Next Baltimore Annual Conference to be held in Georgetown, March 11, 1840.

C. A. Davis, transferred to New York Conference. John Anderson, to Missouri. Alfred Goodykoontz, to Holstein. Jacob Shouck, to Virginia.

Johnson, one of the persons implicated in the murder of a sailor at New Orleans some months ago, was hanged in that city on the 16th. He confessed, says the Louisiana, that he murdered his own brother at Quebec, and that he has assisted in the murdering the sidle crew of a vessel at sea. He was only about 20 years of age.

Mrs. Doyle, who was the principal in the above crime, was convicted and sentenced to death; but her sentence was commuted to imprisonment for life. It was deemed revolting to the humanity of the people of Louisiana to inflict capital punishment upon a female. In this instance the guilt is of the most heinous kind.

A DEED OF DARKNESS. It is stated in the Newark Advertiser, that during one of the dark nights of the present week, the tombstone erected by J. W. Perkins, Esq. upon the grave of the late Dr. Jameson, of that place, was torn up and mutilated, and the grave itself stripped of its covering." In what other country of the civilized world would the press be called upon to record such an outrage!

AN IMPROVED METHOD OF MAKING COFFEE. Put your coffee (after grinding) into a flannel bag, tie it closely, (allowing it sufficient room to boil freely,) put it in the boiler, adding as much water as may be required. After boiling, it will be found to be perfectly clear, without the addition of egg, &c. Having likewise the advantage of retaining its original flavour and strength in greater perfection than when clarified.

A GOOD IDEA. In Connecticut they find a use for almost every thing. An old lady in that State is collecting all the political papers she can lay her hands on to make soap of. She says they are a dequp sight better than ashes, they are most as good as clear lie."

ADVANTAGE OF POVERTY IN EARLY LIFE. And English judge being asked what contributed most to success at the bar, replied, "Some success by great talent, some by high connections, some by a miracle, but the majority by commencing without a shilling."

HYMENEAU. Married, on Tuesday morning last, at the residence of Leonard Iglehart, Esq. by the Rev. Mr. Waters, Mr. PETER MILLER, to Miss DEILAH JANE CLARKE, all of A. A. county.

DANCING ACADEMY. W. S. GEORGE very respectfully informs the citizens of Annapolis and vicinity, that he intends opening a Dancing and Waltzing Academy at the Annapolis Station, on or about the first of May next. March 28.

PUBLIC SALE. BY virtue of an order of the Orphans' Court of Anne Arundel county, the subscriber will sell at Public Sale, on Thursday, the 4th day of April next, at the late residence of Tobias Bourke, deceased, lying on the Patapsco river, about one mile from Baltimore, all the Household and Kitchen Furniture, and Farming Utensils, and stock of Horses, Hogs, Cattle, &c.

of the said deceased; among them are two valuable JACKS, of large size, and about 5 or 6 years old, and a STALLION, "Paradise," a full bred Horse about 8 years old. The Terms of Sale are—Cash for all sums under twenty dollars, and a credit on bonds with security, bearing interest, on all sums above twenty dollars.

RHELIETTAH BOURKE, Adm'r. of Tobias Bourke. March 28.

VALUABLE FARM AT PUBLIC SALE. BY virtue of the authority vested in the subscribers by the last will of the late Dr. Hyde Ray, and the codicil thereto, they will offer at Public Sale, at the Court House door, in the city of Annapolis, on Tuesday, the 10th of April next, if not disposed of at Private Sale before that time, the Farm called "Sherwood Forest," lying on the river Severn, about four miles from the city of Annapolis. This tract of land contains about 700 ACRES. A large portion of it is heavily wooded, and lies immediately on navigable water, and close to the Annapolis and Elk Ridge Rail Road. The quality of the soil is good. The improvement consist of a Stone Dwelling House, and out-Houses necessary for the cultivation of a farm. Persons desirous to purchase land are requested to examine this farm, and to apply to John S. Seligman, Annapolis, or J. Neckett Steele, Baltimore, for information in relation to it.

The Terms, at Public Sale, will be one-third of the purchase money cash, and the balance in three equal instalments, at one, two and three years. The credit payments to be secured by bonds, approved by the subscribers, and to bear interest payable semi-annually. If the property is sold at private sale these terms may be altered to suit the purchaser. Upon the ratification of the sale by the Orphans Court of Anne Arundel county, and the payment of the whole purchase money, a deed will be executed by the subscribers to the purchaser. The title of this property is believed to be indisputable.

GATH. S. M. RAY, Esq. } of H. Ray. J. NECKETT STEELE, Esq. } March 28.

AN ELECTION

The members of all other persons friendly to the association, are requested to attend. The polls will be opened at 8 o'clock, A. M. and closed at 10 o'clock, M.

CHARLES HODGES, Sec'y. March 27.

TRUSTEES' SALE. UNDER the authority of a decree of the High Court of Chancery, the undersigned will sell by auction, at the Exchange, in the city of Baltimore, on MONDAY, the 8th day of April next, at 1 o'clock, P. M. all that Lot described as follows: that

LOT OF GROUND lying on Charles street extended, beginning at the intersection of Charles and Chase sts. fronting on Charles street fifty feet, and on the south side of Chase street one hundred and fifty feet.

This property adjoins the present beautiful reservoir of the Water Company, and the Col. Howard's residence, Bellevue. It lies on it a fine large rough cast DWELLING HOUSE.

The terms of sale as prescribed by the decree are—One-third cash, and the residue in one and two years, with interest, to be secured by bonds, with sureties, to be approved by the Trustees.

JOHN GLENN, CHARLES F. MAYER, } Trus. March 28.

A VALUABLE FARM FOR SALE.

BY virtue of a deed of trust executed to the subscribers by Dr. James Tongue, for the payment of his judgment creditors as therein set forth, dated 7th December 1838, and recorded, the subscribers will sell at Private Sale the residue of the land conveyed to them, consisting of the Dwelling Plantation of said Tongue, containing about 300 ACRES, having thereon a Dwelling and Tobacco House and all other suitable buildings, and an abundant supply of water, fuel and timber.

This land lies in Anne Arundel, between West River and Herring Bay, adjoining the lands of Messrs. Weems and Skinner, and Mrs. Waters, and is near the landing called the Cove, between which and Baltimore there is a regular intercourse by steam and sail boats.

The Terms of Sale are—One-third of the purchase money to be paid in Cash, and the residue in two equal Annual instalments, to be secured by bonds with securities, to be approved of by the subscribers, and to bear interest from the day of sale; a change of the terms, however, may be made to suit the purchaser. On payment of the purchase money, the subscribers will execute conveyances as provided for by the above deed of trust.

The creditors of Dr. James Tongue who have judgments that were rendered before the date of this deed of trust, are requested to exhibit to the subscribers the vouchers thereof, with a statement of the amount due.

JAMES KENT, Portland Manor, A. RANDALL, Annapolis, } Trustees. March 28.

FARM FOR SALE.

BY virtue of a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, passed on the second day of February last, in a cause wherein Ellen Gardiner and others, are complainants, and Mary Ann Clarke and others, are defendants, the subscriber will, on MONDAY, the 8th day of April next, at the Court House door in the city of Annapolis, at 12 o'clock M. expose at Public Sale to the highest bidder, all that parcel of Land, being a part of a tract called Abington, and part of a tract called Chance, containing about 183 A-4 ACRES, lying in Anne Arundel county, about nine miles from Annapolis, and on the public road to Baltimore, near Bicknell's Meeting House, which was the estate formerly held by Francis Macaulay, deceased.

This land lies about 3 1/2 miles from the Annapolis and Elk-Ridge Rail Road. It adjoins the lands of Mr. Cadle, Samuel Jones' heirs, Mr. Hopkins and Mrs. Macdonald. There are on the premises a Frame Dwelling, an Orchard, &c. About seventy acres of the land are arable, the remainder is in Wood and valuable Timber of Chesnut, &c.

The Terms of Sale are—One-third of the purchase money payable on the day of sale, or the ratification thereof; one-third one year thereafter, and the balance two years after the day of sale; the whole purchase money to be secured by bond, with sureties, and to be approved of the day of sale. On the ratification of the sale, and payment of the purchase money, the Trustee is authorized to convey the property to the purchaser clear of all the claim of the parties, and those claiming under them.

A. RANDALL, Trustee. March 14.
