ter inability of engaging in any thing that demanded vigour or courage, sometimes a visionary idea of an aggravation of her disease, a whimsical aversion to particular persons and places, groundless apprehensions of personal danger and poverty, an irascibility and weakness of life, discontented, dissatisfied on every slight occasion, she conceived she could neither do nor live most miserable life, never was any one so sad, with frequent mental hallucinations.

Dr. Wm. Evans, proprietor of the celebrated Canonic Pills, York, with esteem, Sciden P. Gilbert.

Dear Sir—Had the immortal Cooper known the medical qualities of the Canonic Plant, he would have thousands since (besides myself) would have experienced its wonderful effects on the nervous system.

The above lines were prompted from the effect I have experienced from Dr. Wm. Evans' Canonic Pills.
