Office of the Saturday News AND LITERARY GAZETTE. Philadelphia, November 26, 1836.

THE very liberal patronage hestowed on the SATURDAY NEWS, since its commencement in July last, and a desire to meet that patronage by corresponding exer-tions, have induced us this week to publish a Double Number—being the largest sheet ever printed in Philadelphia for any purpose, ever printed in Philadelphia for any purpose, and the largest literary paper ever printed in the United States. To those of our friends who are practical printers, it need not be mentioned that this undertaking has involved serious mechanical difficulties. The largest -or one of the largest presses in Philadelphia is used for our ordinary impression—but this would accommodate only a single page of the mammoth sheet, and we were obliged, therefore, to work four forms at difrent periods. The care used in preparing he paper-in removing and folding the sheets, &c., can only be estimated by those who have seen the experiment made; and, added to the necessarily increased amount of composition, press work, &c., these supple mentary expenses have made an aggregate cost, which would have deterred many from engiging in the enterprize. A gain of two thousand new subscribers will not repay the actual cost of this single number.

We flatter ourselves that, besides its extraordinary size, this number presents at-It contains the whole of Friendship's Offer-ing for 1837, the London copy of which costs 84, and has 384 closely printed pages of let-ter press. Distinguished as the present age, and particularly our own country, has been for cheap reprints, we believe this surpasses any former instance. For four cents subscribers to the Saturday News receive, in addition to their ordinary supply of miscellane ous matter, an English annual, the larges yet received for the coming season; and they receive it, moreover, in a form that, from its novelty, gives it additional value.

Of the general character of the Saturday

We may take occasion to say, howyield to no other publishers in this city or elsewhere, and we are determined that our paper shill not be surpassed. Our articles, both original and selected, we are not ashamed to test by any comparison which can be adopted; and there is no periodical in the United States, monthly or weekly, which might not be proud of many of our contributors.
