NEW PERIODICAL, of a novel cha-A racter, bearing the above appellation, will be commenced on the beginning of January, 1836. While it will furnish its patiens with the leading features of the news of the day, its principal object will be to serve up a humorous compilation of the numerous livey and pungent sallies which are daily floating along the tide of Literature, and which, for the want of a proper channel for their preservation, are positively lost to the Reading vorld. Original wits and humorists of our time will here have a medium devoted to the faithful record of the scintillations of their genius. It is not necessary to detail the many attractions which this journal will pos-sess, as the publisher will furnish a specimen number to every person who desires it-(those out of the city, will forward their orders, postage paid) _____and he pledges him-

MAMMOTH SHEET. Office of the Saturday News } Philadelphia, November 26, 1836.

THE very liberal patronage bestowed on the SATURDAY NEWS, since its summencement in July last, and a desire to meet that patronage by corresponding exer-tions, have induced us this week to publish tions, have induced us this week to publish a Double Number—being the largest sheet ever printed in Philadelphia for any purpose, and the largest literary paper ever printed in the United States. To those of our friends who are practical printers, it need not be mentioned that this undertaking has involved events machanical difficulties. The largest perious mechanical difficulties. The largest mer one of the largest presses in Philadelphia is used for our ordinary impression— but this would accommodate only a single but this would accommodate only a single sage of the mammoth sheet, and we were obliged, therefore, to work four forms at different periods. The care used in preparing the paper—in removing and folding the sheets, &c., can only be estimated by those who have seen the experiment makes and sheets, &c., can only be estimated by those who have seen the experiment made; and, added to the necessarily increased amount of composition, press work, &c., these supple taentary expenses have made an aggregate cost, which would have deterred many from engaging in the enterprize. A gain of two thousand new subscribers will not repay the actual cost of this sincle number.

thousand new subscribers will not repay the actual cost of this single number.

We flatter ourselves that, besides its extraordinary size, this number presents attractions that entitle it to some attention.—
It contains the whole of Friendship's Offering for 1837, the London copy of which costs 84, and has 384 closely printed pages of letter press. Distinguished as the present age, and particularly our own country, has been and particularly our own country. has been for cheap reprints, we believe this surpasses any former instance. For four cents subscriany former instance. For four cents subscribers to the Saturday News receive, in addition to their ordinary supply of miscellaneous matter, an English annual, the largest yet received for the coming season; and they receive it, moreover, in a form that, from its novelty, gives it additional value. Of the general character of the Saturday News we need not speak. That has now become so well known as to require no com ment. We may take occasion to say, however, that in enterprize and resources we yield to no other publishers in this city or elsewhere, and we are determined that our paper. Il not be surpassed. We have entered the field prepared for zealous competition, and we stand ready in every way to reation, and we stand ready in every way to reation, and we stand ready in every way to reation, and we stand ready in every way to reation, and we stand ready in every way to reation, and we stand ready in every way. ever, that in enterprize and res shall excel that which we issue. Our articles, both original and selected, we are not ashaned to test by any comparison which can be a-dopted; and there is no periodical in the U-nited States, monthly or weekly, which might not be proud of many of our confributors. The issuing of this number may be regarded as an evidence of our intention and abili-ty to merit success. Nor will it be the only effort—From time to time, as opportunity offers, we proprose to adopt extraordinary means for the interest and gratification of our
