When the child about two months old, a fashionably dressspectable looking lady, who gave her name rs. Catharine Sayre, applied to the comoners to obtain a female infant, in order she might adopt it as her own, as she had hildren. Although the lady's dress and eanor betokened her to be highly respectathe commissioners with due caution, red her to give them a reference, before they blied with her request. And accordingly next day another equally respectable lookwoman called on the commissioners and ined them that Mrs. Sayre was a highly retable and affluent lady, and that she would oubt take good care of the infant. Thus fied as to the lady's character, the commisers agreed to give her a very beautiful feinfant, about two months old, being no o-than the child of Eliza Jones. And in orto have further security that the child ld be properly treated, and well brought up, commissioners made Mrs. Sayre enter into

And to this house she brought her aed child, and unknowingly employed its mother to take care of it. Eliza Jones gpised her unfortunate offspring, and kept secret to herself, but bestowed such matercare upon it, that the infant throve accorgly, and in a few months was one of the fiand most pretty children in the city, and woman who adopted it seemed as fond of if it had been her own. When the child nearly seven months old, its present age, Sayre discovered the relationship which a Jones bore to it, and with a refinement of elty, or from other motives known only to self, she determined to separate the child n its mother, and send it elsewhere to be sed. The poor mother remonstrated against ig separated from her child, and refused to with it, and Mrs. Saure had the child furly removed, and placed it with a coloured nan in. Church street. ON LOW SPIRITS.

Low spirits is a certain state of the mind, accompa-hald by indigestion, wherein the greatest evils are ap-probanded upon the slightest greated, and the wont consequences imagined. Ancient medical writers sup-posed this disease to be confined to those particular ra-gions of the abdomant technically called hypochondrid, which are situated on the right or left side of that ca-vity, where a comes the name hypochondridais.

Also languidness—the mind becomes installe, thoughtful, desponding, mel incholy and deject ed, accompanied by a total derrangement of the nervous system. The mental feelings and peculiar train of ideas that haunt the imagination and overwhelm the judgment, exhibit an infinite diversity. The wisest and best of men are as open to this affliction as the weak-est.

Treatment. The principal objects of treatment are, to remove indigestion, strengthen the body, and enliven the spirits, which may be promoted by exercise, early hours, regular meals, pleasant conversation—the bow els (if costive) should be carefully regulated by the occasional use of a mild aperient. We know nothing better adapted to obtain this end, than Dr. Wm. Evans' Aperient Pills—being mild and certain in their operation. The bowels being once cleaned, his inestimable Camomilo Pills, (which are tonic, anodyne, and anti spannodic) are an infallible remedy, and without dispute have proved a great blessing to the numerous public.

Dr. W. Evans' Celebrated Soothing Syrup, for Children Cutting their Teeth.

This infallible remedy has preserved hundreds of children, when thought past recovery, from convulsions. As soon as the Syrup is rubbed on the gums, the child will recover. This preparation is so innocent, so efficacious, and so pleasant, that no child will refuse to let its gums be rubbed with it. When infants are at the age of four months, though there is no appearance of teeth, one bottle of the Syrup should be used on the gums, to spen the pores. Parents should never be without the Syrup in the nursery where there are young children; for if a child wakes in the night with pain in the gums, the Syrup immediately gives ease by opening the pores and healing the gums, there by preventing Convulsions, Fevers, &c.

THE BARON VON HUTGHELER

HERB PILLS.

These Pills are composed of Herbs, which exert a specific action upon the heart; give an impalse or strength to the arte ial system; the blood is quickened and equalized in its tirrulation through all the vessels, whether of the akin, they parts situated internally, or the extremities; and as all the secretions of the body are drawn from the blood, there is a consequent increase of every secretion, and a quickened action of the absorbent angérhalent, or discharging vessels. Any morbid action, which may have taken place is correct ed, and obstractions are removed, the blood is purified, and the body resumes a healthful state.

These Pills, after much anxious toil and research, having been brought by the Proprietor to the present state of perfection, supersede the use of the innumerable other medicines; and are so well adapted to the frame, that the use of them, by maintaining the body in the due performance of its functions, and preserving the vital stream in a pure and healthy state, causas it to last many years longer than it otherwise would, and the mind to become so composed and tranquil, that old age when it arrives, will appear a blessing, and not (as too many who have neglected their constitutions, or had them injured by medicines administered by ignorance) a source of misery and abhorence.

They are so compounded, that by strengthening and equalizing the action of the heart, liver, and other viscers, they expel the bad, acrid or morbid matter, which renders the blood impure, out of the circulation, throw the excretory duets into the passage of the bowels, so that by the doise of the Herb Pills, always romembering that while the evacuations, which may be regulated by the doses of the Herb Pills, always romembering that while the evacuations from the beyond the passage of the blood invariably becomes parified.

Cure of Nervous and Bilious Affection.

TAKE NOTICE.—Mr. Elias Shafer, of the town of Westelo, county of Albany, was for above 27 years troubled with a nervous and bilious affection, which for 7 years rendered him unable to attend to business, and during the last three years of his illness was confined to the house. His symptoms were dizziness, pain in the head and side, palpitation of the heart, want of appetite, &c. After expending during his confinement, nearly three hundred dollars, without obtaining any permanent relief, he by accident noticed an advertisement of Baron Von Hutcheler Herb Pills, and was consequently induced to make a trial of them. After using them about a fortnight, he was able to walk out; in four months he could attend to business, and considered his disease entirely removed. The above information was given to the subscriber by Mr. Shafer himself; there can, therefore, be no deception.
