

PLENET TO THE GLOBE
PROSPECTUS FOR THE
CONGRESSIONAL GLOBE AND APPENDIX.

These works have been published by us for six years. There are now more subscribers for them, probably, than for any paper published in the United States, and more than these are for any other published in this District. This large and increasing subscription is conclusive evidence of their usefulness. They are intrinsically to all who feel an interest in the progress of Congress. No other publication offers so full, nor half so cheap. It is, in fact, the cheapest publication in the United States—perhaps in the world. Our price at the seat of Government enables us to put them at so low a rate. We are enabled to publish the proceedings of Congress in detail, for our daily paper. This it requires, comparatively, but a small additional expense to change them to the form of the Congressional Globe and Appendix. If it were not for these circumstances we could not publish them for four times as much as we do.

The Congressional Globe is made up of daily proceedings of the two houses of Congress, and the speeches of the members, condensed. The yeas and nays on all important subjects are given. It is published daily, with small type, on sixteen royal pages.

The Appendix contains the speeches of the members at full length, written out by themselves, and is printed in the same form as the Congressional Globe. It is published as the speeches can be prepared. Usually there are more numbers printed for a week than there are weeks in it.

Each of these works is complete in itself. It is desirable for every subscriber to both; because, if there should be any quib in the synopsis of a speech in the Congressional Globe, or any denial of its correctness, it may be removed at once, by referring to the speech in the Appendix. Copies to both are sent to subscribers, as they can be prepared after the adjournment of Congress.

TERMS:
One copy of the Congressional Globe,

and one copy of the Appendix, $1.
Copies of either of the above works sent for $5, twelve copies for $10, proportionate number for a larger sum. Payments may be transmitted by mail, at our risk. The notes of any reported bank in the United States, current in the section of country where a subscriber resides, will be received. But when subscribers can procure the notes of banks in the Northern and Middle States, they please send them.

We insure all the numbers, the subscription should be here by the 11th of December. Democratic papers with which we exchange, will please give this prospectus insertions.

No attention will be paid to any correspondence unless accompanied by an unobscured responsible person, known to us, who shall agree to pay it before the subscription expires.
