorter literary matters, and a summary of the news and events of the day. We know by experience and calculation that and calculation that we can go still furthe n the matter of reduction, and we feel that there is still verge enough for us to aim a offering to an increasing literary appetite that onering to an increasing interary appetite that mental food which it craves.

The Select Circulating Library, now as ever so great a favourite, will continue to make its weekly visits, and to be issued in a form for binding and preservation, and its price and form will remain the same But we shall, in the first week of January 1837, issue a huge sheet of the size of the largest newspapers of America, but on very superior paper, also filled with books of the newest and most entertaining, though in their several departments of Novels, Tales, Voyages, Travels, &c., select in their character. ed with reading such as usually should fill a weekly newspaper. By this method we hope to accomplish a great good; to enliven and enlighten the family circle, and to give to it, at an expense which shall be no consideration to any, a mass of reading that in book form would alarm the pockets of the prudent, and to do it in a manner that the most tical shell acknowledge "the power of con-centration can no farther go." No book which appears in Waldie's Quarto Library will be published in the Omnibus, which will be an entirely distinct periodical.

TERMS.

WALDIE'S . LITERARY OMNIBUS Will be issued every Friday morning, printed on pa-per of a quality superior to any other weekly sheet, and of the largest size. It will contain, 1st. Books, the newest and the best that can be procured, equal every week to a London duodecimo volume, embracing Novels, Travels, Memoirs, &c., and only chargeable with newspaper postage.

2d. Literary Reviews, Tales, Sketches, notices of books, and information from "the world of letters," of every description.

3d. The news of the week concentrated to a small compass, but in a sufficient amount to embrace a knowledge of the principal eto embrace a knowledge of the principal e-vents, political and miscellaneous, of Europe and America.

The price will be two dollars to clubs of five subscribers where the paper is forwarded to one address. To clubs of two individuals, five dollars; single mail subscribers, three dellars. The discount on uncurrent money will be charged to the remitter; the low price and superior paper absolutely prohibit paying a discount.

On no condition will a copy ever be sent until the payment is received in advance.

As the arrangements for the prosecution of this great literary undertaking are all made, and the proprietor has redeemed all his pledges to a generous public for many years, no fear of the non fulfilment of the contract can be felt. The Omnibus will be regularly issued, and will contain in a year reading mat-ter equal in amount to two volumes of Ree's Cyclopedia, for the small sum mentioned a-

Address, post paid,
ADAM WALDIE,
46 Carpenter St. Philadelphia.

"After the battle of Salamanea, as Lord Hill, the British General, was walking over the blood-stained field, he observed a soldier in a gloomy mood, leaning upon his fire-lock. Struck with his manner, he advanced and asked him what he was thinking of. The soldier, answering his commander's salute, replied-I am thinking, my Lord, of the number of widows and orphans have this day made for one shilling."

THE SOLDIER'S REVERIE.

He stood on Salamanca's plain.
When died away the battle's dist.
Around him seatinged lay the slain;
And grouns ane crise salatich him,
As many a bleeding, ghastly form
Rolled in its liferablood fresh and warm. Horsoman and rider overthrown
Now bit the dust in agody;
The soldier's widow's localy most (Like the wild Shell-drake's cry at sea,
When sinks the dying tempest's sound)
Awake the mountain echos round. The fight was e'er, the field was won, And victr'y claimed her loud huzza; The weary Soliier's work was done; The conquered and the Conquered Alike, amid the wreck of strife, Laid down to die, or wake to life. The shattered cannon smeared with gore,
The Silken Banner soiled and torn,
The jeweled cross the Hero wore,
The broken drum, the battered horn,
The hiltess sword, the pike—the dirk.—
All bore the marks of bloody work: All bore the marks of bloody work!

Twas eve; and, leening on his Gan
Wish breast by native courage steel'd.

In gloomy mood still lingered one Whose eye had glanced o'er many a field,
And whose fierce spirit ne'er withstood
A bidding to the feast of blood.

Long had he mused, when lo; a voice
Spoke harshly in his leaden ear:

"What bends the brow, while all rejoice!"
He turnod and saw his Loader near;
Then with a mien that well did soit,
Paid promptly the required salute.

"My General!"—and o'er him fell
A shade of deep and touching madness.—"My thoughts now vainly strive to tell

"How many widows in their sadness.

"And Orphans—Oh the dreadful trade!—
"For one poor shilling, I have made!"

Bright set the Sun o'er Ebro's hills. Bright set the Sun o'er Ebro's hills, And soft the silver moon beams abone On old Castilia's mountain rills, In death's cold sleep he grasped his gun! Washington, June, 1838; J. E. D.:

SLEEPING SINNERS.

Twas on a shining summer's day,
As stories quite old fashioned say,
A sleepy set of sinners,
Te church agreed that they would go,
Their sealous piety to show,
When they had eat their dinners.

Searce had the Parcon ta'en his text,
When he felt most exceeding vex'd,
To see his hearrs nod;
Proceeding with religious lore,
Ho quickly heard the steeper's snore,
Forgutting him and God.

And lot descending from his seat,
The Parson full of holy heat,
At locing thus his labour,
Tweak'd one's stout nose, then graceful bo
And said—"good sir, you snore so loud,
I fear you'll wake your neighbour."

MISCELT.ANEOUS.

ROMANCE OF THE NINETEENTH

We are wrong in supposing that all romance has evaporated, and that the reign of matters of fact and utility is absolute. Sometimes there is a little outbreak—a little rebellion. A circumstance has lately occurred in the South of France realizing a fairy tale. An old man, now aged seventy-nine, was obliged to leave France during the revolution; he had lost his wife, who left behind her two sons and a daughter. Forced to fly for his life, penniless and destitute, he passed the period of the exile of the boundary passed the period of the exile of the boundary passed the period of the exile of the boundary can't expect to rest.

If the clockmaker, seeing the storm gath the armies of the Empire.

Having religious to the storm gath ering stooped down suddenly, and staring intentions to the armies of the Empire.

Having religious to the storm gath ering stooped down suddenly, and staring intentions to the armies of the Empire.

If the content of the exile of the storm gath ering stooped down suddenly, and staring intentions to the armies of the Empire.

Having religious to the exile of the storm gath ering stooped down suddenly, and staring intentions to the armies of the Empire. passed the period of the exile of the Bourbons gotten by his friends, dispossessed of his estate, unable to gain any intelligence of his chiklren, he resigned himself with content to all the privations of poverty, and, with a courage worthy of fewer years, endeavoured to prevent his becom-ing a burthen to the charitable, by making himself useful in the office of a lawyer of some celebrity at Marsilles. One of the students of the office who had travelled in Italy, was struck with a resemblance between the old man and lady he had met in society at Milan. He asked him if he had a daughter in Italy. "I once had three children, but they are all dead," said he. The young man persisted in his inquiries, and the result was a conviction that the lady in question was the daughter of the emigre. "Sir," lan. I know her, she is the Countess Ottolini Visconti, the wife of a dignitary of the Austrian a month of Sundays. Black eyes—let me see said he, "your daughter lives in a palace at Mi Empire. It was true. Mr. Napollon had given his daughter in charge to a Milaness lady when I am alive; why you are mamma's own boy, the

THE ROAD TO A WOMAN'S HEART.

As we approached the Inn at Amherst, the clock maker grew uneasy. It's protty well on in the evening, I guess, said he, and Marm Png wash is ac onsertain in her temper as a more.

We were then shown into the next room, when the second in the contrary a pleasure. ing in April; it's all smakine or all clouds with a ware use are was now blazing up, but Mr. her tantrums; she'll stretch out her neck and hiss like a goose with a flock of goslins. I two strength on airth Pugwash was a thinkin on when he signed articles of partnership with if he had any sinis that looked like mamma. that are woman; she's not a bad looking piece of furniture either, and it's a proper pity sich a clever woman should carry sich a stiff upper lip
—she reminds me of our old minister Joshua Hopewell's apple trees. The old m inister had an orchard of most particular good fruit, for he was a great hand at buddin and graftin; and what not, and the or chard (it was on the nouth side of the house) stretched right to the road. Well, there were some trees hung over the festes, I never seen such bearers, the apples hung in ropes, for all the world like strings of onions, and the fruit was beautiful. Nobody touched the minister's apples, and when other folks lost there'n from the boys, his'n always hung there like bait to a hook, but there never was so much as a nibble at 'em. So I said to him one day, Minister, said I; flow on airth do you manage to keep your fruit that's so exposed, when no one can't do it no how. Why, says he, they are dreadful pretty fruit, ain't they? I guess, said I, there ain't the like on 'em in all Connecticut. Well, says he, I'll tell you the secret, but you need'nt let on to no one about it. That are row next the fence, I grafted it pryself, I took great pains to get the right kind. I sent clean up to Roxbernd away down to Squashneck creek. [I was afeard he was going to give day and date for every graft, being a terrible long winded man in his stories] so says I, I know that minister, but how do you preserve them? Why I was a-goin to tell you, said he, when you stopped me. That are outword row I grafted myself with the hoicest kind I could find, and succeeded, they are beautiful; but so eternal sour, no human sou can ent them. Well, the boys think the old minister's graftin has all succeeded about as cell as that row, and they search no farther. They snicker at my graftin, and I laugh in my sleeve, I guess, at their penetration. Now, Marm Pugwash is like the Minister's apples, very tempting truit to look at, but des perate sour. It Pugwash had a watery mouth when he married, I guess it's pretty puckerty by this time. However, if she goes to act ugly, I'll give her a dose of soft sawder," that will take the frown out of her frontispiece, and make her dial plate as smooth as a lick of copal varnish. It's a pity she's such a kickin devil, too, usu. It a pity and a such a kickin devil, too, she has good points—good eye—good foot—neat pattern—fine chest—a good set of limbe, and carries a good ——. But here we are, now you'll see what "soft sawder" will do.

When we entered the house, the traveller room was all in darkness, and on opening the opposite door into the sitting room, we for the female part of the family extinguishing the fire for the night. Mrs. Pogwash had a broom n her hand, and was in the act (the last act of female housewifery) of sweeping the hearth.—
The strong flickering light of the fire, as it fell upon her tall, fine figure, and beautiful face, re-vealed a creature worthy of the Clockmaker's

Good evening, marm, said Mr. Slick, how do you do, and how's Mr. Pugwash? He, said she. why he's been abed this hour, you don't expec to disturb him this time of night, I hope? Oh no said Mr. Slick, certainly not, and I am sorry to have disturbed you, but we got detained lon an inn when he has no occasion to, his ramily and shake hands along with me-well, I declare, if that are little feller ain't the finest child I ever seed-what, not abed yet? Ah. you rogue, where did you get them pretty rosy cheeks; stole them from mamma, eh? Well, I wish my old mother could see that child, it is such a treat In our country, said he, turning to me, the children are all as pale as chalk, or yeller as an orange. Lord, that are little feller would be a show in our country—come to me, my man.— Here the "soft sawder" began to operate. Mrs Pugwash said in'a milder tone than we had yet heard, "Go my dear to the gentleman—go dear." Mr. Slick kissed him, asked him if he would go to the States along with him, told him all the girls there would fall in love with him, -ah mamma's eyes too, and black hair also, as two years old. All his letters written to her during his exile had miscarried. He supposed men, said Mrs. Pugwash—Sally, make a fire in during his exile had iniscarried. He supposed her dead. She had been well educated, and the beauty of her person and the graces of her mind had captivated an Italian of a noble family, who sought her hand. She knew the history of her sought her hand. She knew the history of her family, and had long supposed her father dead. She was made acquainted with the circumstances, and the result is an union of father and one human and another, as between this beauti-Or Editors throughout the Union, and Canada, will confer a favour by giving the above one or more conspicuous insertions, and accepting the work for a year as compensation.

Isamily, and man man man song supposed ner fainer dead.

She was made acquainted with the circumstanters, and accepting the above of the constitution of father and full little boy and his mother. I am sure you daughter after a separation of forty-seven years.

New York Americant.

where the fire was now blazing up, but Mr.

As the door closed, Mr. Slick said, it's a pity she don't go well in gear. The difficulty with those critters is to get them to start, after that there is no trouble with them if you don't check em too short. If you do they'll stop again, run back and kick like mad, and then Old Nick himself would'nt start 'em. Pugwash, I guess, don't understand the nature of the critter; she'll never go kind in harness for him. When I see a child, said the Clockmaker, I always feel safe with those women folk, for I have always found that the road to a soman's heart lies thro

NOTICE:

THE undersigned offers his services to the public as a Collector of Accounts and other evidences of debt against individuals, resident within the limits of the lower counties of Maryland and District of Commiss. He narroses (in the course of the lumbia. He purposes (in the course of the present season) visiting the counties of Anne-Arundel, Prince-George's, Calvert, Charles and St. Mary's. Persons having claims in all'or either of the said counties, can have them faithfully attended to by enclosing them, properly authenticated, per letters, (post paid) to F. M. JARBOE, Annapolis, Md.

The Balt. Athenaeum will copy the above.
N. B. He will also attend to the prepara-

DEEDS FOR THE SIMPLE TRANS-DERDS FOR THE STATE OF PROPERTY.
DERDS OF MANUMISSION.
BILLS OBLIGATORY.
BILLS OF SALE.
LETTERS OF ATTORNEY.
NOON VENT DAPERS Re. 8

INSOLVENT PAPERS, &c. &c. at his usual moderate prices.

Office a few doors below the Post Office.

know of no pursuit in which more real or important services can be rendered to any country, than by improving its Agriculture.

WASHINGTON.

SUBSCRIPTION

FOR THE FIFTH VOLUME OF THE OULTIVATOR, CONDUCTED BY J. BUEL.

Office, No. 3, Il ashington-street, Albany.

THE CULTIVATOR is a monthly publi-cation of 16 pages, devoted to agricul-ture, on a sheet of the largest size of paper —28 by 40 inches. The price is one pollar per annum, payable in advance. The postage on a volume of the Cultivator will not exceed 18 cents to any part of the Union, and within the state, and a circle of 100 miles, it will be but 12 cents. A volume will contain more than 200 pages on a will will contain more than 200 pages quarto, will be illustrated with cuts of animals, implements, &c. and be furnished with a copious index. It will comprise as much letter press print as 1500 pages of common dupilecim as much as the Penny Magazine, published by the British Society for the Promotion of Useful Knowledge, and which, at two dollars per annum, has been reputed to be the cheapest periodical any where published.

The Cultivator will continue to treat of the science of agriculture, to furnish instructions for the best t the departments of husbandry, in horticul-ture, and other rural affairs, and to furnish useful lessons for the improvement of the young mind. The Conductor will endeavour to render it a present help, and a vo-lume of useful reference, to all who have the ambition to distinguish themselves in rural labours and rural improvements—to help themselves and to benefit society

Subscriptions to the above work re-

A. COWAN. Annapolis. N. B. Those who wish the Cultivator will please send their subscription by the 10th of Pebruary next. A. C.

FOR ANNAPOLIS, ST. MICHAELS, AND WIE LANDING.

The Steamboat MA-RYLAND will leave
Baltimore on SUNDAY MORNING NEXT, at eight o'clock, for the above places from the lower end of Dugan's wharl. Returning the next day, leaving Wye Landing at 8 o'clock for St. Michaels, Annapolis and Baltimore. She will continue this route throughout the season. Passage to Ahuspolis 81 50, to St. Michaels and Wys Landing 82 50.

N. B. All Bassage at the owner's risk.

May 26.