ois of no pursuit in which there cal or important services cun he endered to any country, than ly mproving its Agriculture.

WASHINGTON.

SUBSCRIPTION . . FIFTII VOLUME OF THE CULTIVATOR, CONDUCTED BY J. BUEL. fice, No. 3, Washington-street, Albany.

cation of 16 pages, devoted to agriculton an a. sheet of the largest size of paper 5 by 40 inches. The price is one Dollar annum, payable in advance. The postclume of the Cultivator will not ed 18% cents to any part of the Union. within the state, and a circle of 100 contain more than 200 pages quarte, will its, &c. and be furnished with a copiers It will comprise as much letter press nuch as the l'enny Magazi:er, published ful Knowledge, and which, at two dellars periodical any where published. The Culticutor will continue to treat of na for the best models of practice in all ing mind. The Conductor will endeaof useful reference, to all who have the ours and rural improvements—to help imselves and to benefit society. Subscriptions to the above work re-

A. COWAN, Armape

OUR THREE FIRST VOLUMES.

The second edition of vol. 1, and the st edition of the 2d and 3 vols. of the Calator, being about expended, and the deand for them continuing unabated, we are inting another edition, which will be cometed with all despatch. Orders will, in e mean time, be received, and the volumes rwarded to our agents in Boston, New ork, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Alexandria,

THE SALMAGUNDI, TACETH TO SWEEK CK. COMIC E. AVINGS.

NEW PERIODICAL, of a novel character, bearing the above appellation, ill be commenced on the beginning of Janry, 1836. While it will furnish its pations th the leading features of the news of the and pungent sallies which are daily float-THE SALMAGUNDS will be printed on large nperial paper, equal in size and quality to the twhich is at present used for the Gentle-an's Vade Mecum. It is calculated that URE THAN

500 ENGRAVINGS

ill be turnished to the patrons of this Jour-al in one year—these, in addition to an exnaire and choice selection of Satire, isin, Humour and Wit, to be circulated anquet of a superior and attractive order; not the publisher relies with perfect confi-ence on the liberality of the American pubc, and the spirit and tact with which this spensive undertaking will be prosecuted, to ear him successfully and prefitably along

The Terms of THE SALMAGENDI will be WO DOLLARS per annum, payable inva-lably in advance. No paper will be furnishd unless this stipulation is strictly adhered d unless this stipulation is strictly adhered to. LPClubs of three will be supplied with the paper for one year, by forwarding a five ollar note, postage paid. Clubs of seven will be supplied for the same term, by forwarding a ten dollar note. PThe papers hat are sent out of the city will be carefully acked in strong envelopes, to prevent their ubbing in the mail.

THE SALMAGUNDI will be published on Iternate weeks-otherwise is would be im ossible to procure the numerous Embellishments which each number will contain—and he general interest it will afford must be eaanced by this arrangement.

Address, CHARLES ALEXANDER, Athenian Buildings, Franklin Place, Phila-

PRINTENG Neatly executed at this ORRIGE.

The Atarpland Gazette.

IOL. XCIII.

Printed and Published by JONAS GREEN. At the Brick Building on the Public Circle. Price-Three Dollars per annur.

from the N Y. Commercial Advertiser. The touching stenzas which we give below, are from the Christian Keepsake, and were written by Mrs. Larned, of Providence. We think them very beautiful-perhaps they may stake others differently. THE DYING BOY.

The following lines were written after reading an account of the death of a young mother not three children, from the inhuman neglect of the hurb no and father. The wife was to ker suddenly ill, and left alone with her little once, while her husoand went to procure a phy. siciar, and other needful assistance, the nearest house being over two miles distant; but he forenterery thing save his own depraved appe hite, became intoxicated before accomplishing his enand, remained so for a week, and on his re um found them all dead. It is supposed that the mother died soon after the birth of her child, and that the child struggled longestthat in trying to soothe his expiring sister, be sink dewn from weakness beside her, and could not at last release his self frem her grasp.

Oh! mether dear, my lips are dry,
And Bessy's hands are cold;—
Mether, dear mother; halp me nigh
Your bosom— surely you can hold
Your little bey. I will not cry.
Nor rek agein for drink or bread,

Nor rek sgain for drink or bread,
If you will only let me lio
Upon your breast, and hold my head.
Oh, mother! call your little boy
To your bedside—he'll try to crawl;
Your said I was your only joy.
Your darling Henry, and your all:
And then, you looked and screamed out so
"Boy' to your crue I father go.
Why do you weep and wail to me?
Fig! flyte Fro nathing here for thee!"
Dealt eres to on me, mother dealt,

Fig. fight Free naturing here for the Control of th

Wile open on your starting eye:
Mether! how can you lie to still
With the dead belog in your arms?
Who did the little deer one kill?
You said thexe now safe from all harms
Can't I be dead too, mether, cay?
I'm sure 'tis very lonescene here—
Is heaven a very great long wy?
And is our father waiting there?

And is car father waiting interes.

In tired now, and carnot ge.
And the bright sun does blind me so:
Oh, shut your eyes, dear mother do!
And let no loss to gize on you.
How on you see us lying thus.
On this itsel floor—our feet so cold?
Once you would foarly run to us,
And round us both the blankets fold.

And round us both the blankets work.

I'm falling—ch! the room turns round—
I cannot see you now.—I ut hark!
I lear a soft and pleasant sound;
Perhaps it is the little lark.
I love such sounds as these to hear,
And it is dark no longer now;
Dear little girls, with wings are near,
And they are smiling on me too.

On the shall rooms on weet and clear— Oh, 'tis their songs so sweet and clear— I think I hear them softly say,

Dear children stay no longer here;— Come, come with us, we'll lead the way— It must be heaven where they dwe'll: come!-1 come!-Mother, farewell!

MISCELLANEOUS.

ESCAPE OF THELLER AND DODGE FROM QUEBEC.

Quebec, and subsequently from the hot pursuit which was kept up after them, has excited the following account of the manner in which the

escape was effected:
We arrived in Quebec on Sunday the tenth of June, and were received at the wharf by a strong guard of the 1st regiment of Grenadier Guards-Her Majesty's Household Troops, and escorted by them to the citadel, amid the grouns and hisses and execuations of a Tory mob, prepared for the occasion; spat upon, reviled and tormented by them in every way their ingenuity could invent, they followed us all the way. unthe game of the fort shut us out from thenfrom their abuse of us and of our country. We were confined in one of the bomb proof, casemated rooms, that served as the prison for the military prisoners. It was furnished as an ordinary prison. Iron bedstends, iron staples, on which was placed boards for a table and the ordinary enches-it was about twelve feet broad and fif ty feet deep-two windows in the front strongly barred with iron—and in the back part were small loopholes for musketry both in front and in the rear were placed board fences of twelve feet high, inside of which was stationed a sentinel who could watch all our motions. Anothersentinel was placed outside of the fence, two others were placed in the rear, and one on the top of the roof on the wall. These five were put on for our especial protection and kept on still after. We had some trouble at first and some little hardship respecting provisions, but hearted old man, we were very liberally supplied, viz:-we had no complaints to make. We lived in daily expectations of hearing something respecting our fate, but when two months had passed and nothing had taken place, we be the way of making our escape. Many were the plans proposed, but at last it was decided front window and climbing the fence in the prebe attended with more likelihood of success; be rides the very boldness of the measure would down on the other side quite easy, owing to preven suspense eyes entering the mind of the closes which Mr. Dodge had fustamed to the ad procure some implements to cut one of the bars of the window, and taking advantage or the tour doors as well as those on the different pass within a few feet of us. other porte which we must unavoid abyp somese would venture out get to the walls and try out had changed quard, and I had seen with plea forme in getting over th m. three at a time guarded by sex soldiers with house. Again we moved forwards on our hands fixed beyonets, and as we constraily stopped for | and knees, one after the other, when we were me time on the elluting batteries, we saw occamonally a triend, to one or waken we shipped operation, by supplying us with tools, and in directing a place where they might be laid The next day we received the tools required, wrapped up in one of your Gazettes with a line posed, we need give our-elves no trouble after we would get out, as a friend would, when we my person, while the s rgeent's and corporal's attention, who were standing beside us, was oc-

matter now calmly. I wone r has we are ably could have escaped detection is welff a bor of rather hard, and I could hear it prom credit sing, &c., and thus drowned the sound we to the conversation that would suit him best here and in London-London porter-Barciay ale-beel, &c. were always the general topic on which they all could converse. In the course of a fortright the signal was given to our iriand that all was ready for the first derk and rainy night, which we waited for with the greatest anxiety. In the meantime I had heard of my being about to be sent to England, and after some time, by a letter received from ler and Dodge, from the impregnable fortress of Mr. Secretary Bull r, I was informed that a bresures of the guns, or a kind of half sally therchant vessel called the Royal Adetaide, had port. been chartered to take no there, and that she each day when we went out, we used to look could do nothing else. well at the vessel and think when she would be regularly kert every night looking out for the invself over the wall. I hung by my hands for the 15th October, about seven o'clock, it rained called on Mr. Dodge to throw down the piece our preparations. Colonel Dodge and I had our cloaks rolled up, and each taking a change of tinen and what other little necessaries we wanted, made ready for the start; three out of the seven of the men confined with us volunteering to go with us and share our fate; the rest re mained. Although the bar had been sawed through, and had been so for upwards of six weeks, yet it took up a great deal of time to pry t off and to work the lower part out of the socket in which it was placed, so that we were not ready until eleven o'clock. We then gave the sentry a draught of porter, in which was put a small quantity of laudanum, lest our going out and then descended by the turn stile into the try a li tle brandy, (we had got a small bettle for the occasion) so we drank together-I got him to stand near me leaning against the bars to pro-tect me, as I was undressed, from the cold-By this time I had got his back turned to the

oth r window, and kept bim talking and drink ing until Col. Bodge and others went out and over the fonce. I got one of the men who remained to take my place at the sentinel side, who did not perceive the change, while I followed my comrades; the place which we passed Poisel as we crawled behind a small cook house sure my boon companion, the last file marching We walked out each day for half an hour, sithough with difficulty, towards the guard agair near being discovered by the noise made by one of our number which attracted the attentien of the scettnel on the wall above our room. On hearing the noise he moved down towards us-we all lay flat on the ground, and after he and marched back to his post. Again we moved forward and passed the storehouses, beind which is another sentinel, and had passed opposite the sentinel at the magazine and were in the p rade ground, when we were alarmed noise of a solder running from, it appeared, our late room neroes the square towards the officer's quarter-he passed near us, but did not perceive us Mr. Deige enquired of ma capied by the other two who were out with | what I thought it means, and I, more to encurrage the men, than from any belief I had in what I said, answered that I supposed some of them was sick, and that he was probably going to the Doc or's quarters, where, it seems, he did stumbling I mentioned before, (for what reason tres without the knowle go of the guard, and stumbling I mentioned before, (for what reason he within a less test of us. Yet one as one of, we know not) broke out of line and marched in Colore. Dedge, with one of the mea, kept at another direction. The noise he made (and it work at the one window, while I see the other, was not a little) attracted the attention of the in conversation. Occasion ity if would squak we were immediately challenged, but as we but the men would walk about, would dance . d , forms very indistinctly, we passed on quickly, but -Cutver than leaped back again and ran for a little distance, then durted into one of the co-

The officer thinking he had passed straight forward, followed on and made towards the ofstrength of the fortress in question. Both of the man are wear as the sught to see me by the new Town them are now in the city of New York, and the more than the city of New York, and the Major (for Major Traser had been displaced). Major (for Major Traser had been displaced) than the man now in the city of New York, and the major (for Major Traser had been displaced) than the main the major than the wall, as the noise made in hauling following account of the companion of the c and he in ormes are the had not got all his cargo, nor would be ready to sail for some time. I to see the had rot got all his cargo, nor would be ready to sail for some down the rope would inquestionably direct them time. I to see out where his vessel lay, and to us. It was a dreadful alternative, but we

Death or Laberty was our motto when we fair weather was a ways to test. A watch was have been taken alive. I took the lead, letting slightest opportunce of rain; at last, when we an instant—then let go—Gods what a shock! were simist worm out with watching, the good. I thought every bone in my body was broken to time seemed to ave come. On Monday night pieces. Culver followed me-then Huil. I hard, and the night was dark; we began to make of rope he had cut off as we still had fifteen feet to go down. He did so, and tollowed hunself. We lay a little sprawling about in the hard ditch, all mere or less injured. I dislocated my right ancle joint, and splintered the lower part of one of the bones of my leg. Culver, I believe, dislocated his ancle or otherwise badly injured his loot. Hull and Dodge hurt, but not so b.d as we were. One of the men held on by the piece of rope, and I went down the second descent followed by the other two, while the fourth let himself drop and was cargnt by Mr. Dodge, who, by that means, sprane his wrist. We then clambered up the precipice to the glacis, us to where one of our friends resided, and on no account to stir from where we placed them were placed to intercept us; but onward we until one of us returned, or sent some one to streets without meeting any one whom we could venture to ask. One discovered who we were partly by guess, and when I perceived that he did, I made a virtue of necessity, and informed trate, but as I had been so frank with him, and thinking (1 supposed from his looks) that he word of honour that, as we confided in him, he would give no alarm. A young gentleman who secompanied him, pledged himself also. We left him-passed the sentinel at Sir John Colborne's door who challenged us. We advanced oldly, and he, mistaking us from our cape and cloaks to be some of his own officers, carried arms to us as we passed. Not relying implicitly on the promise given us by the Canadian tory gentleman, we change to one of the gates of the city. (I believe Hope Gate) We passed through and got into the Lower Town, where, after a little wandering about, we met with a poor Canadian who, at that hour of the night was returning from his work, he carried a lantern with him. I accou ted him, and entered with him into a shed, where he laid his tools. I had no trouble to prevail on him to take me to our friends. He said he would willingly risk his life in the ser vice of those who risked so much for his poo

He took us to the house of a gentleman in St. Rocks, who received us with kindness, and vent nimself along with Mr. D. to bring the bays, but before they got to the gates of the and all were shat, and no person could get either out or in until daylight-soldi.rs and police were stationed at the gates and acouring the streets in all directions. nell and staff, as well as all the other military officers, were rushing through the streets, and lanes like madmen - spurring their chargers, and knocking the fire from the ston s of the street just like soldiers The next morning the two poor fellows, who were, and many who knew our plan of conce-defoolery. I know that you are one of the offi- -had to cause his quarters five times, and cers, but you know it is my dury to see who you when the sursuit was the keenest source and swering their challenge, and I am resolved, short or tail-er who were blind-op ming the swering their chillenge, and I am street on the dead—examining all the old wo since you will not give me your name, to find coding of the dead—examining all the old wo out who you are." He toen spring towards how, but our min lesped upon the wall at a part streets misposed in m. India a moment is possible to the coding of the coding of the enterprize. A gain of two streets misposed in m. India a moment is possible to the code of the coding of the enterprize. A gain of two streets misposed in m. India a moment is possible to the code of the coding of the co morning we'cs aped we went to the nouse of a the reward, and hear every day the numerous reports that were circulated concerning us, how we were seen at some place, and how we were lying sick at an after across the fines, &c. &c. leave the saturday News receive, in additional to the saturday News received. When the excitement had somewhat subsides, tion to their ordinary supply of miscellane-cod numerous guards which were placed at his our matter, an English annual, the largest different thoroughteres of the city, and the road well at the vessel and think when some would be started, and none of us would have submitted to leading out of it, were somewhat relaxed from receive it, moreover, in a form that, from its start; and as we had partially recovered from our lameness, and were fit to undergo the fa tigue of the journey, Saturday night the 31 November, we fixed for the occasion. Good horses and a guide were furnished us by kind friends-well armed with swords and pistols, we crossed the river at Point Levy, where w mounted the horses that were at an appointed place awaiting us. We mounted-and I will say four more determined men never before took that road-we travelled by night and slept by day. On Tuesday morning a little after daylight we crossed the lines, where our hearts bounded with joy at the sight of the sign post of the eagle and stars advising us that we now in the State of Maine-that we had gained the haven that had so long by us been so ar dently desired.

As we could not keep the direct route all the way, to avoid places where guards were stamight disturb his slumbers, and the rain having ceased, and he began to get stupified with the effects of the opium, tottered about; and the bar being then off, we had no alternative—go we must; and calling the sentry to me I told him man in the Governor's Garden with the bandles, tioned, were obliged to take more eircuitous owing to the industry and zeal of the Town Major that the little drop of porter I had taken had to remain there quiet until we would go and met by any guard, nor were we challenged by made me feel sturisfied and cold and that I should find out some French person who would direct a single individual. We were obliged to pass, notwiths anding, places where we knew guards gilance, were enoring away in their beds. We funteer cavalry, sent out at Quebec to pursue deserters, or ourselves, if we had been iquespick up on the road. And as Mr. D, or my-self had seen enough of the swagger of the volunteer officers while in Upper Canada, we might not escape scatholess in a contest with had an idea that either of us could have persous, he told us to go our ways, and pledged his nated the character to perfection; however, we nated the character to perfection; however, we had not the chance, meeting no one but a few manner a little upon, by the few questions we thought it prudent to ask them, and I think by their manner they took us to be the real Simon Pures, as none but a Canadian volunteer officer

> SALAT-MARY'S COUNTY COURT. August Term, 1858.
>
> REFRED BY THE COURT, That the reditors of James A. Bussell. reducer of James A. Russell, a petitioner for the head appear before the County Court to be held at Leonard Town, in and for Saint Mary's counts, on the first Monday of March next) to fit allegations, if any they have, and to recommend a permanent trustee for their benefit.

By order. JO. HARRIS, Clk.
True copy. JO. HARRIS, Clk.

True copy, JO. HARRING County NOTICE.

I DO hereby forwarn all persons from purchasing the following described premises. Lying in Allogany county Mid., being Perry Sullivan's Lot. Numbered 2083, and William Sullivan's Lot Numbered 1807, as notitle whatever can be given for the same, without the congresses of all the representatives of said Ferry and William Sullivan. REBECCA SULLIVAN.

MAMMOTH SHEET.

OFFICE OF THE SAFURDAY NEWS AND LITERARY GAZETTE. Philadelphia, November 26, 1836.

THE very liberal patronage bestowed on the SAFURDAY NEWS, since its to a neucement in July last, and a desire to places, and crawled into a tavern, where they meet that patronage by corresponding exerhad not been long before they were discovered tions, have induced us this week to publish and taken, while we were concealed by our triends, and the most active search was mar in Philadelphia for any purpose, for us and a reward by the fivers of the graphs. page of the mammoth sheet, and we were othe paper—in removing and folding the sheets, &c., can only be estimated by those respectable namily where we were created as if transditionary size, this number presents atbelonging to them; nor did we leave them must tractions that entitle it to some attention. -We could see the placards on the houses giving a description of our persons in I oldering the reward, and hear every day the numerous and particularly our own country, has been yet received for the coming season; and they

Of the general character of the Saturday News we need not speak. That has now become so well known as to require no comment. We may take occasion to say, however, that in enterprize and resources we yield to no other publishers in this city or elsewhere, and we are determined that our paper shill not be surpassed. We have entered the field prepared for zealous competition, and we stand ready in every way to realize our promise, that no similar publication shall excel that which we issue. Our articles, both original and selected, we are not ashamed to test by any comparison which can be adopted; and there is no periodical in the United States, monthly or weekly, which might not be proud of many of our contributors.

The issuing of this number may be regarded as an evidence of our intention and abili-ty to merit suce is. Nor will it be the only effort—From tone to thus, as opportunity of-fers, we propose to adopt extraordinary means for the interest and gratification of our subscribers. L. A. GODEY, & Co.